Pastoral Pearls

Each of us is called by our Baptism to BE the Love of God to those around us – anyone we encounter. And since those around us will at times have a need for more tender care, I thought I would pass on some brief, concise "Pearls" or "Tools" to help us be that Love of God.

TODAY'S PEARL:

Never underestimate the difference you can make in the lives of others. Step forward, reach out, and help. Reach out to someone that might need a lift.

Pablo

The 4th Saturday of October is "Make a Difference" Day. According to this quote, even I can make a difference to someone. I don't know, though. It takes guts to reach out, to step forward, to offer a "spirit lift." How can I do that? Sometimes that attitude can stop me before I even get started. I guess you'd say that's the easy way out. But the good Lord blessed me as much as anyone with His wisdom – when I ask for it – with creativity and with the ability to pay attention to what matters. It's up to me to act on what the Good Lord provides – if I have the courage to do so. Jane Goodall sets forth a challenge worthy of those of us who try to act on God's call to love our neighbors. She says, "What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of a difference you want to make." So, since anything I do makes some kind of a difference, it might as well be the kind that lifts someone up – even as simple as a kind word, a ready smile, a compassionate ear to listen to someone's story, a moment taken to pay attention to how someone is feeling.... These are things even I can do. And who needs a "Make a Difference Day" to make a difference in someone's life.

Loving God, fill my heart with courage to reach out to the people around me, to lift them up and show them the love you bestow upon us to share. Thank you for all the love you constantly shower upon me in my life. Let your love for me bubble over to make a real difference in someone's life today, and tomorrow, and the next day, and so on, following your wonderful example of how to do this. May you Bless someone else through me today. Amen.

Opportunities are available for all skill levels – please join in if you want to come and make a difference with us! More details coming next week.

Art supplies and journals. Winter hats and mittens
As always, if you prefer to give a financial donation, you can drop it off on the weekend or send to the Parish Office.

Thank you for your generous heart!

UJAMAA PLACE

Changing Lives with Outreach Grants

Each year, our parish gives small grants to non-profits doing works of justice and mercy locally, across the country and around the world. In this space, you can learn more about the work supported by your generosity.

Ujamaa Place

On University Ave in St. Paul, a thriving non-profit is providing support and resources for African American men 18-30 years old who have had a run-in with the criminal justice system. More than 300 men are currently enrolled at Ujamaa Place – a transformational journey toward healing and hope. Working through an innovative curriculum called Theory of Transformation, these men are mentored, challenged, and supported as they work toward greater self-sufficiency. In 2020, the organization conducted a return on investment report that validated that every dollar invested in these men resulted in a $6.00 savings in community services. On behalf of the men of Ujamaa Place, thank you for your support. Would you like to learn more? Go to ujamaaplace.org.

Circle of Welcome – Afghanistan Resettlement News

Our parish refugee resettlement leadership team met for an orientation with Lutheran Social Services and we are on the way to welcoming a family. Watch this space and the weekly parish email for details as they unfold. We will begin by stocking the resettlement supply closet where new families can find all the things they will need to start a new home. Next week, a list of needed supplies will be available. Financial donations will also be needed, so if you can help in that way, please do! You can donate at the Parish Office or via the Giving tab on the parish website. Please join the team in prayer for the family that will come to us. May this parish and the wider community find a home in our hearts for those in need of a fresh start.

Love Builds Bridges, Not Walls

We invite you to pray for a person caught in our broken immigration system. Each week, we offer a name of someone detained, deported or waiting for justice.

Administrator's Corner

Stewardship Message: Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service. We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ. James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life. Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us. So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me? It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus The Catholic Steward

2022 Stewardship Campaign: Last weekend Fr. Joe and the Stewardship Commission provided an opportunity for parishioners to sign up to volunteer for one of the many ministries that we have at Guardian Angels. This weekend you will be prompted to fill out both cards if you haven't already done so. This week we will be mailing out letters from Fr. Joe along with pledge cards to all those who have not responded. Please return the cards soon to eliminate costs associated with another mailing. Please return the cards even if you are not able to pledge. Thank you!

Cemetery Cleanup Reminder: Depending upon seasonal weather conditions, general cemetery clean-up takes place during the month of October and must be completed by October 31. During this time, all grave decorations must be removed from graves so that a thorough clean-up of the cemetery can take place. Owners of the lots are requested to remove all floral tributes (live or artificial) prior to the clean-up date, or they will be removed by the cemetery personnel. If you have any questions, please contact me.

Thank You: We would like to thank parishioner Rick Augustine for donating his time and equipment to "blow out" our extensive irrigation system. Rick has been donating this service for many years and works with our maintenance team to make sure our irrigation system doesn't get damaged during the winter. He returns in the spring to turn the system on.

Last week we thanked the GA Mowers for their work in the cemetery and church grounds. This week we thank our maintenance team of Jason Kustritz and Tom Specht for their great work on keeping these same areas looking beautiful. Jason and Tom backup the GA Mowers when needed, prune trees and bushes, take care of replacing turf in cemetery and in the fall, sweep up all the leaves. Next time you see Jason or Tom make sure you thank them for all they do.

Historic Church Windows: This past week, the contractors completed the replacement of the storm windows that protect the Historic Church stained glass windows. In addition, they replaced and painted all the outside windowsills and repaired and painted the window frames. The costs related to this project were covered by Angel List donations and reserves.

GA Perks: Our new coffee shop and gathering space had a great "soft" opening last week. If you have not checked out GA Perks, why not take a stroll down the school building hallway and get a cup of coffee, tea, etc., and a baked item from our Baking for a Purpose ministry.

Archdiocesan Synod: This coming week's Synod topics will be Liturgy and the Sunday Mass Experience and Sharing the Gospel in word and deed. Both of these topics will be covered on Monday, October 25 at 6:00 pm and Wednesday, October 27 at 9:00 am. All of the Synod sessions are "stand alone" so parishioners can attend all sessions or just attend the ones that are of interest to you. These sessions are excellent, so we hope you are able to attend all, but don't stay away if you missed the first two. There will be a total of six sessions in all and at Guardian Angels they will always be on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Keep smiling,

Denny

PS: In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Good stewards know that their "greatness" is found in God, and is affirmed by a serving heart, a Spirit-filled life, a humble walk, and a commitment to acting in ways that glorify God. The "greatness" we feel about ourselves is rooted in a proper view of God in our lives and a proper view of our place in creation. It is from here that we derive our sense of identity and our belief that human life is particularly valuable. Not to be a servant of the Gospel and others would be poor stewardship. In what ways do we serve the Gospel in our daily lives?

Thought of the Week: For leadership there is only one road: service. There is no other way. If you have many qualities, the ability to communicate, etc., but you are not a servant, your leadership will fail, it is useless, it has no power to gather [people] together... Leadership must enter into service, but with a personal love for the people.
