Fr. Brandon Theisen

This Sunday marks the half way point of Lent, that we are almost to Easter. It has a special name, it is called Laetare Sunday which means rejoice! You'll notice that I am not wearing purple like the other weeks of Lent, but instead will be wearing pink, a color that encapsulates joy. Because it is the half way mark of Lent, it is a good time to check-in and ask ourselves, "How are we doing with our Lenten commitments?" Have we been lax? Are we doing well? Or are we fading? Easter is coming and there's still some time left of Lent to grow closer to Jesus. Rejoice!
