First Sunday of Advent

November 28, 2021

First Reading (Jer 33:14-16)

The days are coming, says the LORD,
when I will fulfill the promise
I made to the house of Israel and Judah.
In those days, in that time,
I will raise up for David a just shoot ;
he shall do what is right and just in the land.
In those days Judah shall be safe and Jerusalem shall dwell secure;
this is what they shall call her:
“The LORD our justice.”

Second Reading (1Thes 3:12-4:2)

Brothers and sisters:
May the Lord make you increase and abound in love
for one another and for all,
just as we have for you,
so as to strengthen your hearts,
to be blameless in holiness before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his holy ones. Amen.
Finally, brothers and sisters,
we earnestly ask and exhort you in the Lord Jesus that,
as you received from us
how you should conduct yourselves to please God
and as you are conducting yourselves
you do so even more.
For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

Gospel (Lk 21:25-28, 34-36)

Jesus said to his disciples:
“There will be signs in the sun, the moon,
and the stars,
and on earth nations will be in dismay,
perplexed by the roaring of the sea
and the waves.
People will die of fright in anticipation of what is coming upon the world,
for the powers of the heavens
will be shaken.
And then they will see the Son of Man
coming in a cloud
with power and great glory.
But when these signs begin to happen,
stand erect and raise your heads
because your redemption is at hand.
“Beware that your hearts
do not become drowsy
from carousing and drunkenness
and the anxieties of daily life,
and that day catch you by surprise
like a trap.
For that day
will assault everyone
who lives on the face of the earth.
Be vigilant at all times
and pray that you have the strength to escape the tribulations that are imminent
and to stand before the Son of Man.”

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

From the Desk of Fr. Tony

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday marks the beginning of the season of Advent and with it the beginning of the church's new liturgical year. The season of Advent has a two-fold character. Firstly, we prepare for the commemoration of the birth of our Lord at Christmas and secondly, we look forward to Christ's second coming at the end of time. Our Catechism says of this season; "When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present the ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming."

During the season of Advent many things happen in our Church that help us to focus on the comings of Christ. The liturgical colors change from green to purple. Purple is the color of royalty and of repentance. Our Mass readings change, and we go back through the Old Testament hearing readings about the anticipation of the coming Savior. We also hear from Scripture about the end of time when Jesus will come again. We also have an Advent wreath which is symbolic. We light the candles symbolizing the coming of the Light into the darkness.

There are some things that we can do to increase our vigilance in this season. A daily re-dedication of our lives to Christ will help us focus on the importance of the coming of Christ. This is also an excellent time to avail ourselves of the sacrament of reconciliation. Making a special effort to pray together as a family is also a great way to prepare for the great Feast of Christmas. May this Advent truly be a fruitful time for us and may we be filled with joy at the coming of the Savior.

God bless,
Fr. Tony

Preparing Our Hearts for Christmas (Including a message from Fr. Tony)

Advent is a time to prepare our hearts for celebrating Christ coming to earth. Join us, along with Fr. Tony, to prepare for the arrival of Jesus. We'll focus on this sacred time of waiting with open hearts so that the mystery of His birth can change our lives. Social 8:30 am. Presentation at 9:00 am. SJN Social Hall. (Optional: Mass at 8:00 am)

Knights of Columbus Second Annual Strudel Sale

Help support local seminarian students by ordering strudel. Strudel will be available for pick-up on December 18 at St. John Neumann, or if you prefer, the KC's will deliver the strudel to you on the same day (December 18) at no additional cost. Sale ends December 3. <https://eaganknights7604.com/ruhlands-strudel-haus>

Giving Tree Collection Now through Sunday, December 5

Please take a tag from the trees in the Gathering Space. Bring your unwrapped item back to SJN by Sunday, December 5. For specific details, see our website www.sjn.org under Recent News/Giving tree.

All are welcome to join us for the inaugural Evening of Emmanuel on Friday, December 10 at 6:30 pm in the Main Church. The evening will begin with a short reflection by Fr. Josh, followed by a Holy Hour of Eucharistic adoration with a time for praise and worship. The sacrament of reconciliation will also be available from 6:30-7:45 pm, with Benediction at 7:45 pm followed by snacks in the Gathering Space. Evening of Emmanuel is hosted by SJN Young Adults but all ages are welcome to attend!

Worship

Eucharistic Adoration

"Eucharist" means "Thanksgiving" and what better way can we give thanks to God than by spending time before Him in Eucharistic adoration? Everything we have is a gift from God and He has left Himself in the Blessed Sacrament for us to enjoy His eternal presence. He proclaimed: "I am with you always until the end of the age."

Matthew 28:20

Winter months mean many leave for the south and this includes some of our scheduled adorers. We have an immediate need for additional adorers at these times: Mondays 4:30-5:30 pm, Tuesdays 12:30-1:30 pm and 1:30-2:30 pm, and Fridays 12:30-1:30 pm. Please call Marie at 651-405-0703 as soon as possible if you can help.

First Saturday Devotions

On Saturday, December 4, we will have First Saturday devotions consisting of the Rosary and prayers of reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary at 7:15 am in the Main Church. Just a few days later we will be celebrating Our Lady's Feast of the Immaculate Conception. Making the five First Saturdays as Mary requested at Fatima would be a beautiful way of honoring her as most pure and most holy.

Pastoral Care

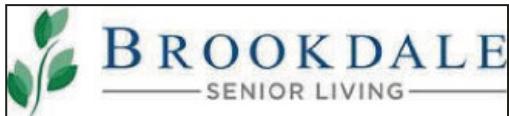

Funeral Lunches Have Resumed

What a gift it is to be able to once again offer this service to those who have lost a loved one. Our light funeral lunch is being served by volunteers who are wearing gloves and masks in an effort to keep all food and our guests safe. Lunches are served around 11:00 am and volunteers also help with minimal set up and clean up. If you are interested in assisting with funeral luncheons, please contact Lori.Hannasch@sjn at 651-209-8590 for more details or to be added to the rotation of volunteers.

Bulletin board topic for November is Home and Hospice Care. Understand how to access these home-based services and the criteria required for insurance to pay for them. The board is in the hallway between chapel and Main Church.

SAVE THE DATE-SJN BLOOD DRIVE

2022 American Red Cross Blood Drive at St. John Neumann is scheduled for Thursday, March 10 from 1:00-7:00 pm. For those who are Whole Blood donors, the 8 weeks date between donations is January 1, 2022. Our SJN blood drive Red Cross site is up and donors can now sign up at redcrossblood.org: find a blood drive - refine search - choose date - refine results & pick your donation time.

Lay Presiders are needed to assist on a rotating basis for Word & Communion Services at Brookdale Senior Living, 1365 Crestridge Lane on Sundays after 10:00 am Mass. Time commitment is about 1 hour each Sunday you are scheduled. If you are interested in joining this ministry, please contact Lori.Hannasch@sjn.org at 651-209-8590.

Discipleship

During Advent, we will spend the next four weeks preparing our hearts and our minds for the celebration of Christmas, when Jesus became man and came into this world in order to redeem our sins. And, we also will focus on His Second Coming at the end of time.

Advent offers us a great opportunity to reconsider how we are living our lives. If Jesus comes again today, will He be pleased with who we are and how we live? Is there more we can do to put Him first in our lives? Spend time this Advent season strengthening your faith and living it out.

Justice & Charity

The Open Door ("TOD") food shelf is seeking applicants for a Board of Directors role. As a founding member of TOD (formerly known as "The Eagan Resource Center"), at least one member of St. John Neumann sits on TOD's Board of Directors. For more information, please contact Mirla.Conlon@sjn.org

Box Springs and Mattresses

Bridging, a non-profit group that helps people thrive in their homes, is in need of box springs and mattresses. To donate new or gently used items contact Diana at 952-888-0746 or email diana.dalsin@bridging.org. For further details go to their website: <https://bridging.org>

Angel Tree Prison Ministry

When mom or dad goes to prison, a child may feel lonely and forgotten, especially around the holidays. Share the hope of Jesus with a hurting child in our community as you deliver a Christmas present and a personal message of love on behalf of their parent in prison. It starts with a gift and leads to restored lives. For more information on the Prison Fellowship Angel Tree Christmas program contact Kathy at Andersonkathrynj@gmail.com or call 651-210-6848.

Advent Wreath

Question:

What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer:

Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreaths adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.
