Dear Friends in Christ,

May is an interesting time of year. On the one hand, it is a time of new beginnings. After the long winter and the spring rains, new life begins to bud around us. Trees once bare now have flourishing foliage. Gardens and crops are planted in the ground and begin to grow. It is also a time of endings. Many of our parishioners finish up their school year. Spring sports give way to summer activities.

In the midst of all of this change, our Lord remains a constant. During these days as we begin the summer, which is a time where life is seen to be in full bloom, we are called to remember the life we have in Christ as disciples.

During these summer months, a few activities might be useful for us to remember. Taking a walk on a nice summer day can be accompanied by prayer. Just as we speak with one another when going to and fro, so we can speak with our God. When we see the beauty of the summer, we can become more intentional about thinking of the author of all that is truly good and beautiful—our God.

Summer can be a time where we remember in a special way the goodness of God. Drawing strength from the gift of the Eucharist, where we receive Jesus Himself at Mass, we are called to realize that He is life, and this life in abundant beyond our dreams!

In Christ Jesus,
Fr. Pat

Queridos amigos en Cristo,

Mayo es una época interesante del año. Por un lado, es un tiempo de nuevos comienzos. Después del largo invierno y las lluvias primaverales, una nueva vida comienza a brotar a nuestro alrededor. Los árboles que antes estaban sin hojas ahora tienen un follaje floreciente. Los jardines y cultivos se plantan en el suelo y comienzan a crecer. También es tiempo de culminaciones. Muchos de nuestros feligreses terminan su año escolar. Los deportes de primavera dan paso a las actividades de verano.

En medio de todo este cambio, nuestro Señor sigue siendo constante. Durante estos días en que comenzamos el verano, es una época en la que la vida está en pleno florecimiento, estamos llamados a recordar la vida que tenemos en Cristo como discípulos.

Durante estos meses de verano, algunas actividades pueden ser útiles para recordar. Dar un paseo en un bonito día de verano puede ir acompañado de oración. Así como hablamos unos con otros cuando vamos de aquí para allá, así podemos hablar con nuestro Dios. Cuando vemos la belleza del verano, podemos volvernos más intencionales al pensar en el autor de todo lo que es verdaderamente bueno y hermoso: nuestro Dios.

El verano puede ser una época en la que recordemos de manera especial la bondad de Dios. Tomando fuerza del don de la Eucaristía, donde recibimos a Jesús mismo en la Misa, estamos llamados a darnos cuenta de que Él es vida, ¡y esta vida en abundancia más allá de nuestros sueños!

En Cristo Jesus,
P. Pat
