Reflections from the Pew

Hi to my brothers and sisters in Christ. As Christians and teachings of St. Francis we must be "In the world but not of the world." It has dawned on me what that really means in my years and dreadful experience finally. It certainly has been a learning process in my good and bad self acceptance. When I think of God in the world, it means I must adapt to common languages every day street terminology. How nice it would be and easy if everyone could articulate to others God's desires, love by so called preaching. It also would help our self-survival as Christians. St. Francis did say "Go out into the world and preach the Gospel." Use words if necessary. "Our sweet selves don't always cut the mustard" without a lot of fast action and struggling. Bloom wherever you are planted and share your gifts.

God's people are starving for God, another mystery. My only hope is to take advantage of what I call, God's predicaments in the best way I know of.

Jesus says "I have come to make all things NEW"... Be prepared. You could make it happen. Dialog helps.

FUNERAL PREPARTION

Funeral
MINISTRY

Preparing for a funeral or wish to do some pre - planning for yourself or a loved one?

You can now find our funeral planning materials on our website. Preparing a loving memorial for a family member is something we are never prepared to do under any circumstances. Planning public celebrations during a pandemic adds even more stress and grief to our losses. The Pastoral Staff is here to assist you in any way we can. On our website you will find an outline to use as a planning guide, suggested readings and music and updated protocols we are following with everyone's safety in mind. We continue to hold in prayer all who have died, especially during the pandemic and all who grief their loss and unable to fully embrace those who can comfort them.

Pastoral Care

HOMEBOUND COMMUNION:

We have a team that will bring you the Eucharist in a safe and respectful way. If you would like to receive, please call the office and a member of our Pastoral Team will contact you.

Spiritual Communion

"My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, And I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
