LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

God never ceases to proclaim His Word. His life-giving presence continues to sustain all things and keep them in being regardless of whether there is the faith to receive or perceive Him. Our personal agendas, preconceived ideas, misconceptions, and expectations can often cause us to be so hard of heart and obstinate that we fail to see what God is trying to do. While God remains ever present, faith is necessary for God's power to bear fruit. As we celebrate our country's independence, let us not forget the difference between liberties and freedom. While the liberties we have are most welcome treasures, only freedom from what blinds, deceives, and weighs us down can bring happiness. God is all about healing, transformation, and hope. In order for God to do what God does best, we have to invite Him in and see Him for who he is. Otherwise, God's will for humanity will be something at which we simply take offense, a common reaction when something challenges or unsettles us.

SCHOOL NEWS

We have 'been blessed with a strong and even unique tradition of Catholic education. We can take our schools for granted, but it may help to ask why we, uniquely, have so many Catholic schools in our country. In the late 1800s, the bishops of the United States, meeting at the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, decided that every child should have the opportunity to attend a Catholic school and made this a top priority for the Church. This required an enormous commitment from parishes, families, and the religious sisters and brothers who staffed the schools, which leads us to ask why the Church went to such trouble.

'Education forms us in a fundamental way, shaping how we think and how we live. The United States bishops recognized the fundamental problem facing Catholic children growing up in a culture that opposed their faith. Cardinal James Gibbons expressed the concern well: "the religious and secular education of our children cannot be divorced without inflicting a fatal wound upon the soul."

~ Excerpt from Renewing Catholic Schools – how to regain a Catholic vision in a secular age, ed. R. Jared Staudt, 2020, Institute for Catholic Liberal Education

Opportunities for You to Serve God's Children

Queen of Peace Catholic School is seeking someone interested in part-time tutoring and coaching of students in need of Special Education support. Wages and hours are negotiable. Please contact the school office.

We are also seeking volunteers to do basic academic coaching and tutoring for our students, at all grade and ability levels, over the summer and throughout the school year. Hours very flexible. Contact the school office at 879-8516.

CHURCH NEWS

If you would like to contribute to the gift that the parish gave to Father Fish, you may do so by putting it in the collection basket, outside drop box by the parish office, or by turning it into the parish office.

Making disciples at Queen of Peace

At Queen of Peace we are working to build a culture of discipleship. We want it to be normal for every member of our parish community to be connected to some form of discipleship group. Supporting and equipping the faithful of our parish to form small groups where relationships are strengthened is at the heart of our Discipleship Formation. Over the past year we have been developing resources and training leaders to fulfill our mission of making disciples.

Only the beginning

As more members of our parish begin to take part in our mission, we will begin to see more people being lovingly drawn deeper into their Catholic faith. We will become a parish where people feel more welcome and connected when they walk through our doors and we will have people in every state of life who are actively reaching out to our wider community and sharing their faith confidently within their circle of influence.

Current Discipleship Groups that you can join for Lent

Men's Group—Wednesdays at 8:00 pm at KC Hall

Women's Group—As scheduled

If you are interested in starting a discipleship group or would like more information about these or other groups, please fill out one of our small groups surveys, which can be found in the parish gathering space and drop it in the offering basket or contact Rebekah Swanson.

*As the Lord spoke to me, the spirit entered me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me,
'Son of man, I am sending.....'
Ezekiel 2:2-3*

God has a plan for each of us. He calls us to do something for Him. But, He doesn't leave us on our own to figure it out. He gives us the resources we need to do His work. Are you listening for God's call? When you hear it, do you get on your feet and do the work He asks of you? Do not be afraid. God doesn't call the equipped, he equips the called. Answer His call.

Totus Tuus is Back at Queen of Peace
