SOCIAL JUSTICE & OUTREACH

Hope for the Journey Home is Hiring

Yes, the labor market is still tight and so we can use your help to get the word out. Our shelter for families has part-time positions open now, including an administrative assistant with good organizational and computer skills and an afternoon/early evening host to welcome volunteers and assist with a variety of shelter tasks. If you would like to know more about either of these opportunities, please contact Trish at 651-503-3380.

It's A Heat Wave

Many of our lawns are a bit crunchy these days and we all need rain! Our Parish Food Shelf Garden also needs extra attention when weather like this settles in. If you can help us tend the veggies with watering or weeding, please consider signing up for a shift on the website. If a day or time outside of those listed would work better for you to come over and do some watering, call the Parish Office.

August Plate Collection

This weekend, we welcome leaders from our Sister Parish team who will share an update about our partnership with sisters and brothers in Nicaragua. Your consistent financial support has helped maintain close ties between our two communities for over 30 years. Whatever you can contribute will be gratefully received. Thank you!

Annual School Supply Drive Is In Full Swing

If you have school-age kids, you already know that it's time to think about school supplies. Our annual drive for local families in need is happening now. You can bring your new school supplies to the table near the main entrance. Check the website for a list of most-needed items. We cannot accept used items for this collection – thanks for your understanding.

Our collection deadline is Tuesday, August 9.

As always, if you prefer to make a financial donation you can do that at the Giving Tab on the parish website. Thank you for helping to make going back to school less stressful for families who need a bit of help. If you are reading this and could use some help yourself, please call the Parish Office.

2022 Outreach Grants

This parish has a long history of living out Catholic social teaching in a variety of ways, including our yearly grantmaking effort that reaches out to a wide variety of organizations working for the common good. These grants are only possible because of the generosity of parishioners – thank you! This week we focus on Ujaama Place, a mentoring center focused on young Black men at the intersection of race and poverty in St Paul. Want to learn more or get involved? Find out about this critical work at ujaamaplace.org.

Paper Bags Needed

Our neighbors at the Christian Cupboard Emergency Food Shelf need paper bags. The next time you unpack from a trip to the grocery store, please consider dropping your paper bags off in the Parish Giving Center (just inside the main entrance). Thank you!

Listening House Could Use Our Help

Whether it's the freezing cold or the extreme heat, having a place to go during the day to rest and recharge is a great gift. Please drop off any of the items listed below if you can help make the lives of Listening House guests a bit easier this month. Remember that all clothing items should be either new or very gently used and freshly laundered. Thank you!

- Men's belts, small-size sunscreen and bug spray, jeans, tube socks, backpacks, t-shirts (short and long sleeve), sweatshirts and hoodies

Finding Your Calling: Discipleship for the Life of the World Coming to GA

On Saturday, September 24 Our calling is something we do, someone we are and someone we become. How do we listen for the invitation of Jesus and live the fullness of our lives? Plan to spend a morning of retreat, reflection and conversation with others and with keynoter Laura Kelly Fanucci. Registration information coming soon – you won't want to miss it!

Love Builds Bridges, Not Walls

We invite you to pray for a person caught in our broken immigration system. Each week, we offer a name of someone detained, deported or waiting for justice.

Rosa from Nicaragua

From Fr. Joe,

On Saturday August 6th at the 4:30 pm Mass, I will be installed at Pastor of Guardian Angels. The priest installing me will be Fr. T.J. Mackenzie.

GA Men's Club

The Guardian Angels Men's Club is proud to announce this year's scholarship award winners. They are: Jack Schoenecker and Quinn Scheider.

Jack's parents are Colleen & Ted Schoenecker. Jack is a graduate of Hill-Murray High School where he excelled both academically and as a multi-sport student athlete. He was a multi-sport letter winner, including soccer, basketball. He was an "A" honor roll student and a member of the National Honor Society. He was a volunteer at many of the Fall Festival dinners as well as the Fish dinners. He also was involved in the Summer Stretch program and many community service projects. His Family has a strong Catholic faith and he often hears that "Sometimes it is better to be kind than right". He will be attending Iowa State University, majoring in Engineering.

Quinn is the son of Tom & Erika Scheider. He is a graduate of Woodbury High School. Quinn is also a multi-year Academic letter winner. He was very involved in the golf program where he was named "Captain" his junior & senior years. He was named head Coach of the First Tee program at Eagle Valley Golf Course. He is a well traveled and has experienced many different cultures as a result. He has been a Bible school teacher as well as a third grade assistant in our Faith Formation program. He was an integral part of the Guardian Angels Live Stream Committee. Quinn's family also has a long connection to our Church and the Catholic faith. He will be attending Saint John's University where he will be studying Finance or Accounting.

Both of these young men have shown their faith in many ways. They have affected those around them by the way they live their lives. We wish them the best as they find ways to grow as faith filled men. We congratulate these two young men who have served the Guardian Angels Community.

Silent Auction is back!

The Fall Festival Silent Auction room is open! Please bring in donations of new and like new items to room M7. Use donation forms on the cart to share a description, value and if you would like the item back if it doesn't sell.

Want to discuss an item? Email us at silentauction@guardian-angels.org.

We also welcome your gift card donations. Drop off cards ($10 or more please) to the collection bin on the Big Ticket table, in the collection basket at Mass, to the office or mail it with your weekly offering envelope. We especially need help with business follow up which involves emailing, calling or stopping by a business to see if they are able to donate this year. We provide the script and a list of businesses, it's super easy! Join our team and be part of the magic! Last year we ended up making $30,000 between the auction and our sales on FB and EBay. Your generosity made that happen. You rock GA, thank you! Let's do it again!

Youth Jamboree, Wednesday, August 3, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Youth going into grades 9-12 are welcome for a fun filled day including: serving at the CCEFS food shelf, GA Garden, learning about Liturgical roles at Mass, eating a picnic lunch, and hiking and swimming at Afton State Park. Contact Paul Deziel for permission slip pdeziel@guardian-angels.org or 789-3173.

ADMINISTRATOR'S CORNER

Stewardship Message: Today's Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let's face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let's see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools! In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about "stuff" as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn't have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man's last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish! Don't be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God's eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.

The Catholic Steward

Fall Festival Update: The Big Ticket $300 incentive drawing winner on July 25 was Gloria Allen. The next incentive drawing, $250, will be on Monday, August 15, at 3:00 pm for all those who have sold and turned in all their 25 tickets along with the drawing form that is on the top of the letter in the packet. Our goal this year is higher than last year because the Fall Festival Committee was asked to raise an additional $20,000 in net proceeds this year to help balance the budget due to projected lower stewardship pledges. Please check out the thermometer hanging on the Giving Center that shows how we are doing. Through last weekend, the good news we are ahead of the average over the past three years. Next weekend will be our annual Kickoff Weekend with treats and ice cream after all the Masses. Please plan on stopping by and checking in with Fall Festival Committee volunteers and sign up to volunteer for the festival. You can also go to our website to sign up.

Feature Event: The Cake/Cereal Walk needs boxes of Cereal and eventually Cakes. Boxes of cereal can be brought in starting now all the way up to the day of the festival. All boxes that remain after the festival are given to Hope for the Journey Home and open Cupboard. You don't have to start baking now, but we never have enough cakes for the Cake Walk. Please consider making a cake or purchasing one and dropping it off at the church on carts next to the office on Friday or Saturday morning, festival weekend.

Welcome: We are pleased to introduce our newest member of the staff, Lukas Steffensmeier as our Elementary, Family and Adult Formation Coordinator. He begins work on Monday, August 1. Lukas has a B.A. degree in Theology from St. John's in Collegeville and earned his Master's in Theology from Notre Dame. Prior to joining us, he has been teaching Theology at Totino Grace High School in Fridley. He will be working closely with Deb McMahon, Paul Deziel, and Fr. Joe in building up our faith formation programs. You will be able to learn more about Lukas in the upcoming August Angel News. Welcome aboard Lukas!

Maintenance Building Update: This past week, the sewer and water were finally hooked up to the new building after weeks of delay due to supply shortages. This past week, a painting team, lead by Karl Bozicevich, consisting of Jason and Tom from our maintenance staff and Doug Ashton, Glen Giacometto, Jim Jacobs, Tony Manzara and Richard Smith, painted all the walls of the new building. Fairly soon, we will be moving all equipment and maintenance shop from the west end of the old pole barn into the new building. The west end of the pole barn will be used for storage only of Fall Festival items and supplies, Boy Scouts, tables, etc. that are currently stored in the containers in the parking lot. Look for pictures in the upcoming Angel News and there may be an "Open House" after Masses on an upcoming weekend.

Did You Know: Open Cupboard (formally known as Christian Cupboard Emergency Food Shelf) served over 321,000 individuals during the first six months of 2022!

Keep Smiling,
Denny

PS: A prominent theme in today's Gospel parable is generosity. Late at night, a sleepy friend responds to his neighbor's request for food for an unexpected guest. Jesus suggests that it would be unthinkable for a friend to deny a friend in need. A friend would most certainly give what is asked and more. Through this story, Jesus illustrates God's generosity. Good stewards realize the extraordinary love and graciousness with which God showers us. We need never convince God to be generous. God is already that generous friend. His abundant love bathes us in goodness. This week, prayerfully reflect on God's generosity to us. What should our response be to that generosity?

Thought of the Week: Let us encourage the generosity which is typical of the young and help them to work actively in building a better world. Youth do not solely need material things. Above all, they need to have those non-material values which are the spiritual heart of a people ... spirituality, generosity, solidarity, perseverance, fraternity, and joy.

CARING & SUPPORT MINISTRY

PASTORAL PEARLS

Each of us is called by our Baptism to BE the Love of God to those around us – anyone we encounter. And since those around us will at times have a need for more tender care, I thought I would pass on some brief, concise “Pearls” or “Tools” to help us be that Love of God.

Today’s Pearl: The first week in August, I discovered, is National “Simplify Your Life Week.” Wow! What a concept! I really need that! I heard that simplifying life before going into the Fall can really set the stage for less stress, more balance. So beyond “de-cluttering” my physical space – at home and at work – which I really could use, I feel the need to de-clutter the way I live. I’m pretty sure that as a Christian my first – and most powerful – step toward this would be to spend some regular quality time with God, who can guide me on how to simplify the way I live. For me, much would be simplified if I quit trying to control everything (and everyone?) in my life. I can put some boundaries around my time, prioritize things to be done according to my values and what Jesus teaches me about living a Spirit-filled life. I can try my best to follow in Christ’s footsteps, letting God lead me down the best path for me, rather than trying to be so independent and always do things my way, feeling like I need to figure everything out for myself. What would happen if I focused my energy on simple kindnesses for others. I could be encouraging and affirming to others, remembering to smile and compliment. Good start! That does simplify things. Maybe when I avoid taking on other people’s problems, and looked to my own interior life instead, life will become simpler – not easier, but simpler. I’ve heard said that most people have trouble saying “No” to things, even while complaining about being too busy. Busted! Maybe I need to practice saying “No” to simplify my life, striving for balance. I can also work at focusing more on how to be in the present moment, rather than stewing about the past or worrying about the possible future. I can pay attention to and be grateful for all the wondrous things God blesses me with, all the time. That surely brings peace and joy – much simpler than worry and fear. What can you think of doing to simplify your life? It’s worth pondering – and hopefully acting upon.

Loving God, Show me what to de-clutter from my life and what to add that would simplify my life, and make it more meaningful and loving. Help me find contentment by being more and more grateful for what I do have and can do, rather than dwelling on what I don’t have or cannot do. Help me to prioritize kindness and loving care in my life. Help me to see where and how I can spend more quality time with you, and listen for your guidance in my life. Amen

Healing Hearts Grief Support Group

Meets for 8 weeks on
Mondays, 12:30 – 2:00 p.m.

You can still get in on this new series.

If you are someone who still is struggling or feeling off-balance since the death of a loved one, or are experiencing any kind of great loss, please consider trying this out.

We will meet in-person, but also offer a Zoom option.

All are welcome.

BeFriender Candidates Have you ever been told you are a good listener easy to talk to, non-judgemental, not trying to offer unwanted advice or “fix” anyone, accepting of whatever a person wants to say? Do you ever find yourself wanting to be of service to people, make people feel comfortable, help people see their own strengths? BeFriending is a way to do this. People in transition, or struggling, or going through some tough times sometimes just need someone to listen to them for a bit, so they can discover their own answers through talking with someone. That’s what a BeFriender is a compassionate, accepting, non-judgmental, affirming listening presence for people who are trying to navigate their situations and feelings. If you see yourself in any of this please contact MaryPat Potts to chat about what it takes and what it means to be a BeFriender. We are looking to train interested candidates this coming Fall. We would like to develop a pool of BeFrienders who would have their monthly meeting in the evening, so this is a good opportunity even for those who work during the day. 651-789-3178

Santa Shop:

Spring is here & the Santa Shop is collecting items for the children to purchase as Christmas gifts for their family & friends. It sounds very early but it takes a lot of collecting, sorting & pricing to have a large inventory from which the children to choose. Suggestions, have you received prizes or gift you cannot use? We are always in need of gifts for men, i.e. small tools, sports items, things for their desk, for women, knickknacks, lotions, anything for the kitchen, for children, toys of any kind. All items can be left in the giving area, located to your left as you enter the church. Please mark "Santa Shop" on your donations.

Thank you for your generosity,
Karen Bollmann 651-735-2421

The Crafters are busy making plans for the Fall Festival. The Quilt Raffle will be starting soon. You will not want to miss purchasing tickets for a chance to win this beautiful quilt! As last year, the Crafters will be selling plants, canned goods and fresh produce in M6. Now is the time to split your houseplants and start growing new plants. As you are canning your favorite jams, set aside a few to donate to the Fall Festival! And don't forget we gladly accept your craft items. The Crafters always appreciate all donations.

Fall Festival's Bottle Lotto
Game Goodies Needed

The Women's Club will be having our crowd-pleasing Bottle Lotto this year! It is especially popular with the younger crowd ages 5 to 15! The younger kids love to get wrapped candy, coins or other treats, small stuffed animals (think beany babies). The teens like shampoo, nail polish, silly socks, any beauty, and hair accessories. Use your "bottled up" creativity to come up with your own mix of fun things! You can also drop off a bag of wrapped candy (no loose M&M's please) and let the Women's Club members put together bottles for you!

We will be accepting only new items for Bottle Lotto. Donations can be dropped off August 1st through Sept 10th at the Bottle Lotto drop off location outside the Parish Office.
