

ST. PATRICK BULLETIN

June 26, 2022

The Lord Bless You In Your Comings and Goings!

I'm reminded of this prayer every time someone new crosses my path and whenever someone moves on to new adventures. For whether long or short, their time is always meant for good.

After eight years of bringing many gifts and blessings to our St. Patrick community as Parish Business Administrator, Dan Jaeger is retiring to pursue new ways to serve the Lord and his family.

Please join me in expressing our gratitude to Dan for his years of service and for his next adventure. May the good Lord continue to bless Dan in his comings and goings.

Fr. Allan Paul Eilen

Eight years ago, I desired to work for the Church. I think I said that I wanted to give back, to use my business skills to benefit the Church. I came here to work, not necessarily to build relationships, and I had no intentions of growing in holiness, nor did I know what that even meant.

Well, the Holy Spirit had different plans. Serving as Business Administrator at St. Patrick has been nothing short of amazing for me. The people I've served with on our staff have been wonderful and spirit-filled partners in ministry, and the parishioners of this community—well, many of you have become very dear friends of Caroline and me. And to top off my time here, God has transformed my life and opened my heart to encounter Him in all aspects of my life.

I love this community. I love the revival that we've gone through together, I love the programs and events that we offer to help people grow closer to Christ. I love how our men's ministry has taken off. I love how CountryFest continues to thrive. I love to see Christian leaders saying YES to God, and leading ministries. I love the fact that 50 people have gone through training and are now disciple makers within the community. I love that we're out of debt and able to focus more on our mission of loving God, our neighbors, and our self. I love that we have a pastor who loves his flock and serves them sacramentally.

The Catholic faith is alive at St. Patrick, and though it's time for me to say good-bye as the Business Administrator, we look forward to being active parishioners like so many of you. To those who have walked with me on this journey—you know who you are—thank you for your endless support and your constant agape love.

Peace,
Dan

FMSC PACKING SESSION TO HONOR PATTI

Patti Jochim's family held a Special Packing Session at Feed My Starving Children to honor Patti on her 75th birthday, June 13. They invited the wonderful community of St. Patrick's. Over 50 people paid tribute and sang Happy Birthday to our dear Patti.

NOTE OF THANKS - FEED MY STARVING CHILDREN

Parishioners of St. Patrick's, thank you for your generous donations of many hours of volunteering and for funding more than 93,000 meals since 2004. That's 257 children you've provided food to for an entire year! Would you keep the children, our partners, worldwide shipping, and the process of customs in your prayers? There are many difficult daily struggles and we believe in the power of your prayers. If you've never volunteered at Feed My Starving Children, I encourage you to come and experience how you can turn hunger into hope with your two hands. We'll be doing something new starting June 20, but it only will last a few weeks! Sign up now at fmsc.org/volunteer.
