In 1962, when the famous director Steven Spielberg was 16 years old, he went to his local theater to see the movie Lawrence of Arabia. The movie was promoted with stereophonic sound and amazing cinematography; it was so advanced at the time, and no other movie had been made like it before. The young Spielberg was so impressed by the movie, he decided not to continue with his dream of making movies. To him, no movie could be better than the one he just saw. A week went by and Steven decided he would go back and watch the movie again. After another week, he went back again to view the movie. Eventually with persistence, his calling led him to be inspired, and as is commonly said, the rest is history. I bring this true story to you as an illustration of circumstances in our own lives. We can be discouraged; however, God ever-present gently calls us to be better people. He calls us to move forward and be better versions of ourselves.

During this Christmas season, we celebrate. Joy to the world, our Savior is born! This is also a time of great hope. Knowing that Jesus came to save us from our sins, gives us hope. This same ever-present God, giving us the opportunity to be better, gently calls us to live our lives in service and love. Many times we are challenged and can become discouraged. Like young Steven Spielberg, perhaps we think we cannot be better at something, or we feel the challenge is too great. The Christmas season and the joy we feel during this time gives us reason for hope. This season illustrates through the birth of our Savior, God is ever-present and through His love he is calling us to a better life. Our role is to be open and listening, to be persistent in finding opportunities. For many, we may have recently gathered or will gather with our families and loved ones. These gatherings are great opportunities for service and love. May this season bring you joy, hope and an abundance of love. Merry Christmas to you and your loved ones from the Church of St. Patrick.

The Nativity of the Lord

“He so loved us that for our sake He was made man in time, through Whom all times were made; was in the world less in years than His servants, though older than the world itself in His eternity; was made man, Who made man; was created of a mother, whom He created; was carried by hands which He formed; nursed at the breasts which He had filled; cried in the manger in wordless infancy, He the Word without Whom all human eloquence is mute (St. Augustine, Sermon 188).” The miracle of what happens at Christmas is truly an awesome mystery. Revealed in the silent ordinariness of life is God’s intimate love for humanity and all that he made. The Word, existing for all time, comes and dwells among us. God kisses us. We can seek and soar with playful delight as a joy never known before fills our heart.

Joy is best expressed through dance. There is just something truly wonderful about the self-abandon a beautiful melodic dance reveals. If we are able to let go and really be free, it celebrates life in a way few other experiences really can. With the birth of Jesus Christ, God takes the Divine Dance to a deeper and more tangible level. We can now not only see what we believe but believe what we see! This most perfect dance is a call to beauty, innocence, truth, purpose, hope, faith, and love. Today we know, beyond doubt, that we are a necessary part of God’s beautifully choreographed masterpiece of life and not just a random happening without real intent or purpose. We are loved, treasured, and blessed.

Accepting the truth of God’s birth in time we also accept an invitation to dance with God. We can let go of what tethers us to anxious concerns and superficial securities. Throw caution to the wind and go with God. We have been blessed with talents, gifts, and life eternal. Follow the rhythm of the dance with joy and listen to what the Word who became flesh tells us about what the next steps can be. Today, heaven remains the same, but earth has been profoundly changed. ©LPi

The St Patrick's Grandparent Ministry is ready to begin monthly meetings in 2022! New and seasoned grandparents are invited to join us on Thursday, January 13, at 12 noon in the Family Room. We will begin with prayer followed by a pizza lunch and a discussion on next steps for the Grandparent Ministry. Please RSVP to the office at 651-455-6624 by January 12 so we order enough pizza! Looking forward to reconnecting and setting our agenda for the new year.

Music for Weekend Liturgies: We now have a limited number of Gather hymnals available in the gathering space for people to use during weekend Mass. This is in addition to the seasonal supplement that will continue to be available in the gathering space and in the church for Mass. We are offering hymnals in the gathering space as a response to people who have requested the use of hymnals in the church again. Up until this time we have not done so because the sanitation regimen in the church would destroy the hymnals. Leaving them on a shelf in the gathering space is a happy solution, so long as people return the hymnals to the bookshelf at the conclusion of Mass. The supplement does contain some music not in the hymnal, so it would be advisable to continue picking up a supplement on your way into church. It should be noted that in addition to hymns, the supplement includes the Mass acclamations (page 4), and the refrains of the responsorial psalms listed by celebration (page 6).

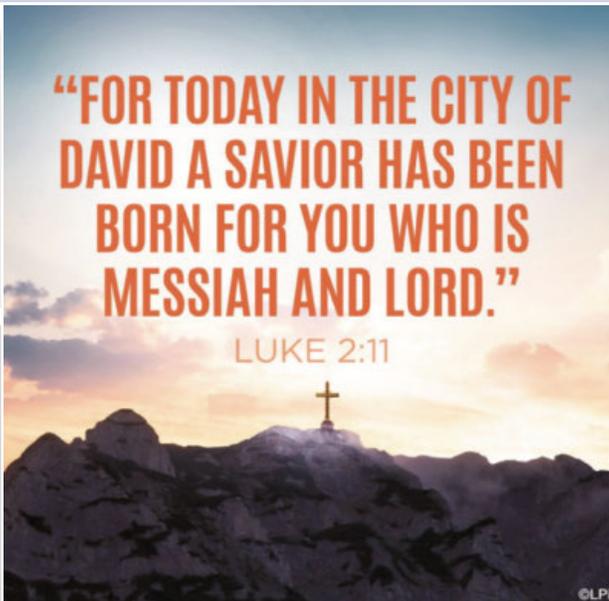

Miriam Dinner: Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda invites women, ages 16 – 35, who are discerning consecrated life to join him for a dinner event called the Miriam Dinner. Each Miriam Dinner includes an evening of prayer, dinner and conversation with consecrated women who come and share their vocation testimonies and answer questions about consecrated life. Typically, discerning guests attend the dinner with a Religious Sister, their Pastor, School Chaplain or Youth or Campus Minister. The next Miriam Dinner is Tuesday, January 25 at 6 p.m. at the Archdiocesan Catholic Center, located at 777 Forest Street in St. Paul. Please extend an invitation to young women, who may be learning more about consecrated life, to attend the Miriam Dinner with you! Please register before January 21 online here: <https://www.10000vocations.org/miriam-dinner.html>. If you have any questions, please email stpaulvocations@10000vocations.org or call the Office of Vocations at 651.962.6890.

Operation Andrew Dinner, Monday, January 17, 6-8PM, Archdiocesan Catholic Center, St. Paul: Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda and Father David Blume, Director of Vocations, invite men, ages 16 and older, who are discerning their vocations, to join them for dinner and conversation about priesthood and religious life. Typically guests invite their pastors, religious brother or youth minister to meet them at the Archdiocesan Catholic Center for the Operation Andrew Dinner. Online registration is required. For more information and to register: stpaulpriest@10000vocations.org.

A Note From the Men's Club

There are opportunities to volunteer at Bridging on a Saturday afternoon with a group of friends working on projects such as a towel drive or assembling cleaning kits. A dresser build is also a possibility if we have the funds available. On January 9 at 7:00PM, prior to its meeting, the Men's Club will sponsor the Bridging Community Relations Manager who will explain these and other volunteer opportunities at Bridging both in Bloomington and Roseville. If you are interested in helping Bridging please join us.

On a quarterly basis, an update will be provided on our “year to date” numbers in relation to our annual budget. These numbers are included below. As you can see, we still face great challenges in our weekly giving. Thank you for the generosity from those who make our parish ministries possible.

DID YOU KNOW? People age 72 and older who have a traditional IRA must take a Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) each year. Did you know that if part of the RMD is contributed directly to a charity, like the Church of St. Patrick, it would be tax free? This is called a Qualified Charitable Distribution. Interested? Please check with your financial planner.

2021 CONTRIBUTIONS: All contributions for 2021 need to be in the office by 11:00 a.m. Friday, December 31, 2021 or post marked by December 31, 2021, to be able to enter and get credit for the tax year 2021. Thank you for your generosity.

As we move through the Christmas season, COVID precautions are still in place. Steps are being taken at each Mass to keep those who visit St. Patrick's safe while attending Mass. The health and safety of our parishioners, visitors and staff remains a top priority. For those attending Mass and events at the parish, masks are strongly recommended. Please continue to social distance. Thank you for your cooperation in keeping St. Patrick's a safe place to worship.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too. ©LPi

Coming Back to Church

Question: I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer: If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPi
