A message from

Fr. Mark Murphy

Dear Parishioners,

On Friday, April 30, Archbishop Jackels sent the following message to pastors concerning COVID safety measures and the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation: (Archbishop Jackels' message is also available at the archdiocesan website: dbqarch.org)

In recognition of how the spiritual and emotional needs of the Catholic faithful are met in great part by the parish community gathering for Sunday Mass in church...

And in view of the ever-increasing number of parishioners who are vaccinated, and who have a holy desire to worship at Sunday Mass with others in church...

But aware that social distancing in church greatly reduces the number of parishioners that can be accommodated...

Therefore, starting on 5-6 June 2021, the proverbial buck will stop with the Pastor/PLC [Parish Life Coordinator] about which COVID safety measures to practice, in consultation with staff and pastoral council, and in keeping with local ordinances.

The pandemic isn't over. The Pastor/PLC should proceed cautiously when relaxing the recommendations of the CDC and local public health officials, who still advise...

Social distancing, wearing a mask (especially if distancing is difficult), avoiding crowds and the hand-to-hand contact of sharing or passing things, like hymnals and the Cup.

The Pastor/PLC should publish which safety measures will be practiced after the June date, so that parishioners can make their decision about whether or not to attend.

Also on 5-6 June 2021, the dispensation will expire that excused Catholics in the Archdiocese of Dubuque from participating at Sunday Mass in church.

As the pandemic isn't over, even without a dispensation, Catholics can still legitimately excuse themselves from Sunday Mass if they're afraid of getting COVID, or if...

They're frail from age or illness, or caring for someone sick, homebound, or an infant, or weather makes driving hazardous, or work and Mass schedules conflict.

In short, there is no sin in missing the Sunday obligation if you would go if you could go, but you can't for reasons outside your control.

A lot of people use the term Sunday obligation to refer to going to Mass and avoiding work, but maybe it'd be better to call it the Sunday opportunity to...

Gather together, hear the word proclaimed and explained, receive the Bread of Life, re-create ourselves by relaxing, and grow in holiness by helping the poor.

~Michael O. Jackels, Archbishop of Dubuque

Per Archbishop Jackels' instructions, and in keeping with local ordinances, I will be consulting with parish staff and our pastoral council about COVID safety measures at St. Jude Church.

~Father Mark Murphy

In Loving Memory of

Jackie Durbala

Alma McNamara

Gloria Strauss

May the Lord grant them eternal peace.

Prayer at Home

The Prayer at Home has the Sunday Readings listed. The book of the Bible and the verse numbers are listed for each reading. You may then look them up in your Bible or online at USCCB.org under DAILY READINGS.

Gathering Rite

(Stand) - All make the Sign of the Cross:

Leader: + In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

Leader: Trusting in the mercy of God, let us call to mind our sins.

All: I confess to almighty God, and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking your breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. Amen.

Leader: Let us pray: Grant, almighty God, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Liturgy of the Word

(Be seated)

Leader: A reading from the Acts of the Apostles
(Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 98:1, 2-3, 3-4)

Leader: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

All: The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.

Leader: A reading from the first letter of Saint John (1Jn 4:7-10)

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

(Stand)

Leader: A reading from the holy Gospel according to John (Jn 15:9-17)

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

(Be seated)

Question for discussion or reflection:

How am I being called to sacrifice my own priorities in order to serve others?

(Stand)

Leader: We join the Church in professing our common faith:

All: I believe in God,
the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
He descended into hell;
on the third day He rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Holy Catholic Church,
the communion of Saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

Prayer of the Faithful

Leader: Jesus left us with the command to love one another. Out of love for one another, we ask for God's blessings upon our neighbors.

Leader: For the Church; may we, whom Jesus called friends, live in joy and loving service. We pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer. (Repeat after each petition.)

Leader: For the courage to lay down our lives for one another; may we allow God to cleanse us of pride and strengthen us to love fully. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For mothers, grandmothers, and all who have mothered us throughout our lives; may God find favor in them. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For those who are responsible for making on-going decisions about the coronavirus; may they be granted wisdom, humility, and compassion as they make decisions that affect the lives and futures of families and the world community. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For all those chosen by the Lord to go and bear fruit as priests, deacons and consecrated religious; may they respond to His love with conviction in their vocations. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: For those who have died, especially Alma McNamara, Jackie Durbala, Sarah Purdy, and Gloria Strauss; may God's love bring healing and wholeness to them. We pray to the Lord.

Leader: Heavenly Father, your Son told his disciples to bear fruit that lasts so whatever they ask of you would be granted. Help us to bear lasting fruit in the world and grant our needs according to your will through Jesus Christ, our Risen Lord.

What does God want me to be?

Archbishop Michael Jackels published a vocation series in 2019 titled, "What does God want me to be?". This series is available to read on the Dubuque Archdiocese website at dbqarch.org/what-does-god-want-me-to-be.

This series is based off of a listening session Pope Francis held on how to help young people grow in their Catholic faith which would help discover God's plan for their vocation. From this Pope Francis published Christus Vivit (Latin for Christ is Alive).

The series is Archbishop Jackels own reflections on the Pope's reflection.

"Regardless of your age, are you youthful, young at heart? What is your personal vocation to partner with Jesus in unfolding the Divine Plan?"

Eucharistic Adoration is Extending

What is Eucharistic Adoration?

It is time spent in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Are you feeling Jesus calling you to spend some time with Him?

At St. Jude we now have Eucharistic Adoration on Thursdays from 8:00 AM - 9:00 PM. Thank you to those that have signed up for this to be offered.

We still need a second person to commit to spending an hour with Jesus in the Eucharist on Thursdays between 7:00 PM and 8:00 PM.

Also needed, anyone willing to be a sub for those committed to an hour each week. If you are willing to fill either of these roles or would like to sign up for an hour of your choice, please contact parishioner Andy Malosh at aj.malosh@gmail.com or call the parish office.

Knights of Columbus #5544/Bridgehaven Pregnancy Support Center

Knights of Columbus #5544 will be handing out baby bottles this weekend for the Baby Bottle Boomerang campaign.

The Knights have partnered with Bridgehaven for this event, and hope you will join to support their work as they advocate for and empower choices for life. By filling a bottle with change, bills, and checks (made out to Bridgehaven) and returning it to church by the collection date, you are making an impact right here in our community through the life-changing work at Bridgehaven Pregnancy Support Center. The collection of baby bottles with contributions enclosed will be the weekends of June 19/20 & 26/27.

Saint Vs. Blessed

What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization."

Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Month of MAY ~ Marathon of PRAYER

Pope Francis has invited Catholics around the world to pray during the month of May for an end to the Covid-19 pandemic.

There will be various Marian shrines throughout the world that will take part in the daily prayer of the Rosary.

vaticannews.va/en/pope/news/2021-04/pope-francis-shrines-may-2021-prayer-end-pandemic.html

Pray as a family or by yourself and know you are among those worldwide praying the Rosary daily for the end of the pandemic.

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our tribulation, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also.

Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by his Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven.
Amen.

SUNDAY, MAY 9, 2021 | 6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER | ST. JUDE CHURCH, CEDAR RAPIDS, IA

All: Our Father, Who art in heaven,...

Spiritual Communion

Those who are unable to share in the Eucharist may make an act of spiritual communion, expressing their desire for the sacrament.

As Pope St. John Paul II reminded us, using the words of St. Teresa of Jesus: "When you do not receive communion and you do not attend Mass, you can make a spiritual communion, which is a most beneficial practice; by it the love of God will be greatly impressed on you." The following prayer, by St. Alphonsus Liguori, may be used to make an act of spiritual communion:

All: My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things and I desire you with all my heart. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, I ask you to come spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already in my heart and unite myself to you completely. Please do not let me ever be separated from you.

Concluding Rite

Leader: Let us pray: Lord, help your people to seek you with all their hearts and to deserve what you promise. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

All make the Sign of the Cross as the leader prays:

Leader: + May the Lord bless us, protect us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen.
