SOCIAL JUSTICE & OUTREACH

Share A Smile and A Meal Loaves & Fishes

Would you like to help serve a monthly Sunday dinner at the downtown St. Paul Catholic Charities Opportunity Center (also known as the Dorothy Day Center)? No long-term commitment is needed – you can sign up for one date or more. You can volunteer to help serve with other parishioners at this link:

Guardianangelscatholicchurch.ctwincities.volunteerhub.com

Parish Food Shelf Garden is Growing!

Did you know that our parish food shelf garden supplies three local food shelves with amazing produce each week? You can sign up on the website for a Saturday or Monday morning or a Thursday afternoon and help with the tending. Families working together are welcomed. No experience is necessary – just a smile and a willing heart. See you in the garden!

Paper Bags Needed

Our neighbors at the Christian Cupboard Emergency Food Shelf need paper bags. The next time you unpack from a trip to the grocery store, please consider dropping your paper bags off in the Parish Giving Center (just inside the main entrance). Thank you!

Emergency Assistance

You may know that each week we welcome people from our community that are in need of a bit of assistance for a critical need. It could be a prescription at Target, some baby formula, a particular food for a special diet – there are many reasons that someone might find themselves caught short. If you would like to contribute to our parish fund for this need, you can donate online by choosing "Emergency Assistance" from the fund dropdown menu or by sending a check to the Parish Office.

If you prefer, we can also use $25 gift cards to Cub, Target or Aldi. Thank you for your continued support of this ministry.

Hope for the Journey Home

The summer months can present a challenge for volunteerism at HJH. The next time you walk into the main doors of GA, take a moment to look to your right and say a quick prayer for the residents of that brick building you see there. We are back up to serving seven families at a time these days and it's our volunteers that make it happen. If you have always meant to find out more about our shelter or if you have volunteered in the past and want to get back to it, go to <https://www.guardian-angels.org/hope/>.

Listening House Could Use Our Help

Whether it's the freezing cold or the extreme heat, having a place to go during the day to rest and recharge is a great gift. Please drop off any of the items listed below if you can help make the lives of Listening House guests a bit easier this month. Remember that all clothing items should be either new or very gently used and freshly laundered. Thank you!

Men's belts Small-size sunscreen and bug spray
Jeans, Tube socks, Backpacks, T-shirts (short and long sleeve),
Sweatshirts and hoodies

Bring A Bit of Joy to Someone Special

This weekend, you can stop by the table in the back of church to pick up a sweet treat for a special man in your life.

Whether it's Dad, Grandpa or another supportive presence that you love, who wouldn't want some chocolate? Freewill donations gratefully accepted and will benefit Options for Women East.

World Refugee Day is June 20

The United Nations established World Refugee Day to honor and celebrate the strength and resilience of those who are driven from their home by violence, persecution or disaster. Here at GA, we especially celebrate all of the families who have come to us through our parish refugee resettlement ministry. Please pray for them this week as we recognize their perseverance and courage.

Save the Date

All are invited to mark your calendars now for a wonderful Saturday morning coming to GA on September 24. What might it mean to get in touch with your deepest calling? How can you find support in community to more closely follow Christ? Watch this space for more coming soon!

Love Builds Bridges, Not Walls

We invite you to pray for a person caught in our broken immigration system. Each week, we offer a name of someone detained, deported or waiting for justice.

HOW DO YOU CELEBRATE

Father's Day?

ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

Stewardship Message: Today we observe the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This beautiful feast celebrates the gift of the Eucharist, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches is the source and summit of our Christian faith. "For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself" (CCC paragraph 1324). The very word, Eucharist, means "thanksgiving" or "gratitude" and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God's blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, but also God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ. Today's second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the depths of love our Lord has shown us in the gift of the Eucharist, recalling Christ's words at the very first Eucharistic celebration. "The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you.'" In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift? We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord's example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead. The Catholic Steward

Thank You: The Men's Club organized a night out to attend the Saint's game on Friday, June 10 along with a picnic before the game. There were 140 attendees including Men's Club members, their spouses/significant others, and families along with some staff. Dan and Kathy Wahlman prepared and served the food. Jim Stevenson arranged for the use of his firm's parking lot for the picnic and parking. Everyone brought lawn chairs and there was plenty of food and beverages. The free parking was much appreciated, and we all walked to the game and sat together. Carla McGough, our Communications Coordinator attended, and she took several photos which can be viewed on the Guardian Angels Facebook page. It was a great community building event and I am sure they will do it again.

GA Perks Update: Thank you to the Baking for A Purpose Committee and their friends for supplying the homemade tasty goodies each weekend. The after-Mass crowd continues to grow, and several groups and committees are using GA Perks for their meetings. It sets up well for hybrid meetings and free coffee 24/7 is a big draw. Thank you to the Women's Club who donated $4,000 this week to cover the last of the expenses for GA Perks. We now have "Coffee and Crumbs" every weekend and after daily Mass. If you haven't checked it out, I suggest you do, it is a great opportunity to socialize and meet new parishioners.

Synod Update: Next Friday, June 24 Guardian Angels will be hosting a gathering of parish staff and ministry leaders from parishes all over the Archdiocese. The gathering is scheduled from 10:00 to 2:00 with Mass being celebrated by Archbishop Hebda at 11:45 in our Worship Space. The Mass will be livestreamed on our website and lunch will be served immediately following the Mass. If you plan on attending, you must register for in-person attendance or watching via Zoom. Please go to our website for the links to register.

Zack is putting together the liturgy and music for the Mass the livestream crew is ready to broadcast the Mass. We are also providing the support for the hybrid meeting that will be held in Peter O'Neill Hall from 10:00 am -11:45 am and after Mass and lunch from 1:00 pm - 2:00 pm.

Fall Festival Update: Some of the members of the Fall Festival Core Team will be stuffing the Big-Ticket Raffle packets next weekend and they will be available for you to pick up after Mass next weekend.

New Maintenance Building Update: After experiencing several delays, we finally got the concrete floor poured this weekend. Electrician and sprinkler contractors can now come in and finish their work. Sewer and water will come in the next two weeks and that will be run from the front of the old pole barn through the HJH backyard and connected to plumbing already installed. On Tuesday, our asphalt contractor will be patching several areas in the upper parking lot and the roads behind the food shelf and the old pole barn. Cemetery access on Tuesday (June 21) will only be available from the cemetery road coming from 4th Street. Thank you for your patience.

Keep Smiling,

Denny

PS: From the rich Eucharistic themes to be drawn from today's second reading, one stewardship theme stands out: The Eucharist is Christ's gift to us. Good stewards are grateful for this gift and realize that no matter their station in life, they are welcome to come to the table and receive the body and blood of Christ. If Jesus could break bread with his betrayer, Judas, his denier, Peter, and the other ten who deserted him, then he will welcome us. Do we truly appreciate what a tremendous gift it is to approach the Lord's table? Do we realize that the Holy Spirit means to transform us by the gift of Christ's body and blood?

Thought of the Week: Jesus speaks in the silence of the mystery of the Eucharist and reminds us each time that following him means going out of ourselves and making our lives not something we 'possess' but a gift to him and others.

Pope Francis

CARING & SUPPORT MINISTRY

PASTORAL PEARLS

Each of us is called by our Baptism to BE the Love of God to those around us – anyone we encounter. And since those around us will at times have a need for more tender care, I thought I would pass on some brief, concise “Pearls” or “Tools” to help us be that Love of God.

Today's Pearl: **The sign of a beautiful person is that they always see beauty in others. ~ anonymous*

Sounds easy right? But IS it? It does require Intentionally Looking for that beauty.

I have to say that when I DO really look at a person – any person – to see what beauty I can find, there is so much to them! Each person was beautifully created by God, and I can really SEE that when I am intentional about looking for it, even in the least likely places (people). Unfortunately, society has taught me all too well to assume the worst. I try so hard to fight that, but I have to admit that I all too easily fall into that negativity. It seems to be what “everybody does” – with their complaining, judging, critiquing – and I can be lazy and just go along with it, too.

But I remember some specific examples of the impact it can have on a person when I DO see the best in them – the beauty- and voice it to them. Like many moons ago, on a youth trip to the Boundary Waters, there was a young man – tall, gangly, quiet, unsure of himself. When we were out swimming together, I happened to speak out loud what I was thinking, and told him how amazingly beautiful his eyes were. Maybe an awkward compliment for a teenage boy. But interestingly enough, it opened up conversation between us, where he shared more with me about his life. I was honored. I don't think he was planning on sharing anything of himself with me, and I don't know what made me blurt it out (other than the Holy Spirit), but it turned out to be the right thing to do. It led to me pointing out to him that though he may be shy, I saw he had some real leadership qualities. After that this insecure man-boy seemed to shine more brightly.

Later, we had a bit of a crisis on this trip, with the other chaperone having a diabetic episode where he fell into the lake while brushing his teeth, hit his head on a rock, bit his tongue, and was combative, and incoherent. This young man, since he was so tall, put himself between this chaperone and the lake, so he would not hurt himself, and was able to physically keep the chaperone from falling into the steep, deep lake again. And when the chaperone wasn't snapping out of this for way too long a time, even after receiving the emergency injection we had for this teenage boy who was also diabetic, I left this young man in charge of the group as leader, while another youth and I paddled back to base camp for help. (We also alerted some adult leaders from another group, who we found on a neighboring island, to check in with them to make sure they were ok).

When we returned we found out that the other chaperone had snapped out of it shortly after we left, and this young man entertained the others in the group by letting them do a “make-over” on him – complete with make-up and hairstyling! Now that showed new-found guts and confidence in himself, and he brought the group into a tight-knit group through the experience. And I do believe it all started from expressing to him the beauty I saw in him. We all have the ability to find this kind of beauty in the least likely of people, but the true test is to follow the Spirit and let go of any self-consciousness, and tell the person about the beauty we see in them. To move from just a thought that runs through my head (most often left unexpressed) to sharing this positive observation, with no ulterior motive, is huge! Try it! It's fun!

Loving God, may you bless us all with the perceptiveness to look for and see the beauty in each person we encounter, and the courage to express it to them openly and lovingly, so they may know the wondrously gifted person you have created them to be, and shine brighter in this world. Amen.
