Inspiration for the week

What makes a person wise and intelligent? Certainly it is not the ability to memorize facts or minute details about a situation. What makes a person wise and intelligent is when their words and actions harmoniously unite and produce virtue. A person can know many facts and even do the right actions but still have a grave flaw in their character. We sometimes want to delude ourselves into thinking that as long as we are "doing" everything correctly, we are automatically in right relationship with all. Such is sadly not the case in the kingdom of God. We are called not to be just hearers of the Word, but doers as well. That means getting to the heart of what laws and rituals are meant to signify and nurture. If we do not bring the actions home, where they belong, and allow them to speak of the goodness, mercy, compassion, and love of God, then they are simply empty worthless gestures. Welcome the Word that has been planted within you so that you can be a truly wise and intelligent disciple of Jesus Christ.

— MARK 7:14 —

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK THANK YOU!

What a glorious celebration we had last Sunday in honor of our Patroness Mary, Queen of Peace! God certainly blessed us with great weather to top it all off. I hope you all could see from the Mass and procession how God is present and working here at Queen of Peace Parish and School. A big thank you to all who made the day possible. I am most grateful!

A SIMPLE GUIDE TO MENTAL PRAYER

I HAVE SPOKEN OF THE IMPORTANCE OF DAILY PRAYER. HERE IS A SIMPLE GUIDE TO MENTAL PRAYER WHICH YOU CAN DO IN AS LITTLE AS TEN MINUTES EVERY DAY!

– Preparation. Place yourself in God's presence. Think about His majesty or His presence in your heart. Quiet your soul and set aside distractions.

“My God, I believe that You are here present, and I adore You with great reverence. I know that you see me and hear me. I ask pardon for my sins and the grace to have this time give you glory and bear fruit in my life. May Mary, my Mother, St. Joseph, my adopted father, and all the guardian angels intercede for me before the Lord Our God.”

– Meditation. This is the key to the conversation. Read a short passage from the Gospels or another spiritual book. Or, if you have a vivid imagination, visualize an event from the Gospels. You could even gaze at a holy picture. Although many subjects are suitable for meditation, you should most often focus on Christ. This is how we get to know Him and are inspired to speak with Him. Reflect on the passage or image. You may find it helpful to ask who, what, where, and why. How does your subject affect you?

– Conversation. This is the goal of your mental prayer and should make up 10 minutes or more of a 15-minute prayer time. Speak to God from your heart about your subject. Thank and adore Him, asking His help in acquiring virtues you have thought about or overcoming related temptations. Examine your conscience. Think of concrete ways you can change your life and make resolutions. Offer other petitions that are on your heart. If you run out of things to say, return briefly to your meditation for more inspiration. End with some concrete resolution for the day.

– Conclusion. Thank God for the time you have spent with Him and the insights you have gained. Consider how to improve your prayer next time. Add a heartfelt Our Father and Hail Mary and invoke the saints to whom you are devoted to, in order to 1. help you keep your resolution, 2. to bring you back to prayer tomorrow, and 3. to maintain a prayerful attitude all day.

FREE! Please take one or the other as you leave Mass if you need something to do your mental prayer with:

‘Give us this day’ - this booklet has the daily readings and daily meditations

‘Living Faith’ - a booklet with daily meditations

We are Re-establishing our Pastoral Outreach here in Cloquet

Father Nick and Deacon Jon want to visit all our homebound. The goal is to have Fr. Nick and Deacon Jon bring the Blessed Sacrament once a month to every person who is not able to come to Mass. Are you bringing Holy Communion to someone? Who do you know that can't come to Mass?

Let the office know so that Fr. Nick can visit them.

Many thanks to Jack McGrath and the Boy Scouts for their work in improving our garden area in the front of the church. Jack asked Queen of Peace if he could do this as his service project to earn his Eagles Badge. Job well done, Jack!

God's Work, Our Hands - Sun., Sept. 19, 2021

God's Work, Our Hands is a community service event taking place Sept. 19th after the 9:30 am Mass. We will join other churches in the area for a few hours helping those in need. There will be no lunch served this year.

Donations- Donation lists can be found at the church entrances or on the Zion website. Money donations will be used to purchase needed supplies.

Projects- We are looking for projects for the work day which can be completed in a few hours and which would benefit those who would have difficulty doing it themselves. Please contact Mary Marquis or the parish office if you or someone you know could use help. We will not be doing outside painting projects this year. Sign ups- You can sign up on-line this year or by filling in your information on the sign up sheets in the gathering space. To register on-line go to Zion's website (zioncloquet.org) and click on God's Work, Our Hands under "Ministries". You will be signing up for a type of project and will get details just before the service day. We would like everyone to sign up by Sept. 12th.

100th Anniversary of the Legion of Mary

The Legion of Mary is celebrating their 100 year anniversary! The first meeting was held in Dublin, Ireland on Sept. 7, 1921. The first group was comprised of a priest, Fr. Michael Tohar, along with fifteen women, and one man by the name of Frank Duff.

Today, the Legion of Mary is a world-wide organization of lay apostolate in which Catholic men, women, and youth sanctify themselves through prayer and apostolic work in union with Our Blessed Mother, under the guidance of their parish priest.

We invite all Legion of Mary Auxiliaries and active members to join us on Sat., Sept. 11, 2021 to celebrate this historic event. The celebration will be held at St. Rose Catholic Church in Proctor at 10:30 am with a Rosary and followed by Mass at 11:00 with Bishop Daniel Felton. Luncheon to follow. RSVP by Sept. 1 at 218-372-4119 (Nancy) or 428-8051 (Becky).
