15th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:30b-31, 33

Journey of Faith

Journey of Faith Plan:

To St. Cecilia Parishioners & St. Margaret Mary Parishioners
From Fr. Michael Grewe & Fr. Ralph O'Donnell

Archdiocesan Mission:

One Church. Encountering Jesus. Equipping Disciples. Living Mercy.

Missional Community:

An outward looking group of disciples, under the care of a pastor, sent by Jesus to make disciples.

Question to Remember:

How does what we do address our mission of bringing people to Christ?

Teams from both parishes met June 15 for a second time to work on the partnership plan.

The second goal of this team is to “assess how various elements of life in each parish is oriented on the mission today, and to begin to identify opportunities for growth.”

Initial discussion topics included “mission-oriented parish religious education” and “mission-oriented Catholic schools.” Members evaluated the percentage of consistent Mass attendance and engagement in parish life for the following groups: school children/parents, parish religious education children/parents, home-schooled children/parents, high school students, young adults, and current and former RCIA participants.

The discussion included addressing the fact that not all our school students/parents are Catholic. Each school offers Masses to their students during the week.

Reasons that the team generated for why those families who are active Mass attendees are their Catholic values, family tradition, generations of families remaining in the parish geographic area. A definite agreement from the team members about what is key to getting our children/teens to Mass regularly is addressing their parents, including them in faith education and sacramental preparation, building up their faith and devotion, and encouraging involvement. Two other groups to address for this situation are teachers and coaches.

The goal of the team’s study of engagement and growth of Mass attendance and parish involvement is to determine if the ministries offered by the parishes “equip disciples, create a culture of evangelization, mercy, and unity” and determine what we can do together to address these concerns. They are compiling a list of ministries from each parish that will show what we each offer, what neither offers, and what one offers that can be shared with the other.

To assist in the study of what each parish currently offers, team members/parish staff will gather information on the following: mission-oriented liturgies, collaborative leadership, the path of discipleship, culture of generosity, adult faith formation, parish children’s faith formation, Catholic school faith formation, youth ministry, sacramental preparation, mission-oriented finances, and mission-oriented facilities. Sharon Doran and Sheila Graham will coordinate the information gathering and compile the results into a team document.

Another team meeting is set for July 13.
