Sunday Instructions for receiving Holy Communion:

- *There are now two spots at the front of church to receive Communion: one for each side of the church.
- *An Usher will excuse your household from the pew.
- *The line will be single-file, and the Usher will release one household from one side, then one household from the other side, and in that way alternate sides. Please follow the Usher's directions and maintain 6 feet of distance between households while in line.
- *At the front of the line will be a sign with instructions for dealing with your mask in order to receive communion, as well as a bottle of hand sanitizer:
  - First remove your mask.
  - Then sanitize your hands.
  - Go to STAND at the † on your side of the church. Every one in your household should stand together, side-by-side.
  - Receive Communion (Father will come to you).
  - Replace your mask while still at the †.
  - Return to your pew via the side aisle (more hand sanitizer is available in the front corners).

*If you will not be receiving Communion today, please allow the others in your pew to move past you.
 *At the †, Father will be on the other side of the rail, moving between the sides. He will be wearing a mask and will sanitize between communicants, if he believes any contact was made.
 *You are encouraged to receive Communion on the hand, but you will not be refused Communion if you desire to receive on the tongue.
 We realize this may take time, and we appreciate your patience. We are not in a rush, so please don't feel that you have to be, either.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

READING I: ACTS 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 98:1-4

R. Alleluia.

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
His right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm.

R. Alleluia.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.
He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.

R. Alleluia.

All the ends of the earth have seen
the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise.

R. Alleluia.

READING II: 1 JN 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

GOSPEL: JN 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

SIN BLINDS

Knowing that sin, in whatever form, blurs our ability to "see" both in the natural order as well as the spiritual is crucial. We inherit the effects of Original Sin, causing our vision of spiritual realities to become darkened, which compromises our ability to perceive with clarity God's ways and His plan for us.

Jesus said, "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Being "pure in heart" means seeing with clarity. The lack of clarity caused by sin leads to selfishness and involves our turning inward, which decreases our openness to see and hear God. We can't "free ourselves" from sin but Jesus has obtained this power for us through His death and Resurrection. We receive this grace of freedom initially through Baptism. Jesus spoke with Nicodemus about this Sacrament and its importance for providing the gift of faith, with the corresponding spiritual eyes to see: "Truly, I say to you, unless one is born anew, he cannot see the Kingdom of God." (John 3:3) Faith opens our eyes to God and the spiritual realm, and seeing with new eyes, we recognize His unconditional love for us and His plan that will bring us into His very Presence.

We will always be dealing with some areas of sinfulness until we get to Heaven. That is why Jesus instituted the Sacrament of Reconciliation, for us to receive the "washing away" of sin and its consequent "blindness" in an ongoing way. The mental picture of taking a shower can be helpful here. Who would say, "I took a shower today and so I don't need another one for 365 days, or even several months." The result would be disastrous! This is why we want to frequent the "spiritual cleansing" available through Confession.

The life of Blessed Matt Talbot portrays the spiritual principle that sin blinds. Matt lived in Ireland and had a first-grade education. At 13 he became a messenger for wine merchants and within a year was an alcoholic. Then, working in a timber yard, he would get paid, go to one of the pubs and give it to the owner, spending the money on alcohol until it was exhausted. The moment of grace came when he was 28. Matt was in one of the pubs with his "friends." His money exhausted, his body craving alcohol, he begged his companions for money but all refused. He went home to his mother and told her he was going to "take the pledge" to not drink. Matt took it for six months, then for a year and then the rest of his life. From that day he never drank again.

The struggle was difficult for him because he was deeply dependent on alcohol. He began to see, he who had never taken his faith or prayer seriously, that he was too weak to be near pubs, but needed to be where he could gain strength. So, before work each morning he spent time with Jesus in church, and after work, he would return for evening vespers. In those early months, he would kneel and repeatedly pray: "Lord, in Your mercy, give me the gift of prayer." Slowly, prayer became easier and he began to be transformed.

Matt also began to see that in order to deny his body alcohol, he could not indulge his body in other ways. He began a strict regime of simple meals and sleeping on the floor. As a result, he became a pleasant and honest worker who would help anyone in need with his simple salary. With only a first-grade education, he began reading the Scriptures and the lives of the Saints. One day, at lunch, a companion saw Matt reading John Henry Newman's "Apologia Pro Vita Sua" and said, "Isn't that difficult?" Matt smiled, "The Lord helps me." This was a man who built his spiritual life on seeking healing and cleansing from the sin that had bound him. This brought him ever greater clarity not only in spiritual understanding and realities, but in natural matters as well, and this eventually made him a saint. Matt Talbot is a great example of how we can overcome spiritual blindness through God's grace of perseverance, resulting in the ability to see Him and His good plan for our lives ever more clearly! An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

PRAYER FOR MOTHERS

Heavenly Father, from the beginning you have chosen to entrust the human person to mothers in a special way. We thank and praise you for the gift of mothers; for their tenderness, care, and compassion, for their intuition and encouragement, for commitment and sacrifice. Bless all mothers this day. Keep, strengthen, and refresh them in your loving care. May they be blessed by our open-hearted love and gratitude. Amen.
