Worldwide Marriage Encounter

“Love needs time and space; everything else is secondary. Time is needed to talk things over, to embrace leisurely, to share plans, to listen to one other and gaze in each other's eyes, to appreciate one another and to build a stronger relationship.

Sometimes the frenetic pace of our society and the pressures of the workplace create problems. At other times, the problem is the lack of quality time together, sharing the same room without one even noticing the other.” As Pope Francis states living together is an art and can be a beautiful journey. Marriage can be challenging with family, work, finances, kids, busy schedules and all that life offers. Losing focus on what is important in life is easy.

A Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend experience focuses on what's important in your marriage and provides the tools to live a beautiful journey together.

Healing Conference:
Bringing the Gift of God's Mercy to the World!

Dr. Mary Healy through the generous donation of a donor presents this free Healing Conference! Join us Saturday, July 16, 2022 at Mary Mother of the Church Parish in La Crosse for this Healing Conference: Bringing the Gift of God's Mercy to the World! featuring Dr. Mary Healy. Dr. Healy is professor of Sacred Scripture at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit, an international speaker and author. Most importantly, Mary speaks at a level that everyone can understand. All are welcome. This Healing Conference is hosted by Living Water! Prayer Community. For questions, contact Deacon Kent Jacobson at livingwaterprayercommunity@gmail.com. When we, or a family member or friend, are faced with an injury or illness, physical or emotional, our thoughts turn to God in prayer for healing. We want to believe that God will grant healing, but we wonder. And if we as Catholics have doubts, what does this mean to a hurting world, also in need of healing? Dr. Mary Healy will answer such questions as:

- Is Jesus still healing people today?
- Are these healings real and do they last?
- How do we know if God wants us to pray for healing?
- Isn't God asking us to endure suffering and hardships instead of asking for healing?
- How can we pray for healing?
- Can my broken heart be healed as well as my body?

Note: Meals will not be provided, but coffee, water and snacks will be available. If you bring your own lunch, perhaps bring some to share. A list of nearby eateries will be located at the information table.

Sessions start at 8:30am - 3:15pm with a healing service at 6:30pm.

No registration, No charge! Just come... Jesus is calling!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

~ Encouraging deeper understanding of Scripture ~

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

A warm welcome to Gerard Wolfe as Head of Maintenance Works at School and Parish.

Hi, my name is Gerard Wolfe. My family and I have been Immaculate Conception parishioners for 26 years. We have six grown sons and nine grandchildren. I enjoy spending time with the grandkids, family and many outdoor activities. Over the years I have been involved with PREP, Choir and Marriage Preparation for the engaged couples. I have 30+ years' experience in maintenance and I'm grateful for this opportunity to be able to serve the Parish in this new capacity.

DEACON'S BENCH

Moving from the Death of Roe v. Wade to a Culture of Life

Pro-Life Christians are celebrating the Supreme Court's overturning of Roe v. Wade, the 1973 decision that legalized abortion nation-wide. In his Press release Bishop Callahan stated that "We welcome today's ruling by the Supreme Court, as we continue to proclaim a vision for our society that upholds the truth that every human life is sacred and inviolable—a society in which the legal protection of human life is joined to profound care for mothers and their children."

As the Bishop's letter makes clear, the Pro-life movement in general and the Church in particular, cannot rest on their laurels following this Court's decision, since the work of transforming our culture is an on-going, indeed, never-ending, political, moral, and spiritual struggle.

There remains much work to be done. The Bishop notes that our Catholic parishes need to be "places of welcome for women facing problem pregnancies"; that the Church must continue its assistance to Pregnancy Support Services and Adoption Services; and must continue to provide a "healing ministry to those wounded by the trauma of abortion."

The Bishop's Press Release concludes with a quote from Pope Francis:

[E]very human life, unique and unrepeatable, has value in and of itself.... This must always be proclaimed anew with the courage of the Word and the courage of actions. It calls us to solidarity and fraternal love for the great human family and for each of its members.

Pope Francis made the above remarks on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the release of the encyclical, Evangelium Vitae ("The Gospel of Life"), written by Pope Saint John Paul II in 1995. That Encyclical, John Paul II wrote, is "meant to be a precise and vigorous reaffirmation of the value of human life and its inviolability, and at the same time a pressing appeal addressed to each and every person, in the name of God: respect, protect, love and serve life, every human life! Only in this direction will you find justice, development, true freedom, peace and happiness!" (5) [Emphasis in the original].

John Paul warned that in the modern age we find ourselves part of "a veritable 'culture of death.'" (12).

Such a culture has arisen as a result of "the eclipse of the sense of God and of man....: when the sense of God is lost, there is also a tendency to lose the sense of man, of his dignity and his life; in turn, the systematic violation of the moral law, especially in the serious matter of respect for human life and its dignity, produces a kind of progressive darkening of the capacity to discern God's living and saving presence" (21).

We Christians, then, John Paul wrote, should be "fully aware that we are facing an enormous and dramatic clash between good and evil, death and life, the 'culture of death' and the 'culture of life.' We all share in [this culture], with the inescapable responsibility of choosing to be unconditionally pro-life" (28).

At Immaculate Conception Parish, how can we most fittingly celebrate the death of Roe v. Wade? The political battle has now been returned to the states. We can work for the election of politicians in the State legislature and in the Governor's office who will pass and enforce laws to protect unborn life and care for vulnerable women and families. We can step up our funding of pro-life organizations, such as the Eau Claire County Chapter of Wisconsin Right to Life; we can increase our support of Pregnancy Care Centers, such as the Apple Pregnancy Care Center here in Eau Claire. We can continue to be personally welcoming and supportive of women facing problematic pregnancies.

Finally, just as Jesus sent out the seventy-two disciples to proclaim to their world that "the Kingdom of God is at hand for you" (Luke 10:9), as we read in today's Gospel, so we too are called to spread among our community the Good News of the Gospel of Life. As Pope John Paul II wrote in Evangelium Vitae, "We are the people of life because God, in His unconditional love, has given us the Gospel of life and by this same Gospel we have been transformed and saved.... We have become a people for life and we are called to act accordingly" (79).

So, by all means, let us celebrate the death of Roe v. Wade, but let us also make our celebration a building, through word, prayer, and action, of a Culture of Life.
