Message from Father Cory Rohlfing

All the great conquerors of history would have loved to live forever - but none of them could conquer their greatest foe: death. Only Christ did that.

One of them came close, though, in a way. His name was Napoleon. He was the middle-class military officer who took power in France and restored order after the French Revolution. But his vision extended beyond France's borders. He considered himself a Messiah-like figure, destined to create a French Empire as expansive and long-lasting as the ancient Roman Empire. And it seemed he was right. In only three years his army had conquered all of continental Europe, from the borders of Russia to the Island of Great Britain. But Russia and England still held onto their independence.

In 1812 Napoleon took up yet another campaign of conquest, invading Russia with an army of more than 600,000 men drawn from all over Europe. His campaign failed, and soon an alliance of conquered nations pushed back the imperial armies and sent the emperor into exile, where his glorious career smoldered.

That's when things got interesting. In the course of 12 months, the still youthful general secretly arranged his escape from exile, mustered his former army, and re-conquered the city of Paris. Without pausing to rest or enjoy his success, he launched another attack against his international opponents. His invincibility seemed to have returned. All of Europe was once again trembling in the emperor's shadow. It was like a resurrection. But on the hundredth day after his return, Napoleon was defeated and deposed at the Battle of Waterloo, and sent back into exile, where he died six years later at the age of 52.

It is like that with every earthly kingdom - whether in the military, politics, academia, or business. After 100 days, they pass away, like smoke. Only Christ has made a definitive comeback, an irreversible victory. Only of our Lord can it be said, "His Kingdom will have no end."

To that end Jesus offers us His Divine Mercy this weekend. Jesus tells St. Faustina to tell us, "And fear nothing, dear soul, whoever you are; the greater the sinner, the greater his right to Your mercy, O Lord." Jesus through St. Faustina tells us that we are to go to confession. Jesus who is hidden in the priest will give great graces to forgive us and help us on our journey. Jesus continues to tell St. Faustina, "My daughter, have fear of nothing; I am always with you. All your adversaries will harm you only to the degree that I permit them to do so. You are my dwelling place and my constant repose. For your sake I will withhold the hand which punishes; for your sake I bless the earth." (no. 431)

May you be greeted with Mercy this day,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Ministry of Mission and Outreach

Pastoral Care/Mission and Outreach

Feast of the Divine Mercy: This weekend we are celebrating our parish patronal feast. Let us pray for one another in appreciation for mercy that is shown us by our God and let us show mercy to all.

HOSPITAL MINISTRY: We will soon be resuming ministry at the hospital which entails bringing Communion to those who are sick. The expectation is that you would go to the hospital once or twice a month. Training is provided. If you are interested or have any questions, please contact Bernadette Tatge at btatge@divinemeracy.cc or call 507-331-7253.

Recent moves to nursing home, assisted living, or District One: we are calling on your help. If you have a relative or friend who has recently moved to an assisted living, nursing home, or is in District One, even if only temporarily, please call 507-331-7253 or email Bernadette Tatge (btatge@divinemeracy.cc) or Sister Kathleen (srkathleen@divinemeracy.cc) so we can better serve them. We have regular services or communion visits at Emeralds, Faribault Senior Living, Milestone, Mill City, New Perspectives Pleasant Manor, Pleasant View Estates, and Trails Edge. If a parishioner has moved out of town (e.g. in Northfield or Owatonna), we will keep in contact with them via notes and cards.

CCW

A BIG thank you to the groups who made and served a variety of delicious soups for the Lenten Soup Suppers: Knights of Columbus, Marlene/Bob Gustafson, Bethlehem Academy/ Divine Mercy School, Connie DeGroot/Betty Berge/Marcia Simon, Sister Parish, and the Hispanic Ministry. Thanks to the all who attended, the families who brought dessert items, CCW, and Confirmation students for all the help in set up & clean up.

Next CCW meeting is May 2 at 6:15 pm right after 5:30 pm Mass. Plan to attend as we will be reviewing the By-laws and Standing Rules.

Respect Life

On this feast of the Divine Mercy let us recollect the words of Jesus to Saint Faustina, "This feast emerged from the very depths of My mercy and it is confirmed in the vast depths of My tender mercies. Every soul believing and trusting in My mercy will obtain it." Let us believe in these words of Our Jesus and pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy trusting that He will soon show mercy to the innocent children in the womb and cause an end to the destructive and cruel practice of abortion.

Sons of Thunder

Tuesday Nights at 7:00 PM at DMCC Farmhouse

Men of the Church,

You are invited to join a men's group formed to help us grow in our walk with God, to answer His call, and to give us an opportunity for fraternity. We call ourselves Sons of Thunder. This was the name Jesus gave two of his disciples, James and John (Mark 3:17), when he appointed the Twelve.

What to expect: Opening Prayer, Reading of following Sunday's Mass Readings, Refreshments, & Fraternity.

Please plan on joining us for about an hour or so. After closing prayer, we will have refreshments and social time.

We look forward to seeing you.

Lost and Found

If so, please check the Lost and Found at the desk in the Narthex. Any items that are still there on Monday, April 25 will be repurposed.

Prayer Shawl

The prayer shawls and baptismal blankets will be blessed on the first Tuesday of every month at the 8:30 am daily Mass. We will then have our meeting in the St. Faustina Commons from 9:00 am to 10:00 am. Our next blessing and meeting will be May 3rd. We would like to welcome everyone who is interested in making prayer shawls and baptismal blankets to join our meeting. We will knit, get yarn, share information, and have fellowship. If you have completed prayer shawls or baptismal blankets and cannot come to the daily Mass, you can drop them off at the church anytime. If you have any questions please contact Winnie Hughes at 507-339-9160, Carol McHugo at 507-412-9714, or Betty Berge 507-332-8796.
