Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This weekend we are celebrating the Feast of Pentecost! This is the actual birthday of the Catholic Church because the apostles receive the breath of God, the Holy Spirit, to go out with great courage to preach the gospel!

My dear brothers and sisters, the Holy Spirit is real and alive. He is so much more than being pictured as a white dove or tongues of fires. He is the third person in the Trinity. He inspires us to be faithful to Jesus Christ and He also inspires us to pray even more.

We as Catholics don't like to talk about the Holy Spirit because we often associate it with raising our hands in prayer or speaking in tongues. It goes so much deeper than this. The Holy Spirit is the breath of God so he brings new life into our relationship with Jesus by inspiring us to holy wholesome thoughts. He gives us encouragement to keep up the fight in being faithful to Jesus when Satan tries to discourage us from believing in God altogether.

The Holy Spirit pricks our conscience to warn us when we are living in sin or about to commit a sin. The Holy Spirit was created out of love between the Father and the Son, thus, He is on the lookout to protect the integrity of our souls and the integrity of the Catholic Church. The Holy Spirit is our great friend because the gifts of the Holy Spirit are very powerful. Our parish can grow even more if we pray every day for the Holy Spirit to unleash these gifts within us. So many graces and blessings are lying dormant because we are too afraid to ask nor do we know how. Let's use these summer months and the future days to fall in love with the Trinity especially the Holy Spirit.

Sincerely,

Fr. Thê

Sharing the Gospel with Children

Sharing the Gospel

The disciples must have missed spending time with Jesus after he went back to heaven. But they knew that the Holy Spirit would always be with them, helping them remember what Jesus taught them. The disciples kept learning about God and kept growing closer to him. The Holy Spirit will help you remember Jesus, too.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you for sending the Holy Spirit.

Something to Draw

Draw a picture of Jesus washing his friends' feet.

Mission for the Week

Pray to the Holy Spirit. Ask him to help you learn more about Jesus. LPiResourceCenter.com

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." — Jn 20:21-23

The students are excited about spring, the end of the school year and summer break. We will celebrate the end of our school year with Mass and 4th Grade Graduation on Friday, May 27, at 1:30 p.m. I find this time of year exciting as well because it gives me the time to reflect on all the wonderful things that have happened with the students. I know my own faith is stronger because I had the opportunity to share experiences with your child and the rest of the students in the school.

Report cards and final bills will be mailed on Friday, June 10, 2022. All final bills for registration and SHARP need to be paid by the end of our fiscal year Thursday, June 30, 2022.

Sacred Heart School is accredited by MNSAA (Minnesota Non-public School Accrediting Association). The school is required to complete an annual report in June and every seven years a self-study to develop a school strategic plan for renewal of accreditation status. The School Strategic Plan and Annual report is available for parishioners to review on the school website www.sacredheartschoolwaseca.com. Copies are also available in the school office upon request.

We recognize the sacrifice parishioners have made to support our Catholic school and again thank you for the gift you have given our children of Sacred Heart. Your continued support and prayers are appreciated.

Yours in Christ,

LeAnn Dahle

GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 5, 2022
Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day. ©LPi

Eucharistic Adoration Notes

Every day, upon altars of the Catholic Church throughout the world, Our Lord is made incarnate (embodied in human form, made manifest or comprehensible) in the Most Holy Eucharist. We've heard this many times. "Jesus is truly present in the Eucharist." How often do we let this great gift pass us by? Sometimes we nod in affirmation or in our minds say, "sure" and continue as if nothing has affected us? Jesus came to show you how real He is by entering into the grime and grit, the normal every day of your life. He shows up more faithfully than any other person. Do we grasp the depth of Jesus' "realness?" that He is with us in our day to day normal? As God has promised, Christ offers himself as infinite love for us so then we can share that love every day on this earth. You can find a directory of churches and chapels throughout the country having adoration at http://therealpresence.org/chap_lfr.htm Whenever you have an hour to spare for Jesus and for yourself, come to our chapel with thanks and prayer, sign up to sub on the list of dates/times needed, or become a regular adorer for a specific day/time each week. Many vacant hours are available this summer. Hear the prompting of the Holy Spirit. Dwell in His Presence. Receive His Mercy. Trust and Know His Love.
