Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and
The Immaculate Heart of Mary

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we ask you to bless our homes, our community, our parish, our country and our world. Look with favor on Your people who call upon You with devotion to Your Most Sacred Heart and that of Your Mother's. Have pity on us in our weaknesses, help us to offend You no longer by our sins, give us the courage we need to live our faith, and restore peace in our families. We offer our own hearts to You, that You may have complete sovereignty over them. We offer our wills to You, that we may surrender our lives into Your keeping. Do with us what You will. May your Sacred Heart guide and protect us. May the Immaculate Heart of Mary purify our love and make us fit for Your Kingdom. Long live the Sacred Heart and the Immaculate Heart forever.

AMEN!!!

Message of the Week

"They all ate and were satisfied." Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine.

Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material!

And how good God is for entering into these selfsame realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the kingdom of God," for "heal[ing] those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

Observances for the Week of June 6th

- Monday: Tenth Week in Ordinary Time begins
- Wednesday: Memorial of St. Ephrem
- Friday: Solemnity of the Most Sacred of Jesus
- Saturday: Memorial of the Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets. - Lk 9:16-17
