"The time is always right
to do what is right."

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time-January 16, 2022

First Reading (Is 62:1-5)

For Zion's sake I will not be silent,
for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet,
until her vindication shines forth like the dawn
and her victory like a burning torch.
Nations shall behold your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
you shall be called by a new name
pronounced by the mouth of the LORD.
You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD,
a royal diadem held by your God.
No more shall people call you "Forsaken,"
or your land "Desolate,"
but you shall be called "My Delight,"
and your land "Espoused."
For the LORD delights in you
and makes your land his spouse.
As a young man marries a virgin,
your Builder shall marry you;
and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride
so shall your God rejoice in you.

Second Reading (1 Cor 12:4-11)

Brothers and sisters:
There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God
who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit
is given for some benefit.
To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom;
to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit;
to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit;
to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy;
to another, discernment of spirits; to another,
varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues.
But one and the same Spirit produces all of these,
distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

Gospel (Jn 2:1-11)

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee,
and the mother of Jesus was there.
Jesus and his disciples
were also invited to the wedding.
When the wine ran short,
the mother of Jesus said to him,
"They have no wine."
And Jesus said to her,
"Woman, how does your concern affect me?
My hour has not yet come."
His mother said to the servers,
"Do whatever he tells you."
Now there were six stone water jars
there for Jewish ceremonial washings,
each holding twenty to thirty gallons.
Jesus told them,
"Fill the jars with water."
So they filled them to the brim.
Then he told them,
"Draw some out now
and take it to the headwaiter."
So they took it.
And when the headwaiter tasted the water
that had become wine,
without knowing where it came from
— although the servers
who had drawn the water knew —,
the headwaiter called the bridegroom
and said to him,
"Everyone serves good wine first,
and then when people have drunk freely,
an inferior one;
but you have kept the good wine until now."
Jesus did this as the beginning of his signs
at Cana in Galilee
and so revealed his glory,
and his disciples began to believe in him.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into Heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

From the Desk of Fr. Tony

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Scriptures have sometimes been described as a great love story. They contain the story of God's great and faithful love for his people. Our first reading from the prophet Isaiah gives us an idea of the kind of love that God has for us: "No more shall people call you, "Forsaken, "or your land "Desolate, "but you shall be called, "My Delight ... For the LORD delights in you." The Scriptures often use the image of married love as a way of describing God's love for us. It is no surprise then that the first miracle of Jesus in the gospel of John takes place in the context of a wedding. It is at the wedding feast at Cana that Jesus reveals his glory and we see in symbolic form the abundance of the gift of the Holy Spirit in the abundance of the wine - It is the gift of the Holy Spirit that is given to us by the Father through Jesus. At the wedding feast of Cana, Mary says to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." May we be filled with the New Wine of the Holy Spirit so that we may choose freely to do all that the Lord tells us to do and know the joy of true and lasting freedom.

God bless,
Fr. Tony

Give Yourself Grace

SJN Women's Saturday Morning Coffee – February 5

We often place pressure, self-negligence, and self-sabotage upon ourselves in pursuit of perfection. There is no grace in these actions. Grace is about acceptance, forgiveness, and love. Why don't I give myself grace or fully embrace the grace that has been given to me? Join us to discuss the healing power of giving yourself grace.

8:30 am social; 9:00 am presentation. (8:00 am Mass, optional.)
SJN Social Hall.
