Teach Us to Pray

"Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." Last weekend, we heard this moment of the Apostles' experience of their Master, watching Him in prayer. No doubt they saw an intensity in Jesus' union with God that inspired them, and they wanted to grow in that spiritual connection themselves. He was their rabbi, their leader; He kept the crowds spellbound by His teaching; He had a comfort and ease in being with both rich and poor, the powerful and the weak, the robust and the sick. These were all human qualities other rabbis also possessed in some measure. But His prayer was unmistakably unique and the source of His wisdom, zeal and sense of purpose: "I came not to do My own will, but the will of the One Who sent Me."

As we know, Jesus' answer to their request was to give them the "Our Father" or, as we still call it, the Lord's Prayer. It is infinitely rich, drawing us into the very exchange of love between Father and Son that is the inner life of God. To get a hint of the depths of this prayer composed by Jesus Himself, read the Catechism of the Catholic Church, nn. 2759-2865.

To learn to pray is a lifelong process, because it is simply the living communication in the relationship each of us has with God. Just as we speak to our loved ones differently at the different stages of life - children to parents and grandparents, and vice versa; spouses at early, middle and later stages of marriage; school-age friends and those of later life - so too our conversation with God will mature and change if we are deliberate about it.

The Catechism notes that prayer is a "vital and personal relationship with the living and true God." Note that prayer is this relationship, which can take a variety of forms of expression. More than formulae of words, rituals or aids like the Rosary or Stations, prayer is "the raising of one's mind and heart to God" (St. John Damascene). In other words, prayer must come from the heart, and the deepest prayer needs no words or actions at all. When we are in communion with God, we are praying. But sustaining this communion in our human condition in this life requires attention, motivation, a conscious decision to speak - and more importantly, to listen - to God.

Prayer can be praise, petition for our needs, intercession for others, thanksgiving or contrition. I think of the four phrases we learn as children to guide our respectful relationships with others: "Thank you," "I love you," "Please" and "I'm sorry." These sum up the major types of prayer, all found in the Mass. One of the strongest themes of the Catechism about prayer is the word "today" - that our prayer reflects our lived relationship with God in our lives as they are. It is not some separate piety or practice with no other connection to life as we experience it; true prayer is immersed in the specifics of my own "here and now."

While there are general strategies and time-tested methods of prayer, each person's prayer is as unique and unrepeatable as each soul. As the Catechism puts it: "The Lord leads all persons by paths and in ways pleasing to him, and each believer responds according to his heart's resolve and the personal expressions of his prayer." In other words, prayer requires us to learn and develop our own habits and style that works. It is good to be familiar with many forms – verbal prayers like the Rosary, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, Stations or the Liturgy of the Hours; practices like lectio divina or visio divina (meditation on Scripture or Christian art); Eucharistic adoration; silent contemplation and simply listening for God in stillness. Only with time, practice and, above all, perseverance, will one's personal connection with God grow and mature.

Two classic phrases from the Scriptures can start you each day, or on a lifelong journey of prayer if it has been lacking in your life: "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:10) and those words of the Apostles to Christ: "Lord, teach us to pray."

We deeply thank all of our faithful and dedicated Area Leaders and their volunteers who so generously continue serving our parish. Please consider helping with this ministry when called by the Area Leaders. If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, please contact Ruth Kosel at 252-9247.

MASS AND ANOINTING IN HONOR OF ST. PEREGRINE, PATRON OF THOSE AFFECTED BY CANCER

Peregrine Laziosi was born into wealth at Forlì, Italy, in 1260. Though in youth a member of the party in Italy opposed to the Pope, the patience and kindness of St. Philip Benizi moved Peregrine to conversion and a life of penitence and service. Joining the Servite Order, Peregrine was an effective administrator, confessor and preacher. Later, cancer in his leg led to the decision to amputate. In prayer the night before the operation, Peregrine was healed by Jesus and able to serve God's people as before. He is the patron saint especially of cancer patients.

We are privileged to have a statue and small shrine to St. Peregrine at St. Anthony's. Each year, we celebrate a Mass with the Anointing of the Sick in his honor, asking his intercession for those who are sick and those who care for them. This year, the Mass and Anointing will be held on Wednesday, August 28, at 5:30 p.m. at St. Anthony Church. All are welcome, especially those affected by cancer or other illnesses and chronic conditions. This is an opportunity to bring families, friends and neighbors together in prayer, hope and gratitude for the gift of Life. Refreshments will be served in the Parish Center following Mass.
