MY GOOD PEOPLE,

Our thanks to Fr. Michael Creagan, pastor of St. Joseph Church in West St. Paul, who sent us a letter outlining the history of Msgr. Joseph Guillot, the last French Missionary in our Archdiocese. I took from that document the following information concerning our Parish.

Msgr. Joseph Guillot once served as pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish. The original missionaries came from the area of France near Bellay and Ars. He said his mother brought him to Ars where a skinny priest (St. John Vianney) exited the confessional. The young Joseph Guillot blurted out "mommy why don't they feed their priest?". St. John Vianney heard the comment, was amused and came over and greeted Joseph and his mother. Our parish has a unique connection with a pastor who actually met the patron saint for parish priests!

Msgr. Joseph Marie Guillot was Born February 7, 1855 in France. He was the youngest of 10 children. He was ordained on September 1, 1878. He taught at a seminary for five years, until 1883 when he entered the Diocese of St. Paul April 21st. His first Pastorate was at Immaculate Conception, Watertown (Carver County) from 1883-1884. From Immaculate Conception parish he was assigned to St. Mary, Waverly (Wright County) 1884-1896. (The twin-spired brick church in Waverly was constructed under the leadership of Fr. Guillot in 1892.) Msgr. Guillot died January 26, 1953 at the age of 97.

Saint John Vianney was a French Catholic priest who is the patron Saint of parish priests. He is often referred to as the 'Cure' of Ars (the parish priest of Ars), who is known worldwide for his priestly and pastoral work in his parish in Ars, France, because of the radical spiritual transformation of the community and its surroundings. His feast day is August 4th.

Included in this week's bulletin is our annual Financial Report. In spite of the pandemic, your support has enabled us to have an incredible year. Thank you!

~ Fr. Jim
