EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

A message from

Fr. Mark Murphy

Dear Parishioners,

You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified. He has been raised; he is not here.

A young man clothed in white sitting in the empty tomb makes this report to women who come on a Sunday morning to anoint the body of Jesus. This is how the Gospel of Mark announces the Resurrection (Mark 16:6). The Gospel of John later has one of the women, Mary Magdalene, make another announcement to the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" (John 20:18). And then in a Gospel reading we'll hear next weekend, the disciples make this announcement to one of the Twelve, Thomas: "We have seen the Lord!" (John 20:25).

Jesus is Risen! In the Gospel stories, word of his Resurrection begins to spread, starting with a mysterious young man in the tomb, to one woman who came to anoint the body, to a small group of his best friends, to eventually Jerusalem, Judea, the Roman Empire, and then the known world.

The Resurrection of Jesus justifies all his teaching and validates all his claims about his relationship with God his Father. Not only does the Resurrection show Jesus is truthful, but it demonstrates to his followers that death has no power over him. The Good News of the Gospel is that through the Resurrection, Jesus offers us a share in his power over death.

But the Resurrection of Jesus is not only about new life after our death. It's about God offering us a new life now, today. Maybe God is calling us to new life with a new and deeper relationship with him. Maybe Jesus is inviting us to new life with a new and deeper friendship with him and his family the Church.

In the Gospels and in the entire New Testament, starting on the morning of Easter Sunday, word of Jesus' Resurrection begins to spread. That word, that Good News, has continued to spread to this day. Maybe today that word finally touches the heart of someone new to the point he or she is, or you are, ready to take another step in the life of faith offered by the Risen Jesus. With Easter joy, let's take that next step, whatever it may be, in our life of faith.

On behalf of myself, Deacon John, and the St. Jude Church staff, I wish you a Happy and Holy Easter! Alleluia! He has been raised!

~Father Mark Murphy

Prayer at Home

The Prayer at Home has the Sunday Readings listed. The book of the Bible and the verse numbers are listed for each reading. You may then look them up in your Bible or online at USCCB.org under DAILY READINGS.

Gathering Rite

(Stand) - All make the Sign of the Cross:

Leader: + In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

Leader: Trusting in the mercy of God, let us call to mind our sins.

All: I confess to almighty God, and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking your breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. Amen.

Leader: Let us pray: O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

All: Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

(Be seated)

Leader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
(Acts 10:34a, 37-43)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23)

Leader: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

All: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Leader: A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians
(Col 3:1-4)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

(Stand)

Leader: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (Jn 20:1-9)

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

(Be seated)

Questions for discussion or reflection:

How have I come to believe?

How can I witness to "Resurrection time" to this era in which our lives have a deeper dimension and a greater purpose?

(Stand)

Leader: We join the Church in professing our common faith:

All: I believe in God,
the Father Almighty,
Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Leader: On this most glorious of days, let us gather the needs of the world and pray for the healing touch of our risen Lord.

Leader: For the Church; may we proclaim the risen Lord in word and action, giving hope to those in despair and new life to those who suffer. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer. (Repeat after each petition.)

Leader: For the world; may we be given the grace to be open to the opportunities brought to us during this time of separation due to the pandemic. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For the newly baptized, especially Bret; may their new life in the Lord bring new life to the Church and the world around them. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For justice for those who are oppressed; may the God-given dignity of every person be always respected. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For those discerning a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life; may they joyfully answer the call of the Lord to proclaim His life, death and resurrection. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For all of us celebrating the resurrection of Christ; may we bring that joy to our family members, friends and neighbors who cannot be here today. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: God of love, we celebrate the day you raised your Son to be with you in glory and anticipate the day we may be raised as well. Graciously hear our prayers and grant them through Jesus Christ, your Son, our Risen Lord.

Middle School Monday

6th-8th graders are invited to join us for our next Middle School Monday session on Monday, April 5th from 6:30-7:30 PM. Games and activities will reflect on the theme "Refreshed in Christ: The Power of Mercy and Forgiveness."

We will meet in the Community Center. Masks and social distancing will be required.

Holy Family School System

Holy Family has a beautiful history and an even better future! Our strategic planning team has drafted our initial goals and objectives to advance our mission better than ever before. These will impact areas of vibrant faith, rigorous academics, operational vitality, and excellent governance. More details are soon to follow, and we plan to begin implementation by June of 2021!

- Zach Zeckser, Chief Administrator

YOUTH CORNER ✝

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

PRAYER

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.

SOMETHING TO DRAW

Draw Mary, Peter, and John looking inside the empty tomb.

Divine Mercy Sunday is April 11, 2021

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young women, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come."

Inspiration for the Week

Alleluia! Christ is risen! About today's feast, St. Augustine writes: "And he departed from our sight that we might return to our hearts and find him there. For he left us, and behold, he is here." Christ's resurrected presence lives not only in the highest heaven but in the fragile human heart. Christ's life inspires us and moves us to see a future for every human being and discover our true purpose and meaning. Every human being has a desire to live, and this cry can be heard within. There is a longing for a connection with Someone greater than ourselves that gives an import to our existence that we cannot supply. Today, our deepest questions find answers.

All: Our Father, Who art in heaven,...

Spiritual Communion

Those who are unable to share in the Eucharist may make an act of spiritual communion, expressing their desire for the sacrament.

As Pope St. John Paul II reminded us, using the words of St. Teresa of Jesus: "When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you." The following prayer, by St. Alphonsus Liguori, may be used to make an act of spiritual communion:

All: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you.

Concluding Rite

Leader: Let us pray: Father, help your people to rejoice in the mystery of redemption and to win its reward. We ask in the name of Jesus the Lord.

All make the Sign of the Cross as the leader prays:

Leader: + May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen.
