

St. Michael Catholic Church

FROM FATHER TOM'S DESK

Advent begins next Sunday, and, as usual, it's hard to tell where Ordinary Time ends and Advent begins. We move from the great judgment scene in Matthew's Gospel (when I was hungry, you gave me food, etc.) to St. Mark proclaiming: Be Watchful! Be Alert! You do not know when the time will come.

We have a very short Advent this year. Christmas Masses start on the evening of the Fourth Sunday of Advent. However, let's not rush to get there. Both toward the end of Ordinary Time and early in Advent, we hear some of the richest passages from the prophets inviting us to let the Lord reign in our hearts again – to let him be our own true shepherd. Also, every day is an opportunity to grow closer to Jesus (or to drift further away). Especially with winter encroaching upon us, this is no time for spiritual hibernation. The Lord who will come for each one of us wants to draw closer to you today. Wait and watch for him.

As usual our Advent companions include Blessed Mother Mary and John the Baptist. Make sure you note the Holy Day Masses for the Immaculate Conception will be next Thursday evening, the 7th at 7:00 p.m. and Friday morning at 7:50 a.m. with the school children.

Also, with Christmas falling on a Monday, make sure you note the special schedule for the 4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas. We will have our usual Christmas schedule this year with the 4:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Christmas Eve Masses on Sunday. When that happens we only have one Sunday morning Mass on Sunday December 24th at 9:30 a.m. Christmas morning Masses will be at the usual times of 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.
