LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

SUNDAY, JANUARY 2, 2022 | THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

ARE THOSE NEW VESTMENTS FATHER IS WEARING?

At my first parish, a couple offered to buy a 'rose' vestment for me as they did before for another priest. I asked if it could be a white one as we only wear rose twice a year. They said sure. So, I had the Benedictine Sisters of Mary the Queen of the Apostles make me a set of white vestments. This is how these sisters support themselves, they make vestments for priests. As the sisters have a waiting list of two years for each order! I slowly had them make other color vestments. But then I wondered if my mother would want to or be able to sew them. So, she went and spent a weekend with the sisters learning from them how to sew vestments and now she has become quite good at it. My priest friends are all jealous of me that I have a mother who can do that! So, the vestments that I and Deacon Jon are wearing, some of them were sewn by the sisters and some were sewn by my mother.

I believe the vestments at Queen of Peace have been around for a while. If anyone is interested in commissioning one or more vestments for the parish, please speak to me.

WHAT IS HANGING FROM FATHER'S LEFT ARM?

This piece of vestment is called a maniple. It is an article of liturgical dress used in the celebration of the Extraordinary Form (The Latin Mass) of the Holy Mass of the Roman Rite. It fell into disuse in the years of the post-Vatican II reform, even though it was never abrogated or canceled. This article of liturgical garb perhaps derives from a handkerchief, or "mappula," that the Romans wore knotted on their left arm. As the "mappula" was used to wipe away tears or sweat, medieval ecclesiastical writers regarded the maniple as a symbol of the toils of the priesthood.

This understanding found its way into the prayer recited when the maniple is put on: "May I deserve, O Lord, to bear the maniple of weeping and sorrow in order that I may joyfully reap the reward of my labors."

As we see, in the first part the prayer references the weeping and sorrow that accompany the priestly ministry, but in the second part the fruit of the work is noted.

WHY ARE BEAUTIFUL AND GOOD QUALITY VESTMENTS IMPORTANT?

It is connected with the importance of the 'Sacred'. The sacred is that which is not ordinary, but what is set apart or special. The Sacred is necessary in order to create the space for us to approach God in the proper way, i.e., reverence, humility, obedience, etc. (I will write and speak about this more in the future) But for the time being, this quotation from C.S. Lewis, the author of Narnia, may be helpful...

"The very fact that pompous is now used only in a bad sense measures the degree to which we have lost the old idea of 'solemnity.' To recover it you must think of a court ball, or a coronation, or a victory march, as these things appear to people who enjoy them..."

Above all, you must be rid of the hideous idea ... that pomp, on the proper occasions, has any connection with vanity or self-conceit. A celebrant approaching the altar, a princess led out by a king to dance a minuet, a general officer on a ceremonial parade ... all these wear unusual clothes and move with calculated dignity. This does not mean that they are vain, but that they are obedient; they are obeying the [do this command] which presides over every solemnity. The modern habit of doing ceremonial things unceremoniously is no proof of humility; rather it proves the offender's inability to forget himself in the rite, and his readiness to spoil for everyone else the proper pleasure of ritual.

-Father Nick

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Schulze Challenge Match Grant. We have reached our goal for the match that was the kickoff to our long-term campaign to increase our endowment. We will continue to accept donations as its annual returns will be used to permanently increase our budget for teacher salaries. Our teacher-missionaries make about 45% less than a public school teacher. We want to pay them closer to a living wage. Our 5-year goal is to raise salaries 35%.

The Queen of Peace Gift Certificate (Scrip) Program has added Kwik Trip car wash gift certificates. We have gift certificates for 5 ultimate car washes for $40 — this is $10 less than the price at which Kwik Trip sells them. Kwik Trip donates 50% of the proceeds to the parish! Keep your car clean this winter!

Gift Certificate Program (Scrip)

We have gift certificates on hand for many local stores and restaurants and have access to dozens more upon request. Also, you can now order e-gift certificates for Amazon, Delta Airlines, QVC, and almost any other national retailer from the comfort of your home. “...They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.”

Matthew 2:11

What gifts do you give the Lord? Pope St. Gregory said that these three gifts represent what we should give God every day. Gold—we should reflect Christ’s wisdom in all our relationships. Frankincense—represents our daily prayer and adoration to God. Myrrh—is a symbol of our daily sacrifices that we unite with Jesus for the sake of others.
