CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

October 17, 2021 Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Forming Missionary Disciples who know Jesus' love and respond to his call.

October 19th
Come One, Come All!

This week's subject: Welcoming Parishes and Collaboration in Parish Ministry.

You are welcome to the complete series (Tuesdays: 1:30-3:30 or 6:30-8:30 pm) or to any individual week that particularly interests you.

Register on the DMCC website, or call the church at 507-331-7253 or just come. All are welcome!

Good and gracious God, you blew into our nostrils the breath of life.

You are the One to whom we owe our very existence.

Give us the courage to take that unpopular position of protecting those who have no voice, the unborn child in the womb to the person taking his or her last breath.

The life you have given us is a gift beyond measure.

Embolden us to speak the truth about protecting the child, the elderly, and the one without a voice in the public square.

With thankful hearts, we ask all this of the One God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

St. Luke tells us that the crowd following and listening to Jesus was steadily growing: While still more people gathered in the crowd... For most of us, drawing bigger and bigger crowds would boost our self-esteem, but maybe also feed our vanity. We would want to keep those crowds following us, so we would try to please them, to say things that would make them want to come back. Jesus does just the contrary. He doesn't stroke their self-complacency. He calls them out: This is an evil generation... Why would Jesus speak like that to them? Maybe because what he said was true. The generation he was preaching to, and in a sense every generation of fallen humanity, is evil. We have a strong tendency to be self-centered, self-absorbed, greedy, lustful, insensitive to God's voice and to the needs of those around us. Only a few members of that growing crowd would faithfully follow Jesus until the end. They were seeking quick fixes for their worldly problems; they weren't seeking the best way to glorify God and advance Christ's Kingdom. What am I seeking?

I would like to take this one step further using St. Paul's words, "I Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called as an Apostle and set apart for the Gospel of God." This is a strange language for us, "To consider ourselves slaves of Jesus." I practiced this the day I wrote this article. I tried to be aware that every thought I had was for Jesus. Any thought that was not of Jesus or His way, I held in contempt. Every action was to have the kingdom in mind. My work was for Jesus. I refused to complain this day. I was a slave for the day. I don't doubt that I failed at certain points and did not realize it. I will try again tomorrow. Paul, how did you do this every day?

For His Glory,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Ministry of Mission and Outreach

Pastoral Care/Mission and Outreach

Blessing of the Memorial Stones in Our Garden of Mercy will take place in the garden after the 10 a.m. Mass this Sunday, October 17. Please join us for the blessing of the stones.

Remembering family members who have died elsewhere and are not buried from Divine Mercy: Our Divine Mercy Parish community wants to support our parishioners in prayer. If you have a loved one who has died elsewhere, please call Bernadette Tatge or Sister Kathleen at 507-331-7253 or email: btatge@divinemercy.cc or srkathleen@divinemercy.cc with your loved one's name. Then we will ask for prayers for your loved one in the pastoral care section of the bulletin.

Let us remember in prayer: Agnes Marquard, mother of Steve Marquard, who has completed her earthly journey. Eternal rest grant unto her O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Memorial Mass for Those Who Have Died: The Mass will be on Wednesday, November 3rd at 7 p.m. at Divine Mercy Church. We come together to remember our loved ones who have died. All are welcome!

CCW

This weekend marks the halfway point for the collection of donations for the Archdiocesan CCW Appalachian Christmas Project. We will take donations of NEW items until October 31. You are invited to select an ornament from one of the trees in the narthex and purchase the item. Leave purchases, unwrapped, at the base of the tree. All donations will be packed and transported to 4 parishes in Appalachia. Toys, clothing, personal care items, or household donations are welcome. All donations are greatly appreciated.

Patty Radatz is the winner of the "Early Bird" gift card. We will continue to have Quilt/Afghan drawing tickets available through November. Return tickets in the collection, at the church reception desk, or parish office.

The November CCW meeting will be on Monday, November 8.

Respect Life

Every day in America 100 people die in car accidents and 1,300 people die from smoking. Every day in America 2,363 children are violently killed by abortion. The worldwide death toll from abortion now exceeds every war, every disease, every famine, and every genocide. The killing of preborn children is the worst human rights crisis in human history. Not only does abortion destroy an innocent child, it also causes an irreparable trauma that scars the mother and father of that child for the rest of their lives.

October is pro-life month, so there will be a crib in the narthex for the whole month, where baby items, such as diapers, can be left for Pregnancy Options.

Pregnancy Options Life Care Center is always in need of donations; call the center for more information! Diapers are always needed! www.pregnancyoptionsbo.org - (507-332-7644)

The daily Mass on Wednesday, October 20 at 8:30 am will be at Divine Mercy Church and not Immaculate Conception Church.

There will be no 10:30 am Mass on October 20.

Happenings

Recently, Divine Mercy Catholic Church was recognized at the Basilica of St. Mary in Minneapolis at the Archdiocesan Emblem Mass for National Catholic Committee on Scouting. DMCC had the largest number of Boy Scouts in the entire diocese earning their Catholic Emblem Awards. Shane Penrick and Cory Caron worked with the boys on their Ad Altare Dei (to the altar of God) program, which works extensively through the seven sacraments of our faith. Peter Sena and Mitchell Gibbs were present at the Mass to receive the emblems from Bishop Andrew Cozzens of behalf of Troop 306. Congratulations to: Holden Boyd, Andrew Caron, Lucas Caron, Leonard Dalby, Owen Dotterweich, Mitchell Gibbs, Aden Hanson, Peter Sena, and Everett Voracek.

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today Jesus tells his disciples: "Anyone among you who aspires to greatness must serve the rest; whoever wants to rank first among you must serve the needs of all."

With love for your neighbors who have nothing, look around your house to see what household items, bedding and clothing you no longer use...and give it to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Donations accepted Monday & Wednesday from 10 AM to 2:30 PM.
