ANGELS UNAWARES

Even though many of us do not see ourselves as migrants, humans seem to have migration in their blood. Over many millennia, our ancient ancestors migrated from the cradle of humanity in the horn of Africa to every corner of the world. And even today, millions of humans are on the move.

Sometimes migrations happen by choice as people are looking for adventure, are driven by curiosity or are responding to opportunity. Sometimes migrations happen out of necessity as people flee war, persecution, hunger and certain death. Sometimes migrations happen by force as people are removed from their homesteads or homelands and sent into endless misery or even are sold into slavery.

The bible is full of stories of migration. Adam and Eve were forced to leave Paradise. Abraham was told by God to leave his homeland to create a new nation. Joseph was sold into slavery in Egypt. His descendants migrated from Egypt and ended up in the Promised Land after 40 years in the desert. Even the Holy Family fled their home out of fear that Jesus might be killed by Herod.

Pre-existing communities have not always welcomed migrants with open arms. Sometimes weariness and suspicion about these new arrivals was warranted as they used force to stake claim to the land driving those who already lived there out. Just look at what happened in Biblical times; or look at what happened to the First Nations of the Americas when Europeans arrived; or look at what is happening around the world today.

And yet, sometimes the reception of newcomers has been less than welcoming due to xenophobia or fear of strangers. And yet, the Bible makes it very clear that we are to treat strangers with dignity and respect. The letter to the Hebrews 13:2 admonishes Christians to "show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."

As we know, Pope Francis is very concerned with the plight of migrants and refugees. On

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

September 29, 2019, the 105th World Day of Migrants and Refugees Pope Francis dedicated a new monumental sculpture in St. Peter's Square entitled Angels Unawares. Of note is that this sculpture was the first in some 400 years to be added to this iconic square. The sculpture was commissioned by Michael Cardinal Czerny who is the Under-secretary of the Migrants and Refugees Section of the Vatican's Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development.

Angels Unawares was created by Timothy Schmalz, a Canadian Catholic sculptor who has dedicated much of his work to the social teachings of the Catholic Church. Our Homeless Jesus is one of his well known works.

Angels Unawares depicts 140 almost life size people on a boat. They represent migrants from all times and all places. Some of them have experienced migration by choice, others by necessity or force. Among them are a Jewish man fleeing Nazi Germany; an Irish boy fleeing the potato famine; an African family being forced into slavery; a Syrian man escaping the civil war in his home country; a Cherokee man on the trail of tears; a Protestant man escaping the Counter-Reformation. The ship even includes the Holy Family.

As he sculpted each one of these 140 people, the artist used old photographs to represent historic migrants. Some of them he found in the Ellis Island archives. He also had recent immigrants come to his studio to model for this sculpture. Thus each one of the characters on the boat represents an actual person who migrated. In their faces one can see fear or anticipation, relief or dread depending on the reason for the migration.

At the center of this tightly packed boat are two large angel's wings referencing the Letter to the Hebrews admonishment that any one of these sisters and brothers of ours might be "angels unawares."

Catholic University in Washington D.C. was given a second cast of the sculpture. Before its permanent installation this fall, Angels Unawares has been traveling to several cities in the United States at the request of the artist. Minneapolis and the Basilica of Saint Mary will be the last but one stop on its way back to D.C. We will host the sculpture throughout the month of August. It will sit on the plaza in front of The Basilica.

On Sunday, August 1 we will have a welcome ceremony and we will bid goodbye to the sculpture on Thursday, August 26. There will be lots of programming around Angels Unawares between those two dates. More details are to follow.

In the same way as the Homeless Jesus calls us to solidarity with people who are experiencing homelessness, Angels Unawares calls us to solidarity with people who had to leave their homes and found refuge here. As we care for them, we may be caring for angels unawares.

Visit mary.org/angelsunawares for more details.

SMALL GROUP FACILITATORS NEEDED

The Downtown Coalition for Grief Support, of which The Basilica is a partner organization, hosts grief support groups on Saturday mornings and is in need of more small group facilitators. Have you lost a loved one to death? Do you know what it's like to feel that fresh sting of grief? If you have, and are willing to help facilitate conversation for others as they struggle with the loss of a loved one, please let us know. Training is provided by a grief counselor or hospice worker in the art of giving people encouragement to share about their own experience, making sure everyone has a safe space to be heard, etc. Facilitators would commit to serving either the spouse/partner loss group, the family/friend loss group, or the child loss group and the time commitment is flexible. For more information contact Karen Harrison at 612.819.3722.

IMMIGRANT SUPPORT MINISTRY

Since 2015, The Basilica Immigrant Support Ministry has accompanied twelve families as they travel to Minnesota as refugees. Our partnership with Lutheran Social Service has connected us with families from places such as Iraq, Somalia, Ethiopia and Myanmar. We have accompanied ten families seeking asylum. Working with Advocates for Human Rights, we support families from Cameroon, Liberia, Djibouti, Guatemala, Togo and Honduras. If you would like to be part of this ministry, email Janice at jandersen@mary.org.

PRAYER SHAWLS

Our parish community has given away over 1,300 prayer shawls as visible, tangible signs of love and support to those in need. Every person who receives one is prayed for, by name, each time we gather. If you would like to knit or crochet with us in this ministry, or request a shawl for yourself or a loved one, please contact Wendy in the Caring Ministries Office at wcaduff@mary.org or 612.317.3474. Our ministers are knitting at home and meeting virtually on Zoom twice each month.

HOMEBOUND COMMUNION MINISTRY

The Basilica assigns a Homebound Communion minister to visit people on a regular basis, pray with them, and bring the Body of Christ when someone is unable to get to Mass for various reasons. We, as a faith community, want to be there as someone enters a stage of decline, or as they navigate a period of recovery and gradually regain their strength. We are looking to build this ministry with willing volunteers. It would involve a three hour training this summer, when it is safe to gather, that would include the etiquette of making the home visit, confidence in leading the rite of communion, and some key listening skills. Until a date can be determined, we will gather names of those who are interested in serving. Please contact Wendy at wcaduff@mary.org or 612.317.3474.

COMMON GOOD

So much of life means journeying with one another, through the transitions, joys, and inevitable losses that living brings us. Rarely do we ever have the experience of deep listening by another as we navigate life. The Basilica's Emmaus Ministers are specifically trained for the ministry of actively listening to another's story without judging or fixing. If you have a desire to be deeply listened to, please contact Wendy at wcaduff@mary.org or 612.317.3474. This is a free and confidential ministry of The Basilica.

HENNEPIN CONNECTIONS

Mentoring, Achieving, Growing. Consider being part of the one-on-one mentoring ministry with Minneapolis College. Partnering with a student who has experienced homelessness and poverty, we are invited to build relationships that bridge cultural divides. Minneapolis College has many students hoping to participant. As we begin to plan for the next school year, we need you to join us! To learn more, contact Carol at 612.747.2983 or Janice at jandersen@mary.org.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS! ANNUAL ALL PARISH BLESSING FOR GOOD MENTAL HEALTH AND ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Join us in person or via livestream for this blessing. After the morning liturgies, stop by the ice cream truck and get a treat! For more information, contact Janet at 612.317.3508 or jgrove@mary.org.

WHERE ARE YOU IN JOB TRANSITION?

Are you unemployed? Underemployed? Unhappily employed? Wherever you are, The Basilica's Employment Ministry has resources to help you. Contact Janet Grove at 612.317.3508 or jgrove@mary.org to set up an initial intake meeting.

What would it be like to become a Catholic as an adult? How would one know if it was the right path to take? If you are wondering about our Catholic Tradition, RCIA may be the answer to your search. You and a sponsor, who walks, questions and learns with you, would be invited to join a group of seekers, learning and praying together; discerning the possibility of joining the Catholic Tradition. Sponsors are vital and important ministers in RCIA. If you feel a passion for your faith and a desire to learn, listen and discover with others, consider becoming an RCIA sponsor. YOUTH MINISTRY VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Are you familiar with Agape Latte? Agape Latte is a national faith storytelling series founded at Boston College by the C21 Center and Campus Ministry. Through the Agape Latte college and high school Partnership Program, Agape Latte has now spread to over 50 campuses nationwide and is now being offered in many parishes. We'd like to offer this storytelling series four times a year as part of our Youth Confirmation program next fall. We are in need of some volunteers who would be willing to lead this coffee house style of faith sharing. For more information, contact Christine Moore at 612.317.3439 or cmoore@mary.org.

BASILICA YES VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Basilica YES is a group of 11th and 12th Grade students that meet to carry out service projects within the parish community and our neighborhoods. Our focus is on the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. This is a great way for our young people to engage in our ministries, be actively visible in our community and to acquire service hours needed for resumes and college applications.

We are in need of one or two adults from our parish to help co-lead the group next fall. If you have a passion for service and are willing to share this for an hour a week with our high school students, please contact Christine Moore at cmoore@mary.org or 612.317.3439.
