Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

This past Friday was marked by the church as the day of prayer for the legal protection for the unborn. May the USA protect those who have no voice and may Jesus have mercy on us.

Mark 3: 20-21: Jesus came with his disciples into the house. Again the crowd gathered, making it impossible for them even to eat. When his relatives heard of this they set out to seize him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."

These words give us a glimpse of what it was like to spend every day with Jesus. The disciples went everywhere that he went, and lived many moments with him doing ordinary things. At times they were in a field, at times they went with him to the synagogue or to the town square, and at times they invited him into their homes. Did their familiarity with Jesus lead them to take him for granted in little ways and not wonder at how hard he worked? Or perhaps seeing Jesus' humanity on a daily basis made it difficult for them to be awed by his divinity. Our familiarity with the Mass, especially if we go daily, and the routine of our devotional practices can sometimes numb us to the truth that Jesus is indeed God. May we strive always to appreciate the intimate access he gives to us in prayer and the sacraments.

Several times in the Gospel, Jesus and the disciples were so inundated by the crowds and consumed with serving that they could not take care of their most basic needs, like eating. With Jesus, there seemed to be "a new normal," which was one of total self-giving. Of course, we are called to be prudent and balanced in our work, our ministry, and our family life. But perhaps this Gospel is calling us to evaluate where we can give more. May we imitate St. Ignatius of Loyola in his generous self-giving by praying: Take Lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, and my entire will, all that I have and possess. Thou hast given all to me. To Thee, O Lord, I return it. All is Thine, dispose of it wholly according to Thy will. Give me Thy love and thy grace, for this, is sufficient for me.

That Jesus had relatives who considered him out of his mind presents us with great irony. Far from crazy, Jesus is, in fact, wisdom incarnate. "In Wisdom is a spirit intelligent, holy, unique, manifold, subtle, agile, clear, unstained, certain, not baneful, loving the good, keen, unhampered, beneficent, kindly, firm, secure, tranquil, all-powerful, all-seeing, and pervading all spirits, though they be intelligent, pure, and very subtle". (Wisdom 7:22-23) Jesus is the one with the clearest understanding of his identity, and the most rational, intelligent, and balanced of any human person. Knowing Jesus as we do, in hindsight, we can see more clearly who he is, although he will always be a mystery. What confuses us oftentimes is why Jesus does what he does in our lives. In our struggles to understand the "whys" in our life, we recall the words of the prophet Isaiah: "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, my thoughts higher than your thoughts" (Isaiah 55: 9). Jesus is inviting us to overcome our human way of understanding and to see things through the lens of the Gospel.

God bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Pastoral Care (Bernadette Tatge or Sister Kathleen) will be happy to add the names of your sick loved ones in these books for you. Because of HIPPA, we can only enter a name with the permission of the person asking for prayers or the permission of an immediate family member (call 507-331-7253 or email btatge@divinemeracy.cc or srkathleen@divinemeracy.cc).

Brighter Days Family Grief Center is pleased to offer this free event. Join a safe, virtual setting for adults (18+) who have experienced the death of a loved one from COVID-19. The group will begin with Kelly speaking on unique grief and then using breakout rooms to meet others in a smaller setting. Please bring a candle to light at the end of the group! Space is limited, so please register early by emailing info@bdgc.us.

Parish Anointing Mass: Parish Anointing Mass is on Saturday, February 12 at the 8:30 a.m. Mass. We also recognize the World Day of Prayer for the sick, an observance begun by Pope John Paul II as a way for believers to offer prayers for those suffering from illnesses. All are welcome.

CCW

Dates to add to your calendar: CCW Meeting on February 7 at 6:15 pm and the Morning Reflections on Saturday, March 5.

At the start of each year CCW requests donations rather than "dues". There is an envelope in the parishioner's packets of envelopes. However, if you use automatic payment there is not a place on the pledge form for CCW. If you wish to do an annual donation, simply place the donation in an envelope marked "CCW donation". Indicate on checks "for CCW". Thank you to all who donate.

St. Vincent de Paul

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reads the words of scripture: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor."

If you or a family you know needs assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Food Shelf so that together we can "listen to the voice of Jesus" to serve those who are suffering and poor.

Exodus 90 For Men

You might have seen the advertising information along the roadway and inside the Narthex and wondering what this is about. You can go online at Exodus90.com for details. Or, if you are interested in signing up you can contact our local resource contact, Richard Klatt at rklatt1957@gmail.com for information. All we need is your full name and email address. Thank you.

Respect Life

AND SO WE MARCH ON. For all these many years faithful people embracing the sanctity of life, have marched to Washington D.C. and all across the country, advocating for the rights of little, helpless, unborn children. January 20th is the National Prayer Vigil for Life, and the annual March for Life is on January 21st. The following day is a day of prayer for the legal protection of unborn children. It seems like an irony that we have had to pray and march for over 40 years for the protection of the lives of these little ones. How many millions more will have to die before we become a safe sanctuary for unborn children.

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve. This group will meet weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

Prayer Shawl

We would like to welcome back our Prayer Shawl Knitters. We have a few changes to our group. We will now have the prayer shawls and baptismal blankets blessed on the First Tuesday of every month at the 8:30 am daily Mass. We will then have our meeting in the St. Faustina Commons from 9:00 am to 10:00 am. We would like to welcome everyone who is interested in making prayer shawls and baptismal blankets to join our meeting. We knit, get yarn, share information, and have fellowship. We provide the yarn for all those interested in making prayer shawls and baptismal blankets, and if you don't know how to knit or crochet we can teach you. You don't have to come to the meetings, but you can still knit for us. You will be providing a special gift to all those who receive prayer shawls and baptismal blankets. Our next meeting will be February 1st. If you have completed prayer shawls or baptismal blankets and cannot come to the daily Mass, you can drop them off at the church anytime. If you have any questions please contact Winnie Hughes at 507-339-9160 or Carol McHugo at 507-412-9714. If you know of anyone who could use a prayer shawl, please contact one of us or call the church office.

The Restful Waters Ultreyas will be held at DMCC during 2022. We will meet in the Faustina Commons the second Friday of each month starting at 7:00pm. Save the date - Friday, February 11th: Fr. Cory will be speaking. Please join us.
