"Committed for Life, Service & Sacrament"

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." - Lk 10:41-42

El Señor le respondió: "Marta, Marta, muchas cosas te preocupan y te inquietan, siendo así que una sola es necesaria. María escogió la mejor parte y nadie se la quitará". - Lc 10, 41-42

Welcome Father Marreddy Pothireddy he will be serving Masses on the weekend of July 16-17

I am Fr. Marreddy Pothireddy, a missionary Priest from Diocese of Kadapa, India, will be in your Parish this weekend July 16/17 to ask for help in our efforts to give basic education to the poor children in our diocese. Diocese of Kadapa has 90,000 faithful, 80 parishes with 400 mission stations with 10,000 Catholic children living in the midst of people of other religions. As they hail from the untouchable communities, having no assets to rely on, face double discrimination. Due to inequality and poverty, they live as daily laborers, struggling for survival with less than three dollars a day. Children are taken for work along with adults for work in order to add to the family income. Many do not get chance to go to school for basic education as they remain child workers, the others drop out early due to misery at home. The Diocese of Kadapa is making special efforts to educate these children to give better future. Any help to buy books, uniform, to pay school fees, midday meal will help continue schooling. Please be as generous as you can. Your kind support goes long way in the life of our children

We have 150 priests working in these missions to minister Holy Sacraments and Mass but they find very difficult to reach out in time due to lack of transportation so I request you please consider to help us to buy motor bike for our priest to continue their good work to bring all people to Christ. Thanks. Blessings!

Fr. Marreddy.

Sharing the Gospel with Children

Sharing the Gospel

When company came, Martha hurried to get the house ready. She made sure the food was cooked. She set the table with cups, dishes, and silverware. She put clean sheets on the beds. She emptied the trash. Mary didn't worry about all that. She stopped everything to listen to her visitor. If your house is neat all the time, you can relax and talk with your guests. Then you can cook dinner together.

Prayer

Lord, I want to stop working to listen to my visitors.

Something to Draw

Draw pictures of Martha mopping the floors while Mary is listening to Jesus.

Mission for the Week

I will sit on the front doorstep and talk with Jesus every morning.

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." — Lk 10:38-40

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER

Adoration News

Everyone has so much to do every day! Our lives are filled with many "Martha" things we lovingly do for our families and others. Jesus instructed us to also do some "Mary" things...take or make some time to be with Him, to know Him more, love Him more, and follow His Word. Can we squeeze in some time to be in His Presence? Many of our fellow parishioners have been drawn in faith for many years to make adoration a priority for their lives. Jesus is there to love and welcome you with mercy, grace, strength and peace! On January 26, 2021, Pope Francis ordered the inscription of Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus into the General Roman Calendar, to replace the existing celebration of Saint Martha alone. Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus are celebrated each year as an Obligatory Memorial on July 29.

We honor Mary as Mother of Divine Grace on July 23. Mary Most Holy is the one who brings the Grace that is, Her son Jesus. Mary is the Queen of all graces. She is the one who, interceding for us with God ("as Our Advocate") makes sure that He grants us all grace.

Come to the adoration chapel to pray to our Mother of Divine Grace. The simple and repeated prayers of the Rosary allow us to really focus on what Jesus did and said. The Rosary provides us with a time and place to connect with Our Lord and Savior. Feel free to take one of the beautiful Rosaries available in the chapel, made by a group of our parishioners, and pray. Hundreds of thousands of Rosaries have been sent around the world by this group! Amen!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 17, 2022
16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

St. Bridget of Sweden | July 23
 Saint Bridget or Birgitta was born in 1303, the daughter of Birger Petersson, governor of Uppland and his wife Ingeborg Bengtsdotter. She was married to Ulf Gudmarsson, who became governor of the province of Nericia. They had eight children, all of whom survived past infancy which was rare for the 12th century. One of their daughters would become St. Catherine of Sweden.

Saint Bridget was hailed as a mystic and her visions, which began in her early childhood when she had visions of Christ Crucified, made her somewhat of a Middle Ages celebrity. Her vision of the Nativity of Jesus even influenced the art of the Nativity through the Baroque era! She is said to have predicted the Vatican State. Saint Bridget’s Revelations, which she dictated to Peter Olafsson, the prior at the Cistercian monastery of Alvastra near which she retired after her husband’s death in 1344, were published in 1492. They have since been published in many languages and can still be purchased today. Some of her most profound visions regarded the founding of a new religious order which would be primarily for women, ruled by an abbess, but with a separate house for monks who would serve as order chaplains. Her visions detailed everything from the abbey church to the clothing that would be adopted as the nun’s habit, and how the order would be ruled. King Magnus II of Sweden granted Bridget land and buildings. The order, called the Bridgettines or the Order of the Most Holy Savior was approved by Pope Urban V in 1370. Saint Bridget was canonized in 1391 by Pope Boniface IX and in 1999 Pope John Paul II named her one of the Patron Saints of Europe.
