Gregorian Missal, Mode I

Dóminus secus mare Galilææ vidit duos fratres, Petrum et Andréam, et vocávit eos: Veníte post me: fáciam vos fieri piscatóres hóminum. Ps. Cæli enarrant glóriam Dei: et opera mánuum eius annúntiat firmaméntum.

The Lord, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brothers, Peter and Andrew, and he called out to them: "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men."

∿ The heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament proclaims the work of this hands. Mt 4:18, 19; Ps 19

GREETING

Celebrant: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Assembly: And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,

And striking the breast, say:

through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

KYRIE Cantor/Schola

Missa XIII, Stelliferi conditor orbis

GLORIA Cantor/Schola Missa Simplex, Proulx; Missa Brevis, Gabrieli (10:00)

Glory too God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

COLLECT (OPENING PRAYER)

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Jonah 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD's bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Cantor/Schola

USCCB/NAB

Psalm 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

Jeff Ostrowski; Ganza/Garrett

Ant., Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me; teach me your paths,

Guide me in your truth and teach me, for you are God my savior.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old.

In your kindness remember me, because of your goodness, O LORD.

Good and upright is the LORD; thus he shows sinners the way.

He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Itell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out.

From now on, let those having wives act as not having them,

those weeping as not weeping,

those rejoicing as not rejoicing,

those buying as not owning,

those using the world as not using it fully.

For the world in its present form is passing away.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Cantor

Saint Meinrad, Mode VIII

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

The kingdom of God is at hand.

Repent and believe in the Gospel.

Mk 1:15

GOSPEL

Mark 1:14-20

After John had been arrested,

Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:

"This is the time of fulfillment.

The kingdom of God is at hand.

Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee,

he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea;

they were fishermen.

Jesus said to them,

"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."

Then they abandoned their nets and followed him.

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.

They too were in a boat mending their nets.

Then he called them.

So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,

All bow while saying

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER Assembly: Lord, hear our prayer.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND GIFTS

HYMN DOMHNACH TRIONOIDE

Those Who Love and Those Who Labor

MOTET (10:00)

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind C. Hubert H. Parry

Dear Lord and Father of mankind, Forgive our foolish ways; Reclothe us in our rightful mind; In purer lives, Thy service find, In deeper reverence, praise. In simple trust like theirs who heard, Beside the Syrian sea, The gracious calling of the Lord, Let us, like them, without a word, Rise up and follow Thee. Drop Thy still dews of quietness, Till all our strivings cease: Take from our souls the strain and stress, And let our ordered lives confess The beauty of Thy peace. Breathe through the heats of our desire Thy coolness and Thy balm; Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire; Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire, O still small voice of calm! (John Greenleaf Whittier)

SANCTUS Cantor/Schola Missa XIII, Stelliferi conditor orbis

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

MEMORIAL ACCLAMATION Roman Missal

Assembly: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

AGNUS DEI Cantor/Schola Missa XIII, Stelliferi conditor orbis

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

ECCE AGNUS DEI

Celebrant: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

Assembly: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION (5:15 p.m., 10:00 a.m.)

For those who cannot be present

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

COMMUNIO Cantor/Schola

Venite post me

Gregorian Missal, Mode VIII

Venite post me: fáciam vos piscatôres hóminum: at illi, relictis rétibus et navi, secúti sunt Dóminum.

“Follow me; I will make you fishers of men.” Whereupon they, leaving their nets and their boat, followed the Lord. Mt 4:19, 20

MOTET (10:00)

And I Saw a New Heaven

Edgar Bainton

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I, John, saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” Rev 21:1-4

HYMN FOR THE YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH

ST. JOSEPH

Great Saint Joseph

Great Saint Joseph, son of David, Foster-father of our Lord,

Spouse of Mary ever Virgin, Keeping o'er them watch and ward:

In the stable thou didst guard them With a father's loving care;

Thou by God's command did'st save them From the cruel Herod's snare.

Three long days, in grief, in anguish, With that Mother sweet and mild, Mary Virgin, didst thou wander, Seeking her beloved Child.

In the temple thou didst find Him: O what joy then filled thy heart!

In thy sorrows, in thy gladness, Grant us, Joseph, to have part.

Clasped in Jesus' arms and Mary's, When death gently came at last,

Thy pure spirit, sweetly sighing, From its earthly dwelling passed.

Dear Saint Joseph by that passing, May our death be like to thine,

And with Jesus, Mary, Joseph, May our souls for ever shine.

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION BY THE ASSEMBLY

Holy Communion will be distributed by individual sections of pews. Please wait until a Communion distributor arrives at your section before proceeding. Maintain a distance of two pews between yourself and the nearest individual ahead of you in line who is not from your household. Distribution begins at the sections nearest the exits and ends in the center aisle. For Holy Communion in the hand – please extend your hands, one directly over the other, as the Sacred Host is deposited.

*For those desiring to receive Communion on the tongue, please make your way to the Center Aisle, where both options for reception will be available. All other sections will be reserved for Communion in the hand, so as to reassure any who may be concerned. ## "WITH MALICE TOWARDS NONE": WORKING ACROSS THE AISLE

Young people are skeptical when I explain that until the early 1970's, many players on the Minnesota Twins or Vikings held off-season jobs. "No way!" Oh yes, indeed—they did so to supplement their relatively modest income. For old-time sake, I retrieved my collection of childhood baseball and football cards, noticing that the backside of the card contained tidbits about the players on a range of topics, including off-season activities. For example: "Rod (Carew) works in public relations for the Twins in the off season"; "Bart (Starr) represents a car company in the off-season"; (Viking linebacker) Karl Kassulke "does work for the March of Dimes" to name a few. Many held off-season jobs out of necessity! When he was not splitting the uprights with a field goal, Viking Fred Cox, a noted chiropractor, was adjusting people's spines.

In politics, a similar principle held, albeit eleven score and twelve years ago! When the 1st Congress convened on March 4, 1789, members were paid $6.00 per day ($177 in 2021 dollars)—but only when they were in session! It clearly didn't pay the bills! Over the past twenty years, Congress has averaged 147 legislative days per year (the U.S. Senate 165). With a congressional salary of $174,000, the per diem is closer to $1000. When the 117th Congress convened January 3, 2021, the average length of service for members was 8.9 years for the House and 11.0 years for the Senate. Thus, the typical member of today's congress had previously been elected more than four times to the house and twice in the Senate. By contrast, prior to the Civil War, it was common for 40% of U.S. House representatives not to seek re-election. That's right—40%. Today it is about 10%. Politics has become a career, and therein lies the problem.

It is time to admit what's become obvious. We have a political ruling class. This past Wednesday, we changed administrations in surely one of the most unusual transfers of power in our nation's history. Gone was the usual pomp and circumstance, in part due to the pandemic, but also largely due to the manner in which President Trump chose to exit the stage. No photo ops of the President and President-elect, no morning tea with the spouses. No shared limousine ride to the Capitol, a custom dating to a horse-drawn carriage ride in 1837 with President Andrew Jackson and incoming Martin Van Buren. (President Andrew Johnson was the last to skip the inauguration of his successor, Ulysses S. Grant in 1869.) Inauguration Day was eerily strange, unlike any I could recall. Perhaps it was fitting, given that everyone intuitively how polarized our nation is. That division did not begin in 2016— it has been brewing for years. But it's boiling over now, and we all lose in the process. It is critical that politicians work across the aisle.

In 2005, I began a program of theological studies in Rome. Having been advised that watching television during my free time would assist in learning Italian, I dutifully complied. I was immediately introduced to Italian politics. Sadly, it was mostly an exercise in frustration for two reasons. First, being new to the language, they spoke so rapidly to my untrained ear. Secondly, every channel seemed to be reporting on politics 24/7. Have you tried to make sense out of the Italian political situation? Dealing with one foreign language was bad enough— trying to figure out a second was too much! I settled upon a game show, where I could simultaneously listen and read the questions— and gave up the news. I chuckled at the Italian political system, while being far too haughty about our own. I've changed!

While having at least ten political parties was thoroughly confusing, a coalition government did have to build consensus in order to govern. Though coalitions fell apart all too often, at least they tried. Can we say that today about Washington D.C.? Political discussions are at the bottom of my list, especially as a priest. But I do wish to offer a few “non-partisan” reflections on our current climate. It is difficult to imagine our founding fathers envisioning a permanent political class, though many served multiple terms themselves. The founders carefully distinguished the House (i.e. grass roots democracy) from the Senate (a bit more aristocratic to be blunt), a completely separate and equal judiciary, and an Executive branch that had reserved powers, though with plenty of checks and balances.

But they never imposed Congressional term limits, the exception being the XXII Amendment limiting to two terms the office of the U.S. Presidency. Perhaps this should be considered across the board. A total of 48 U.S. Senators and 147 Congressional Representatives are over 65, for many years the traditional retirement age. The nine oldest U.S. Senators average 83 years of age, while the nine youngest average 46 years of age. I shall be careful here— after all, the median age of the Cardinal papal electors is 73! It is not primarily an issue of age, but length of service. Sixteen senators have served at least 20 years in the senate, while 70 U.S. House members have served at least ten two-year terms. While seniority does not ensure gridlock, one has to wonder if fresh faces might accomplish more. Let us pray that our elected leaders of both parties will truly work together for the common good of this nation. After all, that’s why they were elected!

- Speaking of baseball cards. After rummaging through my cards, I was curious. Given his incredible life story of breaking the color barrier in the majors, in 2010 I purchased a 1948 Leaf Jackie Robinson rookie card. The identical grade of card recently sold for 26x what I paid only a decade ago! Take that for a rate of return, Amazon!
- “With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation’s wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just, and a lasting peace, among ourselves, and with all nations.” Click the link to read Abraham Lincoln’s Second Inaugural Address delivered on March 4, 1865.
- Human Rights groups continue to apply pressure for the United Nations to recognize the horrendous repression of the Chinese Uyghur population at the hand of the Communist government. Over 1,000,000 have been forced into government run “re-education” camps, code for forced political indoctrination. The Uyghurs are a predominately Muslim Turkic ethnic group.
- While continuing to employ all appropriate COVID protocols in Church, we are also expanding the availability of seating by roping off fewer pews in the blue sections, those reserved for 3 or fewer people in a household. If more people spread out into the Dayton Ave. side of the Church, it more evenly distributes the congregation.

Sincerely in Christ,

STEWARDSHIP PROTOCOLS

Located at the four main doors (two on Selby Ave. and two on Dayton Ave.) you will find gold colored metal drop boxes. Please distribute your Sunday Stewardship envelopes or cash in those slots, preferably before Mass. Otherwise, you may deposit them when leaving.

ENTRANCE/EXIT PROTOCOLS

Doors are clearly marked and identified as either for entrance or as an exit.

The upper Selby Ave. door (by St. Peter Chapel) is an Entrance. Note: The handicapped may use this door in both directions. The lower Selby Ave. door is an Exit only. It is the one closest to the Bus Stop.

On the Dayton Ave. side, the upper Dayton Ave. door nearest the Sacred Heart Chapel is an Entrance, while the lower Dayton Ave. door is designated as an exit. The main doors at the back of the Narthex are designated, one as Entrance (nearest Selby Ave.) and the other as an Exit (nearest Dayton Ave.).

CLOTH FACE COVERINGS IN CHURCH

Gov. Tim Walz issued an executive order requiring all Minnesotans ages 5 and older, to wear a mask in indoor public places. The use of cloth face coverings is particularly important in settings where social distancing is difficult to maintain, such as in Church. Doing this for others help keeps all safe and healthy.

ON THE COVER

St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) was driven by a love of the truth, seeking it wherever it could be found. He was unafraid to penetrate the depths of the ancient Greek philosophers, often thought off limits by Christian thinkers. St. Thomas believed that his search for the depths of truth would only lead him closer to the depths of Christ’s love. His feast day is January 28. Each night before study he said a prayer which reads in part:

Grant to me keenness of mind,
capacity to remember,
skill in learning,
subtlety to interpret,
and eloquence in speech.
May You guide the beginning of my work,
direct its progress,
and bring it to completion.
Amen.

ONLINE GIVING - EFT

We are grateful for your support of the Cathedral of Saint Paul. Online Giving allows you to make contributions to the parish without writing checks or worrying about cash. Selecting the DONATE button at www.cathedralsaintpaul.org lets you set up automatic reoccurring contributions using your credit card or bank card. You can still place your Sunday envelope in the basket at church, just check that you are donating by using EFT. We have had 1,133 new onetime or new repeating contribution signups between April 8 through January 16! Thank you! Please email msnyder@cathedralsaintpaul.org with any questions about online giving.

ANNUAL WRITING CONTEST

Submissions accepted through February 17

The annual Writing Contest has begun! This contest encourages students in schools and parishes to dive further into their Catholicism by answering a specific question. During this unusual year, students are considering how they are sharing God's love during the pandemic. Students are judged for creativity and communications effectiveness compared to their peers in one of four grade levels. So, have students begin now! Flyer is attached. If you have questions, please contact Janine Ricker at rickerj@archspm.org or 651.291.4504.

VOICES FROM THE ARCHIVES

And last of all, he appeared to me also. . .

It was Father Galtier who first brought Saint Paul to the city. He wrote, “I had previously to this time fixed my residence at St. Peter (i.e. Mendota), and as the name of St. Paul is generally connected with that of St. Peter, and as the Gentiles being well represented in the new place. . . . I called it St. Paul’s.” He added that he “hoped that the saint’s name might someday grace not only his chapel but the entire Pig’s Eye settlement.”

There are thirteen images of Saint Paul in the Cathedral. Paul is everywhere: from the north side of the facade where he stands, a twelve-foot sculpture, to the lower level of the Cathedral where his image is carved in the wooden tympanum over the elevator; from the front of the baldachinno where he stands in bronze to the back of the nave where he stands in stone. Paul is the principal figure in the bronze grilles: “Each grille is surmounted by a life size frieze re-creating a major event in the life of St Paul.” The shield of faith is above each frieze. Here the sword forms the age-old symbol of Paul, who wrote, “. . . the sword of the spirit. . . [is] the Word of God.”

The conversion of Paul, the man who would later describe himself as one who “persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it,” is the subject of the first bronze panel. Christ in a blaze of light dominates the scene. Seven guards accompanying Paul turn from the light, covering their eyes. Paul, who also turns away, is portrayed with eyes open, waiting, aware.

The story is told in Acts 9, 1-5: Paul fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?” Paul writes his own account of his conversion in 1 Corinthians: “[Christ] appeared to Cephas and then to the Twelve. . . . And last of all he appeared to me also, as one abnormally born.”

Excerpts from An Architectural Biography, by Eric Hansen.

Note: The feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul is January 25. Archbishop John Ireland set this date as the Cathedral’s—and the Archdiocese’s—principal patronal feast. Saint John Vianney is the secondary patron of the Cathedral. ACSP.
