RECONCILING, FORGIVING, AND HEALING

As Christians, the season of Easter is a time to celebrate new life. We recognize a call to embrace reconciling, forgiving and healing love—in our own hearts and in our interactions with others. This love transforms our individual lives, as well as our community and society.

This is our call, yet we fall short: as individuals and as a community, we fail.

One of the ways our failure is manifested is racial injustice. The shocking public murder of George Floyd focused a light on Minnesota, exposing the realities of racial inequity so often ignored or hidden. National and international media told the story:

- While Minnesota is often ranked one of the best places to live, it has some of the highest racial disparities in the nation: income inequality, education achievement, poverty rate, home ownership, unemployment and incarceration rates—all tragic gaps between white and black Minnesotans. (NPR, June 2, 2020)

The Basilica of Saint Mary*

These facts represent systems that are complicated. But this Easter, we have another story to hear—a story of racial injustice right here at The Basilica. Just as ignored and hidden, it eats away at the dignity of our brothers and sisters.

A few days after Easter I received a call from a Basilica parishioner who is a black woman. She shared a painful experience she had on Easter Sunday. She gave me permission to share it, as it is an important teachable moment—a chance to shine the light on racial realities within our own Basilica community.

- With an opportunity to celebrate Easter Sunday Liturgy in-person, our sister followed pandemic protocols and pre-registered. Sitting in her assigned seat, she was quietly praying before the Liturgy began—excited to be at The Basilica for the first time in over a

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

year. An usher came down the aisle and proceeded to seat a white woman in the same pew—socially distanced. The white woman looked at the black woman, and refused to sit down. She demanded a different seat. This white woman would not sit near the black woman.

The parishioner who shared this experience was hurt, disappointed, and angry. This was not The Basilica she longed for. Yet, this is not an isolated experience. After many conversations with people of color in our Basilica community, I have come to learn that many have personal stories of being called out, kept out, excluded or omitted at The Basilica, at some point. While they all share their love for The Basilica and the Basilica community, this is their reality.

It is important for us—especially those of us who are white Basilica parishioners—to know these experiences happen. They are not just in the past, not just isolated, not just happening “out there.”

When we hear these stories, we get uncomfortable. Let us embrace this discomfort, acknowledge the hurt and pain, and work together so we can always respond with compassion and clarity, when faced with racial injustice. Let us be Easter people; people of reconciling, forgiving and healing love

Look for ways to get involved in The Basilica Equity, Diversity and Inclusivity initiative. Together, we will work to eliminate racism within the parish and the broader community—choosing not to be neutral in the face of injustice. Contact jandersen@mary.org for ways to get involved or for more information.

For more information visit mary.org/edi.

COMMON GOOD

WALKING THE ROAD

So much of life means journeying with one another, through the transitions, joys, and inevitable losses that living brings us.

Rarely do we ever have the experience of deep listening by another as we navigate life. The Basilica's Emmaus Ministers are specifically trained for the ministry of actively listening to another's story without judging or fixing. If you have a desire to be deeply listened to, please email Wendy at wcaduff@mary.org or call her at 612.317.3474. This is a free and confidential ministry of The Basilica.

HENNEPIN CONNECTIONS

Mentoring, Achieving, Growing.

Consider being part of the one-on-one mentoring ministry with Minneapolis College. Partnering with a student who has experienced homelessness and poverty, we are invited to build relationships that bridge cultural divides. Minneapolis College has many students hoping to participant. As we begin to plan for the next school year, we need you to join us! To learn more, contact Carol at 612.747.2983 or Janice at jandersen@mary.org.

LEARNING

ADULT LEARNING

RCIA (RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS)

What would it be like to become a Catholic as an adult? How would one know if it was the right path to take? If you are wondering about our Catholic Tradition, RCIA may be the answer to your search. You and a sponsor, who walks, questions and learns with you, would be invited to join a group of seekers, learning and praying together; discerning the possibility of joining the Catholic Tradition. Sponsors are vital and important ministers in RCIA. If you feel a passion for your faith and a desire to learn, listen and discover with others, consider becoming an RCIA sponsor. For more information about RCIA ministry at The Basilica, contact Cathy at cedwards@mary.org.

MONDAY MORNING GOSPEL GROUP

MONDAYS 10:00AM-NOON

IN PERSON AGAIN BEGINNING JUNE 7

YOUTH MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Are you familiar with Agape Latte? Agape Latte is a national faith storytelling series founded at Boston College by the C21 Center and Campus Ministry. Through the Agape Latte college and high school Partnership Program, Agape Latte has now spread to over 50 campuses nationwide and is now being offered in many parishes. We'd like to offer this storytelling series four times a year as part of our Youth Confirmation program next fall. We are in need of some volunteers who would be willing to lead this coffee house style of faith sharing. For more information, contact Christine Moore at 612.317.3439 or cmoore@mary.org.

BASILICA YES VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Basilica YES is a group of 11th and 12th Grade students that meet to carry out service projects within the parish community and our neighborhoods. Our focus is on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. This is a great way for our young people to engage in our ministries, be actively visible in our community and to acquire service hours needed for resumes and college applications.

We are in need of one or two adults from our parish to help co-lead the group next fall. If you have a passion for service and are willing to share this for an hour a week with our high school students, please contact Christine Moore at cmoore@mary.org or 612.317.3439.
