Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

John: 8: 51-59: As Jesus was preaching to these Jews, their rejection of him escalated until they called him possessed. They couldn't have been farther from the truth at this moment, despite their physical proximity to Jesus. Their passions stirred them to anger and their hearts were hardened to faith in Christ. They were sure of their wrongful assessment of him but lacked true discernment. Discernment in a Catholic sense is the ability to sift through a variety of seemingly contradictory movements of the mind, heart, and soul and, by the power of the Spirit, align one's will with God's. To discern God's will for our lives, we need spiritual proximity to Christ through the sacraments and in our daily prayer. We can also benefit from regular dialogue with a spiritual director.

It's a fact of human nature that most of us don't think much about death until we're at a funeral, standing by someone's deathbed, or very ill ourselves. This crowd was incited when Jesus said, "Whoever keeps my word will never see death." But, had they seen the master of life and death for who he is, they might have been curious instead of incensed, hopeful instead of angry, open to the Spirit instead of hurling insults about devilish possession. Death is an inevitability for all of us and it behooves us to reflect on it periodically. When we do, we can embrace this encouragement from St. Therese of Lisieux: "It is not Death that will come to fetch me, it is the good God. Death is no phantom, no horrible specter, as presented in pictures. In the Catechism, it is stated that death is the separation of soul and body, that is all! Well, I am not afraid of a separation which will unite me to the good God forever."

The Lord clearly revealed his divinity to this crowd of irate men, proclaiming "I AM." They thought he was blaspheming, and they failed to recognize his divinity. But we know the truth. Before Abraham was, Jesus existed. This tells us that God is eternal. God is timeless. God is completely independent of his creatures. God never changes. And Jesus revealed by His suffering, death, and Resurrection that God is pure love. Reflecting on these words, "I AM" with the Holy Spirit's gift of fear of the Lord can help us to explore more deeply the inexhaustible nature of God.

Happy Holy Week,
 Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Respect Life

Notable Quotes:

"America you are beautiful and blessed. The ultimate test of your greatness is the way you treat every human being, but especially the weakest and most defenseless. If you want equal justice for all and true freedom and peace, then America defend life." Pope St. John Paul II

"From God we receive our nature as man and woman. This is intolerable to modern minds. Gender ideology is a Luciferian refusal to receive a sexual nature from God." Cardinal Robert Sarah

Divine Mercy Sunday

April 24th

Jesus asked that the Feast of Divine Mercy, known today as Divine Mercy Sunday, be preceded by a Novena to The Divine Mercy. A Novena is nine days of prayer in preparation for a feast. In the case of the Novena to The Divine Mercy, we pray the Chaplet of The Divine Mercy each day for a specific intention. Our Lord told St. Faustina, "I desire that during these nine days you bring souls to the fountain of My mercy, that they may draw... strength and refreshment and whatever grace they need in the hardships of life, and especially at the hour of death" (Diary, 1209). The novena begins on Good Friday.

Correction to Lenten Postcard: The 10:00 Mass on April 10, 17, and 24 will be interpreted for the deaf and hard of hearing (not the 8:00 Mass as noted on the Lenten postcard).

Sons of Thunder

Tuesday Nights at 7:00 PM at DMCC Farmhouse

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

Our staff at DMCC would like to take a quick moment to say THANK YOU! We are continually blessed by an out pouring of support and generosity of time by so many parishioners volunteering. Thank you for all you continue to do for our parish. We appreciate your humble servant hearts and love for this church building and the parish community.

Mission Trip

Over spring break a group of 27 teens and adult leaders from our parish traveled to San Ignacio, Belize for a mission retreat.

The children began to show up an hour before school started, excited for us to arrive for Mass, teaching, and sports camp. The teachers repeated the same message all week "thank you for coming, thank you for giving us time to lesson plan/correct, thank you for giving attention to students that are so far behind in their studies." Cristo Rey Roman Catholic School had just begun school after two years off from Covid. There were tremendous struggles for both teachers and children, as online learning was far from an option for this village. Our teens asked questions, listened to the students stories, and shared their own life stories. They found far more similarities than differences. There were tears as we left and the young students whispered to our teens "we will see you again in heaven!" BOLD HOPE will continue the partnership with these students that we began. Average people can do extraordinary things just by caring.

We would like to say a huge thank you to all who prayed for and supported this group of teens, especially the Knights of Columbus #889 - Faribault, MN for their continued support.

Community News

Many of you know that I lived in Europe for many years, most of them in Rome, Italy. I became fascinated with the music of the early baroque period and "historically informed performance practices" of today. I formed the ensemble Consortium Carissimi, and brought this passion stateside in 2005 when I returned to Minnesota. We will perform a Lenten Miserere. This beautiful music from the Italian early baroque is performed by singers, one to a part, accompanied by period instruments at a low 415 pitch. ~Garrick Comeaux
