PENTECOST SUNDAY

[Jesus] breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." - Jn 20:22-23

Mission Statement

The Church of Corpus Christi, a welcoming parish community, making Christ present through sharing His message, celebrating the liturgy and challenging members to practice justice, peace and charity.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

CONFIRMATION TESTIMONY

CONFIRMATION TESTIMONIES

If you did not have the chance to hear all of the Confirmation Testimonies at Masses a few weeks ago, printed copies will be available on the ledge on the top of the ramp. Testimonies will be included in bulletins as space allows. Congratulations to all the Confirmed and thank you for sharing a part of your faith journey with us.

The first in the series is from Sam Vail.

Hello, my name is Sam Vail.

Faith Formation classes have taught me that you can have fun while being educated about God. I can be with my friends while still learning about God and the sacrifices he's made for us, and sharing the experiences with peers helps relate religion to real, everyday world struggles that we all experience.

Another reason I want to be confirmed is because I want to carry on my family's strong faith with the Catholic religion. All of my family is Catholic and I want to share in their beliefs, and eventually pass it on to my children and all the people around me. Those are the reasons why I want to be confirmed catholic.

The most spiritual experience in my life was at the fall retreat, when everyone had to light candles to represent what they were praying for. This moment was special because everyone came together, and resulted in a beautiful set of candles each representing a different prayer that we all prayed would come true. Everyone was quiet until it was their turn, then spoke in turn and said what they were going to pray about. I think that was the most beautiful part of the touching service. Everyone was praying for different things; regardless of whether it was for the world to change or for things in their personal lives to get better, we all came together to lift up everyone's prayers to God.

I was moved that day in a way that I had never been moved by God before. I will never forget that time that I spent with my peers, praying that the things we wanted to change would come to pass.

I want to be confirmed in the catholic religion to be closer with God, and make sure that I follow the path to go to heaven. Being Catholic and letting God guide the path in my life provides reassurance that I'll have eternal life with God in Heaven.

It makes me feel better whenever I can talk to God about anything I'm worrying about because there will be someone there for me without judgment. I want to make sure I'm not only loved by God in this life, but in heaven too. I know that God is going to take care of me and be with me whenever I need him, but also realize that my relationship will grow even stronger as my faith grows.

Thank you
