The Great Divine Mercy Pope

Pope John Paul II, both in his teaching and personal life, strove to live and teach the message of Divine Mercy. As the great Mercy Pope, he wrote an encyclical on Divine Mercy:

"The Message of Divine Mercy has always been near and dear to me... which I took with me to the See of Peter and which it in a sense forms the image of this Pontificate."

In his writings and homilies, he has described Divine Mercy as the answer to the world's problems and the message of the third millennium. He beatified and canonized Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the nun associated with the message, and he did it in Rome and not in Poland to underscore that Divine Mercy is for the whole world.

Establishing Divine Mercy Sunday for the Entire Church

When Pope John Paul canonized Sr. Faustina (making her St. Faustina), he also, on the same day, surprised the entire world by establishing Divine Mercy Sunday (the feast day associated with the message) as a feast day for the entire Church. The feast day falls on the Second Sunday of the Easter season. On that day, Pope John Paul II declared, "This is the happiest day of my life."

Entrusting the World to Divine Mercy

In 2002, the Pope entrusted the whole world to Divine Mercy when he consecrated the International Shrine of The Divine Mercy in Lągiwniki, a suburb of Krakow in Poland. This is where St. Faustina's mortal remains are entombed. The saint lived in a convent nearby. The Pope himself remembers as a young man working in the Solvay Quarry, just a few meters from the present-day Shrine. He also says that he had been thinking about Sr. Faustina for a long time when he wrote his encyclical on Divine Mercy. Further, the Holy Father has frequently quoted from the Diary of Saint Maria Faustina Kowalska and has prayed The Chaplet of The Divine Mercy at the saint's tomb. (divinemercury.org)

We celebrate Divine Mercy at the Cathedral on Sunday the 24th starting at 1:00 p.m. There will be a talk, Benediction and the Chaplet beginning at 3:00 p.m. Confessions will be available.

God bless you!

FATHER STU

Sony Pictures has released the film, Father Stu, the true story of Father Stuart Long and his dramatic conversion to Christ before becoming a priest. His courageous witness led many people to Christ and the Catholic Faith. "Father Stu ... witnesses to the truth that no one is ever beyond the reach of redemption." Father Stu is playing at the Parkwood Theatre in Waite Park. Go to marcustheatres.com for show times.

STEWARDSHIP AS A WAY OF LIFE

"Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.'" (John 20:21)

Peace—the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful, and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our "enemies." Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or, better yet, go visit them.
