SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd." - Jn 10:17

GOSPEL REFLECTION

4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures. ©LPI

STEWARDSHIP OF CREATION

More and more people are planting their own gardens. Consider a spot in your yard that has a lot of sunlight. Then decide what you would like to plant. You can start your own plants from seeds, such as tomatoes, peppers, herbs, cabbage, etc. There are many online resources to guide you. To reduce the amount of plastic you use, either reuse what you have, like yogurt containers or try making your own paper pots out of newspaper. Many YouTube videos explain how to do this. You can also get your hands in the dirt by volunteering in the Giving Garden next Saturday, May 1 from 9-12, as we plant our cool weather plants and seeds. No experience necessary.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life. 2021 marks the 58th Anniversary of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations.

APRIL LITURGY OF THE HOURS

We invite you to join us this month to pray the Liturgy of the Hours with the universal Church. By marking the hours of the day and sanctifying our day with prayer, we are creating space for the Holy Spirit to work through us. Many of our sisters and brothers are feeling fear, loneliness and disconnected from one another.

As we enter into the Easter season, let us unite in prayer with the Church, so that we may believe and come to know that we are never alone. We have risen into new life with Christ and He is always with us. Alleluia! Visit our website www.ccmn.org, scroll down to "Blog Posts."

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Whatever You Do....

Every day, our parishioners reach out beyond the church walls to share God's love through their actions. Here is this month's Corpus Christi Volunteer Spotlight.

Name: Marge Clarkin

- Q. What organization do you engage with? I have been a volunteer at Corpus Christi for about 40 years in many capacities, the longest involving our liturgies. I am currently on the Liturgy Committee and am also a Mass Coordinator, Wedding Coordinator, and Eucharistic Minister.
- Q. What is the focus of the work? On the Liturgy Committee, we plan our seasonal liturgies, review how things go and consider feedback from parishioners. As a Mass Coordinator, I set up the altar for Mass, recruit people to be Eucharistic ministers, make sure a Lector is scheduled, and greet folks as they arrive for Mass. As a Wedding Coordinator, I usually talk with the couple a few weeks before the wedding, then work with Father at the rehearsal and arrive at church a few hours before the wedding to set things up and help get the wedding party down the aisle.

Q. How and why did you get involved in it? I was originally asked to get involved, a bit reluctantly on my part, by Fr. McPhee. I'm shy, so I was really stepping out of my comfort zone, but once I started, I found it very fulfilling, a way to be more engaged in the liturgy and a wonderful way to get to know people in our Corpus Christi family. I have learned so much being on the Liturgy Committee. It has strengthened my faith and caused me to want to continue to learn.

Q. Tell us about an experience you had while engaging in this work that was particularly meaningful to you. One experience that will always stay with me, is the year I worked one-on-one with a special needs student as she prepared to make her First Communion. She had lots of things working against her, and it was such a joy when it actually happened and I was able to be there. It has also been fun coordinating the weddings of the children whose parents' weddings I coordinated. Lots of great memories!

Q. How has your work changed in light of the pandemic? With the exception of two family-only weddings, most activities have stopped for now. Since Mass restarted in November, I have been serving as a Greeter for those who have registered to attend, asking the standard COVID questions and giving out name tags to assist Fr. Michael in trying to get to know us, despite the face masks.

Q. If other parishioners are interested in getting involved with this work, what can they do? I would suggest that anyone interested in becoming involved as a member of the Liturgy Committee, a Eucharistic Minister, Usher, or Mass/Wedding Coordinator should contact Sue Valois at sue@ccmn.org, or just let me know and we can arrange for training.
