An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Everyday Stewardship: Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

"It Takes All Kinds"

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today?

There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word?

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

January 17, 2022: National Day of Remembrance for Martin Luther King, Jr.

We remember Dr. King especially for his leadership of the Civil Rights movement in the 1950s-60s. As pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta and President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Dr. King led a nonviolent movement for racial justice, which he tied to the other problems of poverty and war, as spiritual and moral evils of the times. He participated in numerous direct actions including the Montgomery bus boycott, anti-segregation sit-ins, and his March on Washington. His Letter from a Birmingham Jail and his I have a Dream Speech are among the most famous. He presented an ecumenical view that we must all live together and love one another. In 1964 he was awarded the Nobel Peace prize. In 1968 he was murdered while participating in a strike with Nashville's sanitation workers. He represents the best of Christian activism.

Garments to Go 2.0 at Mercy Hospital

This patient initiative is a project of the Mercy Iowa City Spiritual Care Department in order to meet the basic clothing needs of patients who are unable to leave the hospital without the proper attire. NEW sweatpants, crew neck sweatshirts and long-sleeve t-shirts (sizes Medium-2XL) are needed for referred patients when they are discharged and have inadequate clothing to wear. You can drop off the NEW items at the front Information Desk (inside 500 ED, Market street entrance). Donations are greatly appreciated by patients whose clothing was cut off in the Emergency Unit when they came to the hospital.
