Fr. Brandon Theisen

January 22nd is a hard day. It is the day that remembers the legalization of abortion in the United States for over 40 years. But even amidst this great evil, God raises up strong men and women to defend the right for life, a march for life.

Every January 22nd, Catholics peacefully march around the Capital, downtown Saint Paul and even Washington DC to stand up and defend the lives of the babies.

Two years ago, I went with several kids from my parish to the March for Life. It was the first time that the President of the United States attended. What I remember most is how many young people came, walked, and prayed. Praying for an end to abortion. It was a beautiful sight to see Washington DC packed with Catholics and the chants supporting life.

Please say a prayer for all who will be attending the March for Life, if it be in Washington DC or at the local level. Please say a prayer for all expectant mothers and their children. Please say a prayer for those who have lost children through abortion, miscarriage, or stillbirth. Please say a prayer for an end to abortion.

WELCOME to the Red Wing KC Council!

A reminder : each of you (as you enter Church) ... is encouraged to stop & pick up (one or more) of the colored Cards ... which appropriately indicate how you used your Time-Talent-Treasure ... this past week.

These cards are located in a basket next to the Bulletins on the tall stands at the top of each aisle. The first three cards symbolize one hour of Time.

- Orange: is one hour of Prayer ... for yourself, family, Parish members, and the world.
- Pink: is one hour of Parish Ministry of any kind: by helping the Parish through any of the many liturgical ministries, faith formation, finance, pastoral care, etc.
- Yellow: is one hour of Community Ministry of any kind which helps the local community such as: coaching young people, serving on a community board, assisting at the Food Shelf, providing rides through Faith In Action, etc.
- And the Green Card indicates: that you contribute financially through Electronic Giving.

We very much want you to place your Time-Talent-Treasure Cards in the Collection Basket when it comes around ... so that we can “celebrate” (not just your generous Financial Donations), but also, all the generous volunteer activities of the Members of the Church of St. Joseph.
