Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

Jesus said to the crowds: “Amen, I say to you, among those born of women there has been none greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he. From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent are taking it by force. All the prophets and the law prophesied up to the time of John. And if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah, the one who is to come. Whoever has ears ought to hear.” Mathew 11:11-15

Entering this passage, we are reminded of how great the love of Jesus for his cousin John must have been. He felt love for a cousin, a friend, and also a Son who has so genuinely and generously given everything to God—love in response to love. When we encounter Jesus in prayer, he wants to love us as sons and daughters of the Father the way he loved John. Advent, the start of the Church’s liturgical year, is a time of new beginning. What newness might we find in our relationship with God and living of our faith this Advent? Let us linger here in prayer and ask God to reveal and to give us the grace to respond in love, as John did, to whatever he may ask of us.

Today, there is no shortage—on the contrary, there seems to be an increase—of violence and division. It may prompt us to take another look at what God promises and what he doesn’t. Jesus showed us by his public ministry that he did not come to establish a perfect political or cultural society. He came to make his Kingdom in hearts open to his love. Yes, we see violence and sorrow in this world, but there is no heart that he himself will not enter, suffer with, and in so doing, redeem—if he is invited in. This truly is something new and wonderful.

“If you are willing to, accept it,” Jesus told his apostles. He did not force an answer from them. This God, who so desires our love, respects and even submits himself to our freedom: “Behold, I stand at the door and knock,” Jesus told us in Revelation 3:20. May we open the door and accept this invitation that Jesus comes to offer, even if we don’t entirely comprehend it.

God bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Pastoral Care/Mission and Outreach

Christmas Support: If anyone wishes to support seniors or families during the Christmas season, you can drop off gift cards for gas, groceries, Wal-Mart, or Target at the church for Bernadette or Sr. Kathleen to organize for distributing. Thanks to those who have already dropped gift cards or cash to buy gift cards. Thank you for spreading much needed Christmas joy!

Blessed Christmas to All: We give thanks that Jesus our Savior has come. His coming brought hope and joy to the world. Let us pray for those for whom this day, for a variety of reasons, brings more sadness than joy. May the day continue to warm their hearts with hope.

We care about you and your loved ones and know life can change quickly. Please let Pastoral Care (507-331-7253) know when someone is admitted to the hospital or nursing home. They need to be listed as Catholic in order for the hospital or nursing home to be able to let us know they are a patient/resident.

Let us remember in prayer: Doug Frydenlund, brother-in-law of Kay Kohl. Doug has completed his earthly journey. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

CCW

The winner of the Quilt was Danelle Erickson (daughter of Susan Voegel); and the Afghan was won by Janet Skjeveland. We hope they will enjoy. Thanks to all who supported this project.

CCW will not meet January 3, 2022. The next meeting will be February 7.

As you fill in upcoming dates in your 2022 calendar add the Women's Retreat scheduled for Saturday, March 5. The speaker will be Nancy Jo Sullivan. Watch for more details in early January.

Have a blessed Christmas!

Respect Life

"I drew them with human cords, with hands of love; I fostered them like those who raise an infant to their cheeks; I bent down to feed them." (Hosea 11:4) Did you know that newborn babies can only see clearly about 8 to 12 inches? It is no wonder that the most natural thing we do when holding newborns is to raise them close to our cheek, to hold them very close. How often did Our Lady hold Jesus close to her cheek, allowing His eyes to see the features of her face, while she gazed into His eyes with awe and kissed His Sacred Face. -Father Joseph Mary Wolfe, EWTN

St. Vincent de Paul

Jesus was born during the night of the year when darkness is the longest. The Savior of the world comes for the people in dark places. The real, lasting, and deep joy is that the Light shines there.

Through your gifts of time and money to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Food Shelf, "Light" has shown, bringing real, lasting and deep joy to the hearts of the poor who live in dark places in our streets and neighborhood. Thank you for your prayers and support.

Sons of Thunder

Tuesday Nights at 7:00 PM at DMCC Farmhouse

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve. This group will meet weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

We look forward to seeing you.

Pope Francis named Father Joseph Williams, a priest of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, as Auxiliary Bishop of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Bishop-elect Williams was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis in 2002. After ordination, Bishop-elect Williams ministered at the Cathedral of Saint Paul, Divine Mercy in Faribault, Saint Mathias in Hampton and Saint Mary in New Trier. In 2008, he was appointed to serve Saint Stephen parish in Minneapolis. Holy Rosary parish was added to his pastorate in 2020. Bishop-elect Williams currently serves on the board of trustees of The Seminaries of Saint Paul in Saint Paul.
