From Fr. Ellis

Congratulations to Bishop Cozzens!

On Monday, the Vatican announced that Pope Francis has appointed our own Bishop Andrew Cozzens as the new bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, Minnesota. Bishop Cozzens was ordained a bishop in 2013 and has served as auxiliary bishop of our archdiocese ever since. In that role, he has had a particular focus on Catholic schools, Latino ministry, evangelization, marriage and family life—and of course has also helped our local church navigate the clergy abuse crisis and bankruptcy. Bishop Cozzens believes that God's Providence has prepared him through these experiences and others to serve in Crookston. The diocese in the northwest part of the state has been through its own challenges recently, including the investigation and eventual resignation of their previous bishop over his handling of cases of clergy abuse and misconduct. Bishop Cozzens will serve as the eighth bishop of the diocese when he is installed on Monday, December 6 at 1 pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Crookston. Before that, he will celebrate a Mass of thanksgiving for his time here in the Twin Cities; it is scheduled for Sunday, November 28 at noon at the Cathedral of St. Paul, with a reception to follow.

Before being ordained to the episcopacy, Bishop Cozzens served as parochial vicar at the Cathedral of St. Paul as well as at Divine Mercy in Faribault. He then completed his doctorate in theology and began teaching at the Saint Paul Seminary. There he taught sacramental theology, and I had him for several classes. They were some of the best classes I had! From them, it became evident to me that Bishop Cozzens is a man of great intelligence, but also possesses a pastoral heart, a deep prayer life, and love for Jesus. I am happy for the Diocese of Crookston, and at the same time sad to see him leave the Twin Cities. Please join me in praying for him and for his new diocese.

World Mission Sunday

Each year at the end of October, the universal Church observes World Mission Sunday. Collections taken up this weekend support clergy and laity alike who are bringing the Good News of Jesus to all corners of the globe, but particularly in Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Pacific Islands. We will have envelopes available this weekend if you would like to contribute in support of this work. Those donations are used by the Vatican to assist over 1,000 mission dioceses. Besides supporting their efforts financially, this Sunday reminds us that we have all been entrusted with the responsibility of spreading the Good News of Jesus—or, as we put it in our own mission, to draw near to Jesus through Mary.

OLP Book Discussion

OLP Book Discussions Are “Back in Business”

You're invited to join in a discussion on Thomas Merton's classic, The Seven Story Mountain.

We will meet to discuss via Zoom on Thursday, December 2 at 7 PM.

“Without a life of the spirit,” Thomas Merton said, “our whole existence becomes unsubstantial and illusory.”

This is his tale of “lost and found,” ultimately resulting in his entry into a Trappist monastery - “the four walls of my new freedom,” he stated.

Register for the discussion at olpmn.org/events.

Liturgy & Music

Liturgical Ministry Conflicts Past Due

All Liturgical Ministers- please be sure to submit any conflicts you have for the next schedule today.

You can enter them through Ministry Scheduler or email epike@olpmn.org if you have any problems with the scheduling system.

Volunteer opportunity at Mass!

Are you interested in becoming an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (Eucharistic Minister)?

All are welcome to attend a training and information session on Monday, October 25 at 7 pm.

Visit olpmn.org/events to register.

All Saints Vespers

Although it is not obligatory to attend Mass on the Solemnity of All Saints due to its proximity to Sunday, we will still mark the Solemnity with Vespers, also known as evening prayer, on Monday, November 1 at 7 pm.

Join us in prayer with contemplative music and scripture reading.

Remembrance Mass

Are you mourning the loss of a loved one who passed away this year?

Find comfort and hope at our Remembrance Mass, on Monday, November 5 at 7 pm, where we will honor those we have lost this year.

If you have a loved one who has passed away in the last year visit olpmn.org/events to submit their name to be commemorated in a special way.

Youth & Young Adult Ministry

Join Us for a Young Adult Gathering!

All young adults are invited to attend Vespers for the Solemnity of All Saints at Our Lady of Peace on Monday, November 1 at 7 pm.

After Vespers, we will meet in Pates Hall to enjoy refreshments and plan future young adult events.

According to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, a young adult is anyone who is 18-39 years old.

However, we will not check IDs at the door!

Calling all high school students!

All high school students and their parents are invited to a gathering on Sunday, November 14 at 7 pm in Pates Hall.

We will eat snacks, play games, and plan high school youth group activities for the year.

Confirmation Catechists Needed!

Consider becoming a Confirmation Catechist or High School Youth Ministry Volunteer.

Contact Jocelyn Johnson (jjohnson@olpmn.org) for more information.

Help Out at the Pumpkin Patch

We still need you at the Pumpkin Patch

We had an amazing first two weeks at the Pumpkin Patch!

We overtook last year's total sales in the FIRST SIX DAYS of this year's patch!

Even though the Pumpkin Patch is in its final week, it tends to be among the busiest times for sales.

We are always a little thin on volunteers at the end of the Pumpkin Patch and this year is no different.

We need your help!

The money we make at the Pumpkin Patch stays here at OLP aiding the religious education of students at both the church and school.

Visit olpmn.org/events to sign up for a 2-hour block any time this week and help us close out this year's Pumpkin Patch strongly.
