The God Who Knows Us

Dear Friends,

As we push through these final days of a frigid January (thank you, Lord!), it's easy to let cabin fever combine with the latest infuriating headlines and lose our peace of mind and sense of the Lord's presence. As followers of Christ, we are always invited to ask: Where do I find Jesus Christ - right here and right now? He's not always where we first look.

In particular, deep winter can feel like an extended desert experience. Lent is still a month away, but the sacrifice and inconvenience of cold weather, difficult travel, revolving schedules, and limited gatherings (further encouraged by Bishop Kettler in these days) can bring cumulative exhaustion.

Into this the malaise, the Holy Word speaks to Jeremiah and to you:

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, before you were born I dedicated you, a prophet to the nations I appointed you. But do you gird your loins; stand up and tell them all that I command you."

Wow! In baptism and confirmation, you were endowed with amazing spiritual powers: priestly (prayerful sacrifice), prophetic (testimony to God's power), and kingly (leading people to Christ).

These gifts are not taken away when life grows difficult, painful, or depressing - indeed it is precisely for these times that spiritual strength is given. We do not pray for easier lives, but for greater trust in the one from Whom and for Whom all life is given.

Many continue to suffer both from the effects of COVID and from attempts to mitigate it. In this, can we move from surface conversations to deeper spiritual dimensions of what Christ is trying to teach and heal in our hearts? Can judgment and stereotyping be laid down for honest, ego-less, face to face conversations? These are difficult, but I experience them everyday and I'm witness to people around me who do this so well.

In the coming months, as we prepare to enter Lent and move into the renewal that Christ brings through Holy Week, the Holy Spirit is calling forth your voice and gifts through a Eucharistic Revival, an honest conversation on the state and needs of the Church through the Synod of Synodality, and further engagement of the gifts in our Area Catholic Community. After mass discussions as well as online and written feedback will help shape the next chapter in our parishes. Please, I ask for your prayers around the preparation of these efforts - for a new spring time always follows the challenge of winter.

Grace and peace!

Fr. Scott

Special liturgies this week

The Presentation of the Lord: Wednesday, Feb. 2

A special 12:05 pm liturgy is planned at St. Mary's Cathedral with music and the blessing of candles. The blessed candles will be available for a donation after Mass. You are invited to bring a candle from home to be blessed during this Mass.

Memorial of St. Blaise: Thursday, Feb. 3

Throats will be blessed at the 12:05 pm Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral on Thursday. In addition, throats will be blessed before and after all weekend Masses next weekend at all of our churches.

New COVID-19 restrictions from St. Cloud Diocese

Due to the recent surge of COVID-19, Bishop Kettler has made the decision to reinstate the requirement of face coverings for all indoor parish activities regardless of vaccination status. This includes attendance at Mass, faith formation classes, and other gatherings. If you would like to see Bishop Kettler's letter, visit stcdio.org.

Can you spare one hour this week?

Your help is needed to clean St. Augustine Church on Friday, Feb. 4, after the 8:30 morning Mass. We will provide supplies; you provide the elbow grease!

Rosary Sodality for St. John Cantius

Promoters, please contact your group members and let them know that yearly dues are due. All ladies of the parish (married, widowed or single) are invited to join. Contact Addie Fink 251-3426 or Lynn Tomczik 253-9422.

St. Augustine parish breakfast cancelled

Due to an increase in COVID-19 cases, February's parish breakfast at St. Augustine has been cancelled. The breakfast crew will continue to monitor the situation. March's breakfast is still scheduled. If adjustments need to be made, an announcement will be made in the bulletin.

Steubenville fundraiser scheduled

Our youth are busy making plans to attend Steubenville this summer. Plans are underway to provide fresh, homemade cinnamon rolls after all Masses in our churches February 27.

Scout Sunday - February 6

Traditionally, February 6 has been celebrated by Scouts BSA as "Scout Sunday" where scouts fill ministry roles during Mass and have a visible presence in our community of faith. COVID restrictions have made this celebration difficult, but those in scouting are reminded of their call to participate in their faith community as the 12th point of the Scout Law - "A Scout is Reverent." Scouting's founder, Lord Robert Baden-Powell, knew that the faith gives young people a road map for life, and that it is a wise guide for thoughts and actions. Over 100 years later we still believe that, and it is our individual faith traditions that inspire us to look beyond ourselves and turn our attention to helping others. Scout Sunday is a beautiful reminder to ground ourselves in this faith and reverence, both in our personal lives and in Scouts BSA's daily mission to make the world a better place.
