5TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. - Mk 1:32-34

MASS AT ST. JUDE CHURCH

Catholics in the Archdiocese of Dubuque remain dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation.

To promote safety at Mass, St. Jude Church is taking the following steps:

- *Every other pew is roped off to encourage social distancing.
- *Masks are asked to be worn or are available for those without one.
- *Hand sanitizer is available at the entrance/exit.
- *Pews are being cleaned after Masses.

WINTER WEATHER AND WEEKDAY MASS

If Cedar Rapids Public Schools are canceled or delayed by 6:30 AM, we will not celebrate the 7:00 AM Mass.

The intention will be rescheduled.

This does not impact weekend Masses. Weekend Mass will always be celebrated unless an announcement is placed on local media.

A message from

Fr. Mark Murphy

Dear Parishioners,

For the past two weeks in this space we reprinted portions of Archbishop Jackels' 5 January 2021 message on the Year of St. Joseph. This week we conclude our reprint of the message with the section describing the benefits of participating in the Year of St. Joseph. The full message, as well as a second message from Archbishop Jackels on the Year of St. Joseph published this past week, may be found at: dbqarch.org/messages-from-archbishop-jackels

Who benefits?

The Church teaches that we can receive a plenary, or complete pardon of temporal punishment, once a day, either for our benefit, or that of the poor souls in purgatory.

But mightn't we include other people and purposes to benefit from an indulgence? Or at the very least ask Joseph to intercede for other needs?

Like for an end to this God-forsaken pandemic, for those who live in fear for their lives or their livelihood, and for the speedy distribution to all of a safe and effective vaccine.

After all, Joseph is traditionally invoked as the terror of evil spirits, and there must be at least one of them prowling about the world, seeking our ruin with the COVID.

And Joseph is a model of bravery, obedience, and patience, all of which we need to continue washing our hands, wearing a mask, and keeping a safe distance.

Or couldn't our prayers and works benefit the spiritual and material success of ArchdioceseOne, our special appeal? Or at least to ask Joseph to intercede for this?

I mean, Joseph was a migrant like those we need to help; a worker like those who will repair our Cathedral; and his Son was a priest, like our retired priests and wannabees.

And with Joseph, we want to protect the Church, as well as heal it with the medicine of charity, and to be good stewards like Joseph, model of justice and prudence.

Through the mercy of God, and begging the intercession of St. Joseph, may we all find the help we need to imitate his virtues, to be delivered from the evil of the COVID, and to celebrate the spiritual and material success of ArchdioceseOne. May it be so. Amen.

Archbishop Michael Jackels
Archbishop of Dubuque

Prayer at Home

The Prayer at Home has the Sunday Readings listed. The book of the Bible and the verse numbers are listed for each reading. You may then look them up in your Bible or online at USCCB.org under DAILY READINGS.

Gathering Rite

(Stand) - All make the Sign of the Cross:

Leader: + In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

Leader: Trusting in the mercy of God, let us call to mind our sins.

All: I confess to almighty God, and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking your breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. Amen.

Leader: Let us pray: Keep your family safe, O Lord, with unfailing care, that, relying solely on the hope of heavenly grace, they may be defended always by your protection. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

(Be seated)

Leader: A reading from the Book of Job
(Jb 7:1-4, 6-7)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6)

Leader: Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

All: Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

Leader: A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

(Stand)

Leader: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
(Mk 1:29-39)

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

(Be seated)

Questions for discussion or reflection:

How do I serve God and serve my neighbor?

Will I commit to doing all I can?

(Stand)

Leader: We join the Church in professing our common faith:

All: I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Leader: Jesus' disciples brought to him those who needed healing from their sickness and suffering. As his disciples, we bring the needs of the world to the Lord and ask for God's healing.

Leader: For the Church; may we carry on the mission of Jesus by bringing the strength and comfort of the Lord to the sick, wounded, burdened and broken. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer. (Repeat after each petition.)

Leader: For all elected officials; may they be opened to the Holy Spirit as they work for the common good. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For those who suffer or grieve alone, those without close family or friends or those who are isolated, especially because of the pandemic; may they know the warm and loving embrace of God. We pray to the Lord.

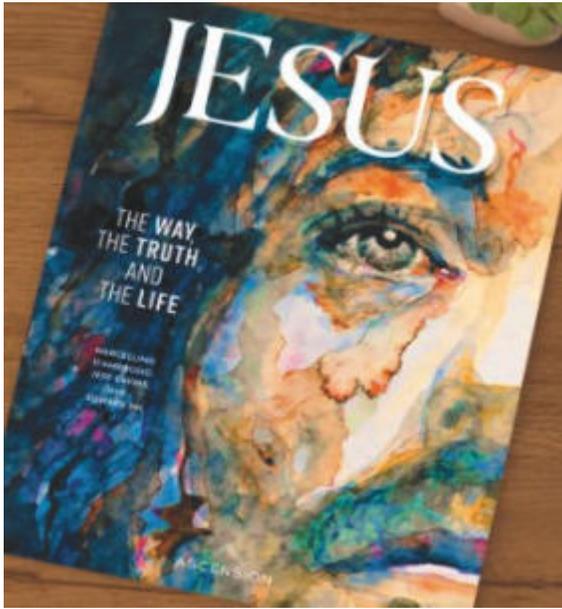

Leader: For those who are unemployed or underemployed; may they be guided to new opportunities to use their gifts and talents for the good of the human family. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For all Catholics; may they recognize that they are entrusted with the commission to pray for vocations and to beg the Holy Spirit to guide the deep searching of all who are discerning their vocation. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For all of us; may we be strengthened as we make difficult moral decisions and empowered to put the values of the Gospel into practice. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, teacher and healer, hear the prayers we offer in your name and grant us what we truly need. Who live and reign for ever and ever.

This Lent learn more about Jesus

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord, and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? To know more about Jesus, this Lent participate in:

Jesus: The Way, the Truth, and the Life

a 10-week online, group study program exploring Jesus' life and what he means for us today. This online, group study begins with an informational meeting on:

Thursday, February 18, at 7:00 PM

Participants will then determine when to meet online each week to view an engaging video presentation (30 minute videos) followed by a lively group discussion and fellowship.

For more information or to register, contact parishioner Mary Jo LeGrand at mjs.legrand@gmail.com or 563-581-1320.

Holy Family Gala Annual Fundraiser

In order to protect our supporters, attendees and committee members, the Holy Family Gala will not take place in its usual format in 2021. This was a tough decision made by our committee, especially because the events of the past year have made the need for tuition assistance more prominent than ever!

Recognizing and responding to that need, the Holy Family Gala has taken the form of a direct mail campaign for this year. Members of parishes supporting Holy Family should have received a letter to ask for support. This letter will give details on how you can help provide tuition assistance for Holy Family students.

You may also visit the Holy Family Gala's website, tinyurl.com/HolyFamilyGala or for more information email crhfsgala@gmail.com with any questions.

Holy Family students thank you for your support!

Offering Envelopes

In the packet of offering envelopes (February 7, 2021 - April 4, 2021) registered parishioners received, there is a new type of envelope: "Easter Environment".

Please use this envelope to make a donation in memory of a loved one for flowers and other items to enhance the Easter liturgical environment.

Write the name(s) of those you would like to be remembered on the envelope. Just like other offering envelopes, you may drop off your donation at the church office, mail it to the church office or place it in the collection basket after Mass.

40 Days for Life

Sunday, February 14 at 2:00 PM is the start of the spring campaign of prayer to end abortion. We will meet outside at the memorial of the unborn in Murdoch-Linwood Cemetery located at 520 Wilson Ave. SW Cedar Rapids. Coalition for Life of Iowa will pray for an end to abortion in front of Planned Parenthood from Wednesday, February 17 - Sunday, March 28.

YOUTH CORNER ✝

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Think about how you get ready for a busy day. You eat a healthy breakfast. You wash up and brush your teeth. Then you get dressed and comb your hair. There's one more thing you could do to start your day off right. Pray. Find a quiet spot where you can be alone to talk to God. That's what Jesus did.

PRAYER

God, help me to start every day with you in prayer.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself praying to God in a quiet place.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

When you get home, choose a special quiet place where you can talk to God every morning. Tell your family about your special place. They may want to join you in spending quiet time to pray.

St. Jude's Lending Library Is Open Again!

Has winter got you down? How about settling in with a hot coffee and a good book?! The St. Jude Library is now open again, with safety protocols in place. You'll find books in our lending library that you won't find in our public libraries! Feel free to browse our selection, find a good book, and enjoy! Then when you're done, return the book to the basket for quarantine. (The children's books are not yet available for circulation at this time.) Contact Jean at j.biermann@dbqarch.org if you have any questions.

News from Our Sister Parish - Holy Cross Parish, Haiti

1st of 3 parts

Dear benefactors, Dear friends,

One year is going away, another is coming with new challenges, new problems to solve, which requires a new mind, a fervent faith, a great determination. We are already at the end of January. I hope the year has started well for you. I wish you courage, health, success in your duties, to come closer to God who will be able to clear the way for you and help to overcome, to transcend obstacles.

For our part, we are holding on, despite everything, and we were able to complete the 2019-2020 academic year, start the new one. We will start the exams of the second period this Thursday with a lot of concerns, because we do not know what will happen tomorrow and with the current political situation, insecurity and other problems. We are in uncertainty... But, we trust in the LORD.

Thank you for what you have already done and will continue to do for the Parish and you can count on our humble prayers. We only have that to offer, and we offer it to you. May God bless you abundantly.

Humbly yours,

Father Lubermann

The Audacity of Holiness

Do you know a holy person? I'm not talking about piety — that's important, too, in its own way. But right now, I'm speaking of holiness.

St. Therese of Lisieux called holiness “a disposition of the heart that makes us humble and little in the arms of God, aware of our weakness, and confident — in the most audacious way — in His Fatherly goodness.”

The holy person sees a storm on the horizon of life, and rather than give themselves over to fear and despair (natural and understandable reactions), regards the gathering winds as an opportunity to rely more fully on God. The holy person takes a bad situation and sanctifies it with charity and understanding that defies our fallen human nature.

Peter's mother-in-law was still in the throes of a fever when Jesus grasped her hand. It wasn't until she took his hand and allowed him to help her up that “the fever left her and she waited on them.” Before the fever could leave her, she had to commit to holiness — to put her trust in him in a most audacious way. She had to find it within herself to lift her weakened hand to grasp his — and as soon as she did, she was rewarded. Her bodily health restored, she gave thanks, and attended to his needs.

God's hand is always outstretched to us. Will we take it, even if the fever of sin and pride and worldly concerns rages in our souls? Will we muster the strength? Will we be audacious enough to have confidence in His Fatherly goodness?

Celebration of Sacraments

Weddings: Contact Fr. Murphy at least six months before the intended date of the wedding.

RCIA: Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. Call the parish office for information about becoming Catholic.

Baptism: If you wish to have your child baptized, parents are to attend a Baptism class before the Baptism. You need to be a member of a parish and register for the class to attend. The next class is Monday, March 1, 2021. Call 319-390-3520 to register.

Inspiration for the Week

Have you ever wondered what life would be like if you could see the future and know how things turn out? While it's intriguing to ponder what life would be like if we possessed this knowledge, actually knowing could easily rob us of the thrill, adventure, and soul-searching graces of our journey. Like Job, life does not always leave us on a happy note. Life experience can bring us face-to-face with our mortality and leave us with a profound sense of helplessness. We do not see the wholeness and fulfillment that will one day come and cannot grasp the certainty that a resolution to our plight will come our way. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet. Living a life of faith means realizing that we are not here to figure out life on our own. In order to drink deeply of what life presents us, we have to wrestle in the depths of our souls, agonize and search, possibly reach the lowest point of desperation, and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. It is no wonder that those who are touched by God's healing power want to then serve others and show them the deeper waters that can be explored. Knowing too much can rob us of joyful surprises.

All: Our Father, Who art in heaven,...

Spiritual Communion

Those who are unable to share in the Eucharist may make an act of spiritual communion, expressing their desire for the sacrament.

As Pope St. John Paul II reminded us, using the words of St. Teresa of Jesus: “When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you.” The following prayer, by St. Alphonsus Liguori, may be used to make an act of spiritual communion:

All: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you.

Concluding Rite

Leader: Let us pray: Lord, may all Christian people both know and cherish the heavenly gifts they have received. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.

All make the Sign of the Cross as the leader prays:

Leader: + May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen.
