CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

January 30, 2022 Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are grateful for the long tradition of committed Catholics, especially the women religious, who began our schools and preserved them through the years, and also for those who work for its future. Help us to follow their example of Service and Generosity when it is our turn to preserve the Faith.

Thank you, Father, for the blessing of our Catholic Schools. Help us to grow in faith, hope, and love as we are taught about You, Your Church, and our own salvation.

Thank you, Jesus, for the blessing of all the parishes, priests, and Catholic School supporters that make our school possible.

Thank you, Holy Spirit, for the blessing of our parents, principals, and teachers. We are grateful for the grace and wisdom You give them as they teach and guide us. Help us to grow in our understanding of the world around us and grant us the strength to make right choices when the world challenges what is right and holy. Amen.

Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

Mark 4:35: On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side." Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.

1. Coming Away with Jesus: As nightfall came, the disciples of Jesus must have been mentally exhausted. For hours, their master had been speaking in parables to the crowds, suggesting to everyone how they could attempt to understand the Kingdom of God. They worried about enemies that could be lurking in these crowds, and they had concerns that Jesus' parables could be misunderstood by many. They were likely quite pleased when their master finally invited them to come away with him, and only him, on a boat across the Galilee. Jesus invites us to come away with him, also. The destination is not particularly important; it is all about the company. Not only has God become man, but a man that wants to spend time with us, who wants to be in communion with us: "No longer do I call you servants... but I have called you friends" (John 15:15).

2. Stormy Seas: This scene of the boat being tossed in the squall is the subject of a famous Rembrandt masterpiece. The artist depicts that moment when some of the disciples went to Jesus to implore his assistance. Other disciples are seen furiously fighting against the wind and waves, bailing out water, cowering in fear, or retching over the side of the boat. Rembrandt has painted himself into the picture along with the twelve disciples and Jesus. He looks out to me from the centerline of the boat; those to his right are furiously working, and those to his immediate left are focused on Christ. The artist seems to be asking me where I would be in this scene. This question evokes Jesus' words to Martha when her sister was quietly sitting at Jesus' feet as Martha served, "Mary has chosen the better part" (Lk 10:42).

3. Unshaken Faith: Mark's gospel accounts are replete with events that caused witnesses to shake their heads in amazement. At the end of today's gospel, the disciples were in awe of the calming of the seas they had just experienced. While a sense of wonderment is understandable and admirable as we reflect on our awesome God, the preceding words of Jesus suggest that a lack of faith might contribute to our sense of constant amazement. We recall the resurrected Christ admonished "Doubting Thomas" with these words: "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." (Jn 20:29). On this Saturday, as we look for a model of unwavering faith, let us recall the words of Saint Thomas Aquinas, whose memorial we celebrated yesterday: "Since the Resurrection took place on a Sunday, we keep holy this day instead of the Sabbath as did the Jews of old. However, we also sanctify Saturday in honor of the glorious Virgin Mary who remained unshaken in faith all day Saturday after the death of her Divine Son."

Happy sailing,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

St. Vincent de Paul

In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us that we are called to place gospel values before any other values and to be willing to put our lives on the line for them. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values.

Have you considered answering the call to take care of God's poor by helping the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Volunteers are needed to help with clothing, office, and the food shelf, call 507-334-2100 for more information.

The Restful Waters Ultreyas will be held at DMCC during 2022. We will meet in the Faustina Commons the second Friday of each month starting at 7:00pm. Save the date - Friday, February 11th: Fr. Cory will be speaking. Please join us.

Respect Life

In a couple of days we celebrate the conversion of St. Paul who was instrumental in the torture and death of so many including St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. His conversion came about as a direct intervention of Jesus, thus giving the Church one of its greatest Apostles. Let us pray that all abortion providers, supporting people and politicians come to conversion without perhaps such a dramatic intervention, but with the realization that abortion is an evil practice and has no place in a civilized society.

Tuesday Nights at 7:00 PM at DMCC Farmhouse

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve. This group will meet weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

We look forward to seeing you.

Prayer Shawl

We would like to welcome back our Prayer Shawl Knitters. We have a few changes to our group. We will now have the prayer shawls and baptismal blankets blessed on the First Tuesday of every month at the 8:30 am daily Mass. We will then have our meeting in the St. Faustina Commons from 9:00 am to 10:00 am. We would like to welcome everyone who is interested in making prayer shawls and baptismal blankets to join our meeting. We knit, get yarn, share information, and have fellowship. We provide the yarn for all those interested in making prayer shawls and baptismal blankets, and if you don't know how to knit or crochet we can teach you. You don't have to come to the meetings, but you can still knit for us. You will be providing a special gift to all those who receive prayer shawls and baptismal blankets. Our next meeting will be February 1st. If you have completed prayer shawls or baptismal blankets and cannot come to the daily Mass, you can drop them off at the church anytime. If you have any questions please contact Winnie Hughes at 507-339-9160 or Carol McHugo at 507-412-9714. If you know of anyone who could use a prayer shawl, please contact one of us or call the church office.

4th Sunday IN ORDINARY TIME

When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. They rose up, drove him out of the town, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28-30
