ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday, May 15th

We pray for our Armed Forces as they serve our country around the world right now. Give them the endurance and may they know that their service is appreciated by us. We thank you, Lord, for the bravery of these men and women as part of your protection for us. We look forward to a day when this protection is no longer necessary as we live in perfect peace with you for eternity, In Your mighty name, AMEN

Question of the Week

How am I being called to sacrifice my own priorities in order to serve others?

Message of the Week

"I have called you friends." Authentic friendship can seem hard to come by these days, especially in our transient society. We move away from family, change jobs, switch parishes, and end up in entirely new places with entirely new people. When we look for new friends, we all have different qualities we're looking for. While we may think of certain standards of behavior necessary to be a "good" friend, we would hardly refer to them as rules or "commandments."

In fact, if a friendship or romantic relationship-new or old-becomes characterized by imposed obligations, we would rightly be suspicious. Friendships, we understand, ought to be characterized by freedom. We love the person, even sacrifice for them at times because, within ourselves, we want to maintain the friendship. So why does Jesus use the language of command as he calls the Apostles his friends? "You are my friends if you do what I command you."

Jesus is radically transforming the concept of commandment. In the Jewish heritage of the Apostles, they would hear the word "command" and immediately think of the strict Levitical law and distance from God. In introducing the language of friendship, Jesus ties "commandment" to inner freedom of heart. The disciples have this freedom precisely because they know "what [the] Master is doing." Jesus has invited his followers into intimate friendship all along. He shares openly with them. He has patience with their flaws. He isn't scandalized by their failures. He celebrates their successes. We, too, have been called by love and invited into a relationship with Jesus. It is you and I that Jesus chooses and appoints. He does so personally, not from a distant mountain shrouded in clouds. This "new commandment" to "love one another" is received around the shared table in the breaking of the bread.

"If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love. I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete." -- Jn 15:10-11

Happy Mother's Day

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love -- mirrored in our mother's willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life -- that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love. Let us pray for each of them.

*God our heavenly Father,
you give to each the ability to share
your generative love.*

*Bless those women in our lives
who mirror your love*

and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.

Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a Mother's love.

*May our life-giving God continue to bless them
and show them his unfailing love,*

*We ask this through Jesus,
God's Son and our brother,*

AMEN!!
