COMMITMENT TO PARISH LIFE

FR. MIKE

It is amazing to me how you continue to extend your hand in welcome in so many ways. Many stopped and bought the M&M's and said they would bring back the container with money in it. Many bought pizza's and raffle tickets from the Knights of Columbus, many brought in blankets they had made. We may not be doing as much hand to hand welcoming like we used to but you have stepped up and done these things which are noticeable. Fr. Don and I have expressed several times that the parish is not just those inside the walls or even our members who cannot attend for various reasons. It is the people who are in need to someone willing to reach out to them. You have taken your Commitment to Parish Life seriously by bring Christ to others. Thank you for being such great people.

Together in Hope

Catholic Services Appeal 2021

The Catholic Services Appeal Foundation is an independent foundation partnering with fellow Catholics to share Christ's love with neighbors in need through ministries that serve the poor, support life and strengthen the Faith. In challenging times, the ministries of the CSAF have more impact than ever. From increasing direct support for the hungry and homeless to providing ever present hope to thousands, the CSAF continues to create a better future for all.

Donate online at www.givecsaf.org

Worker Bees are parish members that have a desire to serve, have a particular skill to share, and have a little time to offer a helping hand to a parish member in need. This is an on-call ministry of sorts where your interest in serving will be matched as we receive requests for assistance. Whether lending a helping hand to another member looking to move something heavy at their home, rake some leaves, fix a broken screen, or provide a little guidance, Worker Bees provide one-time assistance as their schedule permits. We are currently recruiting members to join our Worker Bee group. Sign up online at www.sjtw.net/sjtw-worker-bees or contact Mike (mike@sjtw.net) in the parish office with questions.

Update on Social Justice Staff Position

As many of you know Alex Blechle who was the director of our Social Justice program left a few weeks ago. Because this position is so important in the parish life of this community we are currently revisioning it in light of COVID and other ways of doing ministry while at the same time continuing to offer the best of what we have done in the past. Some of the organizations we have worked with in the past are also revisioning how they are doing their ministry. SO we are developing a new job description. At the end of February we plan to advertise for the position and take applications until the end of that month. In March and April we would do interviews and then anticipate offering someone the job. We are hopeful that COVID will be somewhat under control by the time that person starts, or shortly thereafter. In church work it is rare to have folks move from one parish or job to another. Right now is not an ideal time to find the best people. So we would hope the new person would be able to join us after they give notice at the current job. Fr. Mike

DVAA – Happy Valentine’s Day!

A holiday for couples to show affection in grandiose ways. A day with happy smiling couples holding hands and celebrating their perfect relationship. But what about the many people who have suffered abuse from a partner rather than love and tenderness? For survivors of domestic violence, Valentine’s Day is often a reminder that love isn’t always flowers and chocolates. For domestic violence survivors emotions on this day can be confusing, overwhelming and simple too much to bear. It can make survivors feel more than just alone, it can bring up feelings of resentment, anger and sadness.

Domestic violence survivors say they have a feeling of deep sadness on Valentine’s Day that they can’t shake off. One survivor said Valentine’s Day made them feel even more worthless than they already did. For some survivors Valentine’s Day shows a painful sense of responsibility to show love and affection. They feel more alone, depressed and vulnerable than they do all year.

Love shouldn’t hurt. You are not alone. Help is available.

The National Domestic Violence Hotline is available 24/7. For any victims and survivors who need support, call 1-800-799-7233 or 1-800-787-3224 for TTY

If you’re unable to speak safely, you can log onto thehotline.org or text LOVEIS to 22522.

Locally contact the Home Free Community Program hotline (24/7) at 763-559-4945. The Home Free Community Program serves women and men who have been victims of domestic assault in the cities of Plymouth, New Hope, Champlain and eleven municipalities in northwest Hennepin County.

If you want to help fight DV, please join DVAA. Contact Susan Rivard (612.247.4428 or susanrivard5873@gmail.com) or Jane Warren (763.494.5528 or janewarren1@gmail.com) for more information.

Theology Day – February 18

Callings of Women in the Church: A Young Feminist Perspective
It's an experience many women share: they are talented and passionate about discipleship, but they serve a church that puts limits on their participation simply because of their gender. Who can Catholic women turn to for encouragement? How is God calling people of all genders to speak their truths and stand up to the patriarchy? Presented through a young feminist lens, this presentation welcomes people of all genders to consider how the church can grow into a more inclusive, empowering community. Thursday, February 18, Webinar presentation from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Event is Free. Registration is required (register at least five days in advance of the event); please visit www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, call 320-363-3560, or email theologyday@csbsju.edu to register.

F R . M I K E ' S R E F L E C T I O N

FR. MIKE

Some people have told me over the years they don't like coming to church because it is the same old thing each week. I have to smile because all of us like routine or a ritual. In early June after graduating from 8th grade I broke my left arm. They put a cast on it that went from my upper arm to the wrist. Being left handed I either had to feed one of my sisters or learn how to eat right handed. So I made it a point to learn how to do everything right handed that I also did left handed. Without even thinking about it we brush our teeth the same every time. We tie our shoes the same way every morning. Try switching the routine for a week. Many of the things we do we do without even consciously deciding how to do that project. We simply have done it so many times. But if you pay attention at Mass you will hear the prayers changing, the reading changing the homily is different, and many times the Eucharistic Prayer changes. I made the switch to use my right hand for many things because I wanted to experience that sensation. The more we put into anything the more we get out of that experience. Notice how you put your socks, shoes and tying them on day. Then see how hard it is to change every day for a week.

Haiti Education

Education in Haiti over the last year has faced many tribulations just like education has in our own country. The people of Haiti and the people of Bouzy had to overcome government strife as well as a pandemic.

In 2020, government protests caused great turbulence in society and as such caused a destabilization of already weak educational institutions in Haiti. Furthermore, with the COVID-19 pandemic, schools in Bouzy were closed for several weeks as a precaution in both instances. Father Claude reopened schools in late spring to make up for the time closed. Students in Bouzy made up the time lost by schooling throughout the summer with just a two-week break before returning to a new school year that started in September. In Haiti, most schools are paid for by tuition with little government help. Those schools that do receive government help are secular, "public" schools, and as such, church schools like those overseen by Father Claude and the parish of St. Catherine's do not receive government help. Through the generous donations of parishioners at St Joseph the Worker, we continue to support tuition reductions for students to attend school, knowing that an education will give the people of Bouzy their best hope for a brighter future. According to Father Claude, school attendance is up in the last school year, and we await news of attendance for this school year.

Healing Prayer Ministry

Our prayer ministers are trained in holding any individual prayer in confidence.

You may send your short prayer requests to kmccarty@sjtw.net.

Each prayer request will be confidentially passed along to one person to hold you and your intentions in prayer. Let us be a parish community of prayer and hope this Lenten season 2021.
