Fr. Brandon Theisen

Thank you for all who came and contributed to our Knights of Columbus Pancake Breakfast for the Ukraine Solidarity Fund. Please continue to pray for all those affected in Ukraine. I can't imagine the state of the country, from young to old, those affected by the war and its long-term effects upon the families. So, I encourage you to pray for peace and hope.

Knights of Columbus

Fellow parishioners, on behalf of our Brother Knights of Red Wing Council 1223 we want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your generous donations to the Knights of Columbus UKRAINE SOLIDARITY FUND. The net amount received was $2,067. 100% of the donations collected will go to support humanitarian aid helping to provide temporary shelter, food, medical supplies, clothing, and communications. Also, thanks to all of you for inviting friends and relatives to take part in our event making it one of the best attended KC Breakfast turnouts we have ever had. We had visitors from our neighboring churches as well as guests from nearby towns and the Twin Cities metro area.
