BULLETIN FOR DECEMBER 25 & DECEMBER 26, 2021

REV. MARK MURPHY, PASTOR

THE NATIVITY of the Lord

"For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord." - Lk 2:11

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

A message from*Fr. Mark Murphy*

Dear Parishioners,

Saint Irenaeus of Lyon was a bishop and martyr in what is now modern-day France in the second century after the birth of Christ. It is believed that Saint Irenaeus heard the preaching of Saint Polycarp, another bishop and martyr, who himself is believed to have heard the preaching of Saint John, one of the Twelve Apostles. I feel a connection to Saint Irenaeus because the day I was ordained a priest is also the Memorial of Saint Irenaeus on the Church's calendar (June 28). Additionally, the first bishop of Dubuque, Mathias Loras, was a priest of Lyon, France. I mention Saint Irenaeus of Lyon because he has, what I think, is a great line that summarizes what we celebrate during the Christmas season:

The Word of God, our Lord Jesus Christ, who did, through His transcendent love, become what we are, that He might bring us to be even what He is Himself.

-St. Irenaeus of Lyon: Against Heresies, Book 5, Preface

Or said in a different way by another one of our saints: God became man so man might become like God. This is what we celebrate today.

When God first created humanity, we were in friendship with our Creator and in harmony with each other and all of creation. In this state, there was no suffering or death. We were in an earthly paradise, a Garden of Eden. But we did not remain in this state. We abused the freedom God gave us, we gave in to temptation, and we disobeyed God. We sinned. As a result of our sin, friendship with our Creator and harmony with each other and the whole of creation was ruptured. Suffering and death entered the world, and we are subject to them. But God, out of love that transcends, or goes beyond anything we know, wanted to save us from this suffering and death and restore us to eternal life. But God wanted more than to restore us to that original earthly paradise. Rather, God wanted to surpass it by becoming one of us so we may share in a new creation brought forth by Jesus.

Today we celebrate God becoming one of us so we may become like God. May we be in harmony with each other and creation, and work towards that earthly paradise, until we, with God's grace, hopefully surpass it, becoming like God in heaven.

On behalf of the entire Saint Jude Church staff and Deacon John Winkel, I wish you and those you love a happy and holy Christmas!

~Father Mark Murphy

HOW TO WORSHIP AT HOLY MASS

A series of short articles about the Mass, written by Archbishop Jackels, will be republished weekly in our bulletin. We invite you to read and to reflect on the following article as one way to grow in the faith.

Week 19: Second Reading

The Second Reading is always taken from the Acts of the Apostles, or from one of the letters written by Paul, Peter, James, John, Jude, and an anonymous author (Letter to the Hebrews), or from the Book of Revelation.

The Second Reading is often chosen without any connection to the First Reading or the Gospel. Its content helps us to understand what the first Christians believed, and how they translated the teaching of Jesus into everyday life.

At the end of the First and Second Reading, the people respond: Thanks be to God! We are grateful for God's words that reproach us for our wrongful behavior, correct us, and train us how to live so as to make our way to heaven.

LaSalle Catholic School

Earlier this year, you read about our 4 great things. At the risk of confusing everyone, I would also love to share with you all the 4 components of the profile of a LaSalle graduate. Our graduates are faithful, academic, relational and reflective. I will write a little bit about each of these over the next 4 weeks, and you can also see more in-depth descriptions of these in the Cedar Rapids West Side Parishes monthly periodical. In the mean time, I just have to say that it is beyond apparent that God is working at LaSalle, and it is equally obvious that our students are becoming increasingly distinct in their character. Their faith, academics, relations, and reflectiveness really shine!

Zach Zeckser
Chief Administrator, LaSalle Catholic

LaSalle Catholic Schools food service department is currently looking for subs to help in our kitchens! The hours are Monday through Friday 9:00AM - 1:00PM with some flexibility. You would spend the day preparing and serving food to the students and some clean up afterwards. If you are interested please contact Ryan Geerts at 319-396-7792 or rgeerts@lasallescatholiccr.org, or stop by LaSalle Catholic Schools. Thank you!

Prayer for Families

We bless your name, O Lord,
for sending your own incarnate Son,
to become part of a family,
so that, as he lived its life,
he would experience its worries and its joys.
We ask you, Lord,
to protect and watch over this family,
so that in the strength of your grace
its members may enjoy prosperity,
possess the priceless gift of your peace,
and, as the Church alive in the home,
bear witness in this world to your glory.
Through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

New Year's Prayer

On New Year's Eve or New Year's Day, the household gathers at the table or at the Christmas tree or manger scene. Many people make New Year's Day a day of prayer for peace.

All make the sign of the cross. The leader begins:

Let us praise the Lord of days and seasons and years, saying:
Glory to God in the highest!

R/. And peace to his people on earth!

The leader may use these or similar words to introduce the blessing:

Our lives are made of days and nights, of seasons and years, for we are part of a universe of suns and moons and planets. We mark ends and we make beginnings and, in all, we praise God for the grace and mercy that fill our days.

Then the Scripture is read, Book of Genesis 1:14-19:

Listen to the words of the Book of Genesis:

God said: "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky, to separate day from night. Let them mark the fixed times, the days and the years, and serve as luminaries in the dome of the sky, to shed light upon the earth." And so it happened: God made the two great lights, the greater one to govern the day, and the lesser one to govern the night; and he made the stars. God set them in the dome of the sky, to shed light upon the earth, to govern the day and the night, and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw how good it was. Evening came, and morning followed—the fourth day.

(The family's Bible may be used for an alternate reading such as Psalm 90:1-4.)

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

After a time of silence, members of the household offer prayers of thanksgiving for the past year, and of intercession for the year to come. In conclusion, all join hands for the Lord's Prayer. Then the leader continues:

Let us now pray for God's blessing in the new year.

After a short silence, parents may place their hands on their children in blessing as the leader says:

Remember us, O God;
from age to age be our comforter.
You have given us the wonder of time,
blessings in days and nights, seasons and years.
Bless your children at the turning of the year
and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.
You are our God, living and reigning, forever and ever.

R/. Amen.

Another prayer for peace may be said:

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace:

where there is hatred, let me sow love;

where there is injury, pardon;

where there is doubt, faith;

where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light;

where there is sadness, joy.

O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console,

to be understood as to understand,

to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive,

it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

R/. Amen.

—Attributed to St. Francis of Assisi

The leader says:

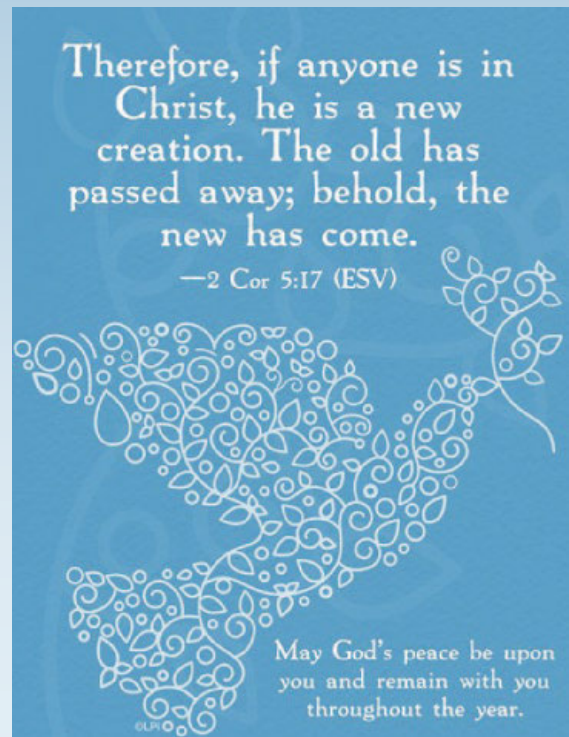

Let us bless the Lord.

All respond, making the sign of the cross:

Thanks be to God.

The prayer may conclude with the singing of a Christmas carol.
