EXPERIENCE ART AND REFLECT

Engaging with the art in Geheimnis – Visual Mediation on Ecclesiastes, Mortality, Mystery, Glory is like going back to college without paying tuition. Artist Kelly Kruse provokes and challenges us to reflect about our lives, humanity, and spirituality. One visit is not enough. There is simply too much to take in and absorb in one viewing, but I assure you, the return trip is worth the effort. This exhibit is on display until December 5 in church, the John XXIII Gallery and Teresa of Calcutta Hall on the lower level.

Kelly describes her work as contemporary illumination. She delves deeply into the human experience, from light and beauty to suffering and death. She is upfront about her personal battle with depression and has used art exploring theology, history, and beauty to find her way forward. With a background in classical music and opera, Kelly studied Medieval and Renaissance music in Italy. During this time, she came upon the idea of illumination as she explored connections in scripture, poetry, music, and the visual arts.

Two years in the making, Kelly drew her inspiration for Geheimnis from scripture, music and famous authors like Dietrich Bonhoeffer, John Donne and Shakespeare. “Geheimnis” is the German word for “secret.”

Studying Ecclesiastes, she drew inspiration from the Hebrew term “hevel,” meaning vapor, smoke or breath—something elusive that can’t actually be grasped, but momentarily felt or glimpsed. Kelly noted that “hevel” is used 38 times in Ecclesiastes, is an abstract concept—it’s an enigma, a paradox she sees as part of our human nature and develops in her art. She invites us to explore the unseen while challenging us to be uncomfortable in a place of not knowing.

Kelly’s non-representational art needs to be experienced in person. Using layers of vibrantly colored acrylic ink and foil, she describes “the wonder of the materials” and “how the foil is transformed by the layers of ink.” Mica, metal, and marble are added on fragile vellum and rice paper for some pieces and transparent dura-tar for another.

STRATEGIC AREAS OF FOCUS

The Basilica of Saint Mary is committed to the future growth of our parish. The Our Parish Our Future plan outlines the three strategic areas of focus for the next five years. This plan builds upon the parish's strong vision, mission, and values.

The Arts

Move, inspire, and transform individuals and communities through excellence in the arts and creative practices.

Inclusivity

Build a culture where people feel valued, welcome, integrated, and included.

Homelessness

Respond to the needs of people experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These three areas of focus were strategically selected through a comprehensive, contemplative process with our parish leadership, staff, and consultants.

The three areas will unify and inspire collaboration across our parish and resonate throughout our commitment to the community.

Learn more about the strategic direction of our parish at mary.org/ourfuture.

A series in Teresa of Calcutta Hall is based on Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 "For everything there is a season." One piece titled "Glory of the City of God" drew me into reflection about The Basilica's vision. Inspired from Jeremiah 29:7 "Seek the well-being of the city and pray for it to the Lord, for in seeking its well-being, you will find your own." As I considered Minneapolis, "City of God" gave hope and challenge to recommit to our Basilica vision. Kelly describes "places of light and places of darkness" citing Isaiah 60 "if we have the light we shall be the light."

Writing on her website Kelly shared, "I believe in the value of connecting faith and art for the modern mind, both as an artist and a holder of great work. It is vital to culture to wrestle visually with ideas that are difficult to voice. I also believe it is good for the human soul to grapple with our inherent limitedness, our life's givenness, and the fact that we are partners for better or worse with the unseen world that sits behind what we can touch."

Experience Kelly Kruse's art firsthand and mark your calendars to meet her at a reception at 1:00pm on December 5 in Teresa of Calcutta Hall, lower level of The Basilica.

IMMIGRANT SUPPORT MINISTRY

There are many issues calling for our attention as we prayerfully read scripture and hear the daily news. The issue of immigration continues to call us to attend to the most vulnerable in our midst. Look for ways to learn about and get engaged in the work of immigration at The Basilica. Basilica parishioners continue to accompany families who are refugees, including those from Afghanistan, support families seeking asylum in Minnesota and walk with those who are facing deportation each day. If you would like to be involved in the work of The Basilica Immigrant Support Ministry, contact Janice at jandersen@mary.org or call 612.317.3477.

IBELIEVE IN ONE GOD, THE FATHER ALMIGHTY, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic, and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

MEDITATION

9:30

I Lift Up My Eyes
Jocelyn Hagen (b.1980)
The Basilica Cathedral Choir

I lift up my eyes to the hills
From where does my help come?
My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.
He will not let your foot be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber;
He who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord is your keeper.
He is the shade upon your right hand;
the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
The Lord will keep you from all evil
He will watch over your life.
The Lord will guard your coming and going both now and for evermore. Amen.

-Psalm 121, adapt.
