Fr. Zach's Muzings

Hello St. James!

This weekend we celebrate Palm Sunday, an ancient celebration of the Church that always occurs on the Sunday preceding Easter, signaling the beginning of Holy Week and the high holy days of the year. You are probably familiar with the Gospel accounts of Jesus's triumphant entry into Jerusalem riding on a donkey as people laid their cloaks and branches down before Him proclaiming, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" (Matthew 21:9). It is precisely this scene that the early Christians, upon the legalization of freedom of worship within the Roman Empire by Constantine in 313 AD, reenacted on that first Sunday before Easter, processing down the Mount of Olives carrying olive branches in their hands and singing Hosanna as they entered the Holy City.

Now, obviously, olive trees are quite different from palm trees, so where do the palms come from? This particular tradition appears to have originated in the Frankish Kingdom, which encompassed much of France, northern Spain, and northern Italy, and references to the specifics of the Palm Sunday liturgy can be found in monastery writings as early as the 8th century. This liturgy eventually came to, and was approved by, Rome, and it is from the Roman liturgical prayers that the prayers we say this weekend are taken. In those days, palms would be blessed during a Mass celebrated outside the Roman walls, and then taken in procession to St. Peter's (or before its construction, St. John Lateran), where a second Mass would be celebrated. Now, it takes place within a single Mass, yet the structure of the blessing of the palms themselves can be seen to mirror the Mass still.

If you were to travel around the world on this particular Sunday, you would note that different types of plants are used in different places. The name of this Sunday is also different depending on where you are. Here in the United States, universally, palms are used, and it is "Palm Sunday". In parts of England, willow branches are used, and it is "Willow Sunday". In Spain and Portugal, a whole variety of plant branches are used, leading to the name Domingo de Ramos meaning Branch Sunday in both Spanish and Portuguese.

Regardless of how one celebrates this day, we all commemorate together Christ's entry into Jerusalem, and mark the beginning of Holy Week. As we enter into these holiest of days, we unite our prayers with the Church throughout the world, that we each may encounter Jesus in a new and personal way as we walk alongside Him from the Last Supper to the Cross to the empty tomb.

In Christ,

Fr. Zach

Gospel Question of the Week

Gospel: Luke 22:14-23:56

Key Passage: "When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, and the other on his left. Then Jesus said, 'Father, forgive them for they know not what they do.'" *Luke 23:33-34)

Question for Adults: In your own words, what does the suffering and death of Christ mean to you?

Question for Youth: How can you spend time with each member of your family this week in a way that will communicate your love for them?

Question for Children: In your own words, what does the suffering and death of Christ mean to you?

P.R.E. News

Grades K-7 meet in their classrooms at 6:00 p.m. for short classes. At 6:45, everyone will meet in church for the Living Stations of the Cross featuring our Confirmation students.

I encourage our families to check the parish websites or bulletins for the Holy Week schedules. The Masses of Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday along with the Good Friday Liturgy are so meaningful, and they form us in our Catholic faith. Blessed Holy Week! (Jo Kusek, 402-572-0369)

P.R.E. Living Stations of the Cross – Wednesday, April 13

The Confirmation class from the P.R.E. program will be presenting the Living Stations of the Cross on Wednesday, April 13 at 6:45 p.m. in St. James Church. In the past, it was a tradition for many parishioners from St. James and St. Elizabeth Ann Seton to attend this event. All are welcome! We are pleased to present this prayer during Holy Week. (Jo Kusek, 402-572-0369)

Preferential Option for the Poor

Prayer Before Meals Lord Jesus Christ, may our Lenten fasting turn us toward all our brothers and sisters who are in need. Bless this table, our good food, and ourselves. Send us in these last days of Lent with good cheer, and bring us to the fullness of your Passover, now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Faith Reflections

Since 1980, Fr. Raniero Cantalamessa, OFM CAP has been the preacher to the papal household. Once every year, the world gets to hear him preach. Instead of the reigning pope, Fr. Cantalamessa offers the homily for the Liturgy of Good Friday in St. Peter's Basilica. I would recommend watching Good Friday services from Rome on EWTN. It is usually shown twice – once in real time, and then as an encore. (Check www.ewtn.com for the Holy Week schedule)

One year Fr. Cantalamessa used the words of Pontius Pilate, "Behold the man!" or more dramatically in Latin, "Ecce Homo". Every time Christ's mystical body suffers in the world, let us proclaim "Ecce Homo", "Behold the man", "Behold Christ".

Philosopher Blaise Pascal wrote, "Christ will be in agony until the end of the world; we must not sleep during this time." Let us not be indifferent to the suffering of Christ in the world.....refugees, victims of war, victims of abortion, victims of crime, those persecuted for their faith, the poor, the imprisoned, the unemployed, the sick, the elderly, the ones who are alone in any way.

Year ago, I met a woman who was very much an advocate of Liberation Theology. She told me about a movie with two men who were unjustly imprisoned in a Central American country. From their single jail cells, they could see look out and see executions. As one of the men was about to die, his friend called out, "I see you! I see you!"

How important it is to see the injustices of the world and not to leave our brothers and sisters alone. On the day of the greatest injustice the world has ever or will ever know, Blessed Mother Mary was below the cross of her Son. Scripture does not record it, but what were her words? Perhaps she also cried out in sorrow and compassion, "I see you! I see you! You are not alone!"

St. James shares an account with St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Go to formed.org, indicate that you are "with a parish," and then search for St. Elizabeth Ann Seton. Scroll through the choices to select the one in Omaha before clicking next and then provide your name and email. Enjoy numerous Christ-centered podcasts, movies, YouTube video and much, much more!

"There will be no That Man is You this week because of the Easter holiday. Rejoice, be glad and sleep in!"

The novena to Divine Mercy begins on Good Friday, April 15th (prayed daily for 9 days preceding Divine Mercy Sunday). There are copies of this novena located in the back of the church.

Stewardship Scripture Reflections

April 10, 2022 | Palm Sunday

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (LUKE 22:34)

How many times have you heard someone make a disparaging comment about God or our Catholic faith? How did you react? Do you remain quiet not to cause a disturbance? Or, because you don't want people to think negatively about you? Or, because you don't think you know enough about the Catholic faith? Pray for the courage to speak up and enter into a respectful dialogue when the opportunity arises. Joyfully share your faith with others.

FORGIVENESS OF SINS AND I LOOK FORWARD TO THE RESURRECTION OF THE DEAD AND LIFE OF THE WORLD TO COME. AMEN.

"I WAS TIRED OF LIVING WITH MY FIBROMYALGIA PAIN"

Fibromyalgia has been difficult to treat and even more difficult to understand-UNTIL NOW! Acupuncturist Cory provides patients with much needed relief from Fibro symptoms

If you're suffering from Fibromyalgia you understand this sentiment all too well. Elyse K. found herself at a turning point when she noticed her diagnosis had begun to take a toll on her marriage.

"I was angry all the time because of all the things I couldn't do anymore because of Fibromyalgia. The anger turned to depression which affected everyone around me-especially my husband. It made our lives miserable."

Fibromyalgia affects the entire body. To make things more complicated, it affects everyone's body differently and these effects can change on a daily basis. Some days you are plagued with wide-spread muscle pain and fatigue and other days it's a headache and heightened sensitivity to touch.

"I could barely stand to have the light weight of bedsheets touching me, much less a hug from my husband," explains Elyse.

That is what it's like to suffer from Fibromyalgia. Symptoms make life incredibly difficult and mundane, daily tasks nearly impossible.

Too often, these symptoms are made worse when practitioners find it difficult to understand, much less treat. Fibromyalgia is characterized by widespread pain in muscles and tissues rather than inflammation.

Primary care doctors typically prescribe dietary changes, pain liniments, and prescription medications to the point where your life is ruled by a difficult regimen trying to reduce flare ups.

Elyse put it this way,
"My life was no longer my own."

Eventually, Elyse did her own research and learned that Acupuncture can improve the quality of life in Fibro patients. Determined to find the best in the business, she discovered 4 Paths Acupuncture led by Acupuncturist Cory Nyenhuis.

Cory Nyenhuis has been successfully treating difficult to manage, chronic pain cases for 10 years.

He uses the time tested science of Acupuncture and integrates it with modern medical advancements that encourage healing and recovery. Acupuncture is a form of Chinese medicine that is commonly used to reduce various forms of pain.

Acupuncture works by reducing inflammation, stimulating the release of endorphins, and offers much needed, effective symptom relief from Fibromyalgia.

Then Acupuncturist Nyenhuis skillfully layers other non-invasive therapies like ATP Resonance BioTherapy™ and O3

Regenerative Therapy™ for amplified, long-lasting results.

"I feel like a new person. My husband comes with me to my appointments. He spends most of it thanking Acupuncturist Cory for giving him back the woman he married. And for the first time in years one of my neighbors told me I looked good! It's a miracle he treated my Fibro, I don't know how else to explain it!"

If you're looking for a doctor and a practice who not only understand your diagnosis but have a proven solution for chronic pain, look no further than 4 Paths Acupuncture.

Elyse describes 4 Paths Acupuncture almost as enthusiastically as she does their treatments, "I love it here!"

Acupuncturist Cory's success stories can be found on his website 4PathsAcu.com and on Facebook.

4 Paths Acupuncture is now accepting new patients, but only for a limited time. In an effort to protect his patients, both current and future, he has made the difficult decision to limit the number of patients seen in the clinic. Only 10 new Fibromyalgia patients will be accepted before March 20, 2022 so call 402-515-2412 now to schedule a consultation.
