FR. MIKE

The other day while driving to work I heard two radio announcers responding to a story. When they heard the story the both came away with totally different understandings. Its story did not even affect either one but they were staunch in their understanding. It reminded me that men and women see most things in totally different ways. While that can cause some distress it can also offer an opportunity to seek clarification from one another. How did you get to your conclusion? What facts are important to you? Is there anything in your life that has happened that might affect how you see this issue? And many more questions. Clearly woman and man are different in many ways, but when married they are determined to work their way through the difficulty. The Heavenly Father and Jesus are also different. It is in sharing their difference so totally that they become one as our God. Almost anything that is a challenge can also be seen as an opportunity. The choice is up to me.

Fr. Mike

SJTW is looking for a part-time Sunday School Coordinator

We are seeking an energetic adult who would like to join the SJTW staff in a part-time paid capacity as Sunday School Coordinator. As part of our Faith Formation team, the Sunday School Coordinator is responsible for implementing the Sunday School program (Complete curriculum and lesson plans provided), recruiting and training volunteer catechists, providing support and resources, directing the Christmas Nativity program, and providing love and support to the children that are with us on Sunday mornings. There are approximately 24 Sundays on the schedule mid-September to April. Sunday coverage would be from 7:45 AM to 12 PM on Sunday School days. A couple additional prep hours will be required most weeks. We are looking for a candidate that has a love of children, a passion to serve and carry on our faith, experience working with children, and ability to work as a team and lead others. Staff member Monica Liebl will serve as supervisor and major supporter. For further information and complete position description, contact Mike at mike@sjtw.net or (763) 400-7203. We are hoping to fill the position by mid June with work beginning in mid-August.

 Tune in your FM radio to 106.7. A worship aid can be downloaded at <https://www.sjtw.net/mass-schedule>

FR. MIKE

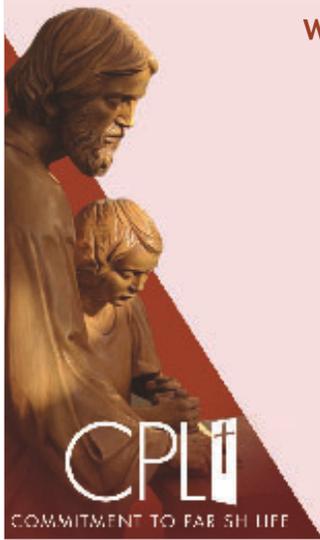

It is stunning! Now that the CDC has said those fully vaccinated do not need to wear masks, the effect upon people is like being released from the prison of our home. Walking from the parking lot to stores, walking on the sidewalk, and certainly worshipping with us in church has had an incredible effect upon people. The reaction of people to this freedom emphasizes once again how much we need one another. Just as families are now reuniting after this long bout of the virus and finding great joy in the ability to see others face to face, and even touch, we do also when we reunite with others in worship. When the disciples gathered after Jesus' death, they found him in the gathering of the people. The next time you are in church I challenge you to look at what is happening. The noise you hear is the appearance of Christ in our midst. If you don't look you won't see Him, but if you do look for Him, you will find Him in the gathering of the people.

Domestic Violence Risk Assessment Guide: Red Flags for Abuser Lethality

Note: The presence of these factors can indicate an elevated risk of serious injury or lethality. The absence of these factors is not, however, evidence of the absence of risk or lethality. It is impossible to predict with certainty which abusers will become lethal to their victims. All abusers should be viewed as potentially deadly, though there are well-documented indicators of lethality of which everyone should be aware.

The following are Red Flags for elevated danger:

Has the victim tried to leave the abuser?

Does the victim believe that the abuser will re-assault or attempt to kill her/him? (A “no” answer does not indicate a low level of risk, but a “yes” answer is very significant.)

- Has the abuser ever threatened to or tried to kill the victim?
- Does the abuser have access to a firearm, or is there a firearm in the home?
- Has the abuser ever used or threatened to use a weapon against the victim?
- Has the abuser ever attempted to strangle or choke the victim?
- Has the physical violence increased in frequency or severity over the past year?
- Has the abuser forced the victim to have sex?
- Does the abuser try to control most or all of the victim’s daily activities?
- Is the abuser constantly or violently jealous?
- Has the abuser ever threatened or tried to commit suicide?
- Are there any pending or prior Orders for Protection, criminal or civil cases involving the alleged perpetrator?

For help in assessing and dealing with a potentially lethal situation, contact:

Can you find time to be a worker bee?

Worker Bees are parish members that have a desire to serve, have a particular skill to share, and have a little time to offer a helping hand to a parish member in need. This is an on-call ministry of sorts where your interest in serving will be matched as we receive requests for assistance. Whether lending a helping hand to another member looking to move something heavy at their home, rake some leaves, fix a broken screen, or provide a little guidance, Worker Bees provide one-time assistance as their schedule permits. We are currently recruiting members to join our Worker Bee group. Sign up online at www.sjtw.net/sjtw-worker-bees or contact Mike (mike@sjtw.net) in the parish office with questions.

Thank you Very Much from the people of Bouzy Haiti

During these times when pandemic has reduced our church activities, we are thrilled that our people have such love for our struggling Haitian sisters and brothers that you donated over $18,000 in response to our April fundraising appeal. Thank you! Your gifts give our Haitian friends hope. They allow us to sustain all our current programs to help them, including education, water, & medical, and even a little to continue roofing the church. An amazing gift! We are grateful. The people of St Catherine's are profoundly grateful. Fr Claude, who sends his deep thanks in every call and letter to us, is grateful. Mesi Anpil/ Thank You Very Much.

SJTW Parish Retreat – Coming this Fall October 15-16

Friday evening, Oct 15 through Saturday afternoon, Oct
Franciscan Spirituality Center, Prior Lake

After our long separation during the pandemic, are you looking forward to some togetherness? Are you needing a spiritual shot in the arm? Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for a Parish Retreat, where we can relax, reflect, restore, and rest in one another's company.

What makes this retreat different than other retreats? It is given by SJTW parishioners for SJTW parishioners. It is intended to provide our parish community an opportunity to grow stronger together, to enjoy fellowship and the spiritual boost that happens when we gather, pray, listen, sing, and laugh together.

A group of your community members has been meeting regularly for over a year to develop the retreat. They have named this retreat "Have Hope and Trust the Journey" and as you can imagine, they will share their faith stories of struggle, growth, hope and trust and inspire you to reflect on your own.

This fall, after the rush of back-to-school activities and before the holidays, plan to use this occasion to get away – to 'retreat' with us. Watch for more information in the bulletin and on Facebook. For any immediate questions, please call Katie McCarty or Chet or Elynn Welle at 507-271-4056.
