

DIVINE MERCY

CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

March 27, 2022
Fourth Sunday of Lent

PROJECT UPDATE

Join us on Sunday May 15th at 9am (between the 8am and 10am mass), for a full parish update on the United for Our Future Project.

Refreshments will be served after a brief presentation in the church. This is an exciting day to celebrate, so mark your calendars and plan to join us!

Thank you for the prayers and pledges this project has received over the past year. We appreciate your patience and will continue to bring you updates as progress unfolds. More information on this project can be found at www.divinemercy.cc. Get connected on Facebook, weekly bulletins and weekly email newsletters. Please email your questions, thoughts or concerns to unitedforourfuture@divinemercy.cc.

Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

Matthew 20:17-28: Jesus has a personal conversation with His disciples. He had much on his heart as his Passion drew closer. He wanted to prepare his closest friends, knowing it would come as a shock to them. And perhaps he wanted, simply, to share his suffering from his heart, too. He was about to accomplish the redemption of the world. He was about to suffer and be abandoned. Who, with these events impending, would not want to take his or her closest friends aside and share it with them? Jesus, who is fully God and fully human, did so, yet how little they understood.

According to Matthew, the very next noteworthy event after Jesus' prediction of his Passion was this: the mother of ambitious James and John asked that her sons be given the greatest honor. Their ambition was not entirely "off," because they expressed a desire to be close to Jesus, to participate with him in a real and significant way in his mission. This is something Jesus desires, for us too, his followers. But their expectation of human recognition and honor revealed just how little they understood who Jesus was and how he would bring about the redemption promised. Is there a matter in our own life where we find our limited, human expectations are far from those of Jesus? Let us open our hearts to the Holy Spirit and dialogue with him about this.

"The Son of Man did not come to be served," Jesus patiently said, "but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." Jesus came to reveal himself not to receive honors and accolades, although he always deserves our praise. He came, rather, freely and humbly, to reveal to our hardened hearts, in our slowness to believe, despite our clumsy efforts, that he loves us; and that from this love, he calls us to follow him. His call is not to a path of human accolades; most often, it is to the contrary. He calls us to union with him, to freedom and redemption, and to make ourselves servants with the Servant.

God bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Respect Life

My God, we Pray for all the aborted infants that have been denied the gift of life. Have them all with You my God. We pray for their parents that they might find peace and forgiveness for their actions. We pray for all those who support, assist, or perform that act that takes a human life. We must always believe that there would be no life without the union of God, man and woman. Help us always to protect and guard the Sacrament of Matrimony and the sanctity of human life.

Pregnancy Options Life Care Center is always in need of donations; call the center for more information! Diapers are always needed! www.pregnancyoptionsfbo.org - (507-332-7644)

St. Vincent de Paul

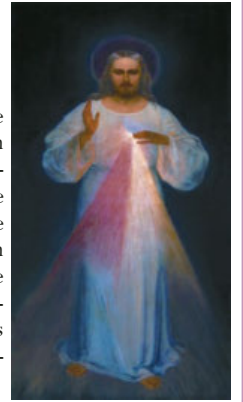

In today's Gospel the prodigal son repents and finds mercy in the heart of his father. Know that your penance during Lent can give the poor the grace of finding the merciful heart of God the Father.

Have you considered answering the call to take care of God's poor by helping the Society of St. Vincent de Paul? Volunteers are needed to help with clothing, office and the food shelf, call 334-2100 for more information.

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 24th

In 2000, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the secretary of Divine Mercy, was canonized on Divine Mercy Sunday and the Feast of Divine Mercy officially proclaimed by Pope John Paul II at St. Peter's in Rome. The Shrine is the site for the largest celebration in the Northeast of the Feast of The Divine Mercy, which is held each year on the Sunday after Easter. The event traditionally is televised on Eternal World Television Network (EWTN).

Lenten Penance Fair

April 5, 4-7 p.m.
at Divine Mercy Catholic Church

On Ash Wednesday, we were signed with ashes with the words: Repent and believe in the Gospel. On April 5th, we have a special opportunity to pray for forgiveness in our journey of repentance by taking advantage of the sacrament of Penance.

Sons of Thunder

Tuesday Nights at 7:00 PM at DMCC Farmhouse

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve. This group will meet weekly on Tuesdays at 7:00 PM.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

We look forward to seeing you.

Spirit Fest

Spirit Fest 2022 Kickoff Meeting
Thursday, March 31 - 6:30 to 8:00 PM

The Spirit Fest Committee is beginning to plan for our annual Fall festival which will be held on Saturday, September 17. There are several open positions on the committee this year and we would like to extend an invitation to anyone who is interested in helping out as a committee member or volunteer. We will be having our kickoff meeting at the DMCC farmhouse at 6:30 PM on Thursday, March 31. This will be an informal meeting open to anyone interested in learning about how you could help to make Spirit Fest a great event for our parish again this year. The committee will be hosting a FREE barbeque dinner before the informational meeting so feel free to come and have a good meal, learn about what it means to be on the committee, what is available for volunteer positions, and to talk with us about any ideas you may have to make our Fall festival another success.

Community News

Many of you know that I lived in Europe for many years, most of them in Rome, Italy. I first ventured there to continue my music studies at Santa Cecilia Conservatory. As a freelance singer, I soon became fascinated with the music of the early baroque period and "historically informed performance practices" of today. I formed the ensemble Consortium Carissimi for this purpose while in Rome and brought this passion stateside in 2005 when I returned to Minnesota. We will perform a Lenten Miserere project in April. This beautiful music from the Italian early baroque is performed by singers, one to a part, accompanied by period instruments at a low 415 pitch. I hope you can join me and my Consortium Carissimi. ~Garrick Comeaux

Seven Sisters Apostolate- Praying for our Priests

Fr. John Hardon, S.J. relates the spiritual mandate, "Having taught priests over 30 years, having lived with priests, and having labored for them, loving them and suffering with them—no words I can use would be too strong to state that the Catholic priesthood needs prayer and sacrifice as never before since Calvary."
