HIS HEART WAS MOVED WITH PITY FOR THEM,
FOR THEY WERE LIKE SHEEP WITHOUT A SHEPHERD;
MARK 6:34

You are the Church. Be the Change. Be Christ.

MISSION STATEMENT

"Our faith family is striving to be a welcoming, spiritually vibrant community, celebrating the challenge to live the mission of Jesus Christ."

F R . M I K E ' S R E F L E C T I O N

I went on a few days of vacation with several priest friends of mine recently. It was nice to be in the company with those we know and can feel relaxed around. I could do what I want, when I want and even choose to not do what someone else wanted to do. That kind of comfort comes with a strong sense of deep care and affection between people. I don't think it comes quickly and it does require that I put myself out to listen to them and care deeply for the other person. When people join a faith community they have the ability to choose the level of commitment they want to experience. It seems to me that folks want to join our faith community because they sense the real care you show one another. That kind of trust and care is something we all need and crave. This faith family is only a family because you make it a family. Thank you.

Coordinator Of Outreach And Shared Ministry

A complete position description can be found on the parish website at <https://www.sjtw.net/employment-opportunities>. If interested, send a cover letter, resume, and three letters of reference to the attention of Mike Lentz at St. Joseph the Worker (mike@sjtw.net). Deadline for resumes is July 26, 2021.

FR. MIKE

When Commitment to Parish Life began many years ago the company trying to pitch the program to us tried to explain how we needed to pitch people investing with time, talent and treasure in the community. Parish leadership at that time explained to them that in this parish we push the investment in the activities of the parish as the starting point. The company was skeptical because they had never tried that somewhere else. We insisted, however, and persuaded them that that is how we wanted to go. We did approach the Commitment to Parish Life, CPL, from that perspective and is has been hugely effective for us. People have bought into the activities of the parish as a first element. So after the talent of folks has been given a place to participate, the efforts have been very successful. With our recovery after COVID we would like to be able to use your talents and gifts. Have you thought about using those gifts in service to the faith community and fellow members of the parish? We need all folks to participate.

What is Financial Abuse?

Financial abuse is the number one reason someone may not be able to leave or may force them to return to an abusive situation. Research has shown up to 99% of all domestic violence cases involve financial abuse which occurs when one partner limits access to financial assets in order to control the other partner. Without access to financial resources a survivor's option for separating may seem insurmountable. COVID 19 and an uncertain economy has dramatically affected financial abuse. Survivors wanting to break free financially face unemployment, under employment, food insecurity, housing instability and more. What does financial abuse look like? It's all about power and control. Examples include:

- Preventing the survivor from getting a job.
- Making their partner ask for money or give them an allowance.
- Not involve or allow their partner to have access to household bank accounts or finances.
- Run up debt in their partner's name or on joint accounts to damage the partner's credit. Abusers have forced their partners to take out credit cards or sign a lease in their own name. The abusers then max out the card or fail to pay rent leading to bad credit and/or evictions.
- Taking their partner's money or benefits. Some abusers may refuse to work themselves, but handle all of the finances for the household.
- Force their partner to agree to power of attorney which allows them to legally sign documents without the partner's consent. Not commonly thought of as domestic abuse, this type of financial abuse can happen when an older child is caring for an aging parent.
- Hiding assets.
- Withhold funds so they can't get basic needs like food or medicine. One survivor tells of her abuser not letting her buy personal hygiene products because he didn't think they were necessary.
- Evading child support payments or drawing out the divorce process. (Source: WINGS Program Inc. Chicago, Illinois)

Help is available – through shelters, hotlines, therapists and counselors. These are available by phone and on line. The National Domestic Violence Hotline is available 24/7. For any victims and survivors who need support, call 1-800-799-7233 or 1-800-787-3224 for TTY

If you're unable to speak safely, you can log onto thehotline.org or text LOVEIS to 22522.

Locally contact the Home Free Community Program hotline (24/7) at 763-559-4945. The Home Free Community Program serves women and men who have been victims of domestic assault in the cities of Plymouth, New Hope, Champlain and eleven municipalities in northwest Hennepin County. Please join the Domestic Violence Awareness Action group. You can make a difference by being educated about domestic violence and by taking actions to work toward zero tolerance for domestic abuse. Please contact Jane Warren at janewarren1@gmail.com or 763-494-5528 or Susan Rivard at susanrivard5873@gmail.com or 612-247-4428.

Stephen Ministry

For parishioners wanting a confidential, caring listener, St. Joseph the Worker Stephen Ministry is offering comfort to those experiencing grief, loss, anxiety, loneliness, or family issues. All shared feelings and information are held in sacred confidence. If you would like a trained Stephen Minister who would call on a scheduled basis, please contact the parish office at 763-425-6505. After business hours, please leave a message at 763-425-6505 Extension 114. Someone will contact you as soon as possible. All information is confidential.

Healing Prayer Ministry

by Greg Nelson, SJTW Healing Prayer Minister

"When we try to talk about our role in Healing Prayer we get caught up on which preposition to use: "with" or "for". Do we pray with or for others? Turns out we do both. We pray for the concern or gratitude to be embraced by God. But God already knows all that - even before any of us did. It's the "with" that God is probably guiding us toward.

In our understanding of Healing Prayer, we know we have a tiny and crucial role of "with" our brothers and sisters, which is the same role that any faithful person has when they fulfill a prayer request. We know that as Healing Prayer Ministers we are not unique. We just have been more visible in the prayer corner than the thousands of prayer requests being shared outside the church in the parish. Please keep them coming - both with us and for us, as we do the same for and with you." If you have a prayer/need that you wish for a Healing Prayer Minister to pray with you about, please feel confident to send this prayer need to kmccarty@sjtw.net. Your prayer will be confidential, totally. Let us pray with and for you.

Meet Jeanne Smith, Coordinator of Sunday School

We are happy to announce that Sunday School will resume this Fall, after having no in-person Sunday School last year due to COVID. Parish member, Jeanne Smith, will serve as our new Sunday School Coordinator. Jeanne has years of catechetical experience, both here at SJTW as well as in her former parish in the Fargo diocese. She has a strong desire to serve our community and work with children. Under Monica Liebl's coaching, she will do quite well on Sunday mornings with our little ones. Jeanne will work approximately 10 hours per week with most of that happening on Sunday mornings during the FF programming year. Welcome Jeanne!

SYNOD Fall 2021

Coming Fall 2021--ALL parishioners are invited to come and share hopes and dreams for our local church over 6 sessions to be held mid-Sept to early November 2021. Archbishop Hebda said on May 22, 2021, Pentecost--"It's the way in which we can exercise our priestly ministry. It's the way in which we are able to call upon the Holy Spirit, to not only put sinew on the bones, but to breathe life into us...so that we might be that Church that Jesus intended from the beginning, that we might be the Church that represents his body, that we might be the Church for which he died and rose." Welcome Jenjenio...

On Saturday, July 10th, we welcomed a visitor from Haiti. Jenjenio Conserve was traveling through Minneapolis on his way to New Jersey to see relatives and friends. As a representative for Gift of Water, Jenjenio has played a vital role in the water filtration program as a manager to the warehouse in Port au Prince. He also helps as an interpreter for conversations between our Environmental Team and water technicians at St. Catherine's in Bouzy. Fortunately, he has been in the US traveling since April, as getting out of Haiti now would be more difficult. While he was with us, he helped us make a WhatsApp connection with the primary water technician in Bouzy. Without his help, we could not accomplish this as we have been working on it for the past 3-4 months because of various technical issues. Please pray for all Haitians during this uncertain time since their President was assassinated on July 7th. May God bring peace to their country.

AROUND THE COMMUNITY

Consecration to St. Joseph

"I did not understand him well enough, but that will change."

In the 16th century, St. John of the Cross, one of the greatest mystics of the Church, humbly acknowledged that he lacked a proper understanding of the greatness of St. Joseph. Inspired by the tremendous love that his friend, St. Teresa of Avila, had for St. Joseph, St. John of the Cross made a firm resolution to get to know and love St. Joseph better.

What about you? How well do you know St. Joseph? Would you like to have a deeper friendship, or understanding of this Saint, so quiet in speech but so powerful in purity, charity, faith, courage and prayer, that one of his titles is "Terror of Demons"? This event is primarily aimed at individuals' consideration of a personal consecration to Saint Joseph. For others it will be a great 6 session book club. An informational meeting will be held on Tuesday July 13th, 7 pm, Marian Hall, at The Church of St. Raphael. We'll continue every Tuesday at 7 pm, thru August 21st.

If you have any questions, call Phil Rief 612-280-4565 / or email: fdcondesa@outlook.com.

SJTW Parish Retreat – October 15-16

Friday evening, Oct 15 through Saturday afternoon, Oct Franciscan Spirituality Center, Prior Lake

After our long separation during the pandemic, are you looking forward to some togetherness? Are you needing a spiritual shot in the arm? Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for a Parish Retreat, where we can relax, reflect, restore, and rest in one another's company.

What makes this retreat different than other retreats? It is given by SJTW parishioners for SJTW parishioners. It is intended to provide our parish community an opportunity to grow stronger together, to enjoy fellowship and the spiritual boost that happens when we gather, pray, listen, sing, and laugh together.

A group of your community members has been meeting regularly for over a year to develop the retreat. They have named this retreat "Have Hope and Trust the Journey" and as, you can imagine, they will share their faith stories of struggle, growth, hope and trust and inspire you to reflect on your own. This fall, after the rush of back-to-school activities and before the holidays, plan to use this occasion to get away – to 'retreat' with us. Watch for more information in the bulletin and on Facebook. For any immediate questions, please call Chet or Elynn Welle at 507-271-4056.

"COME AWAY BY YOURSELVES TO A DESERTED PLACE AND REST A WHILE."
